GRAND OFFICERS' REPORTS

GRAND MASTER

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

Brethren: Following the course of time in its relentless flight, we approach the closing hours of another annual pilgrimage. Already the vesper chimes are ringing and very soon the curfew will toll its benediction, the last words will be spoken, the gavel will fall, and the records of the present year's labors will take their proper place on the pages of history.

Our journey during the year just closing has been pleasant and profitable. No disturbing elements approaching the magnitude of a public calamity have arisen to cast their blighting shadow across our pathway and we have been permitted to pursue our labors after the usual manner and without any extraordinary requirements from external quarters. Our material progress has been steady and sure. Notwithstanding the wide-spread commercial and financial depression, our membership has gradually increased in numbers and I am pleased to report that our financial condition is eminently satisfactory. My personal observation together with reports reaching me daily from all quarters indicate that we are approaching the season of activity in the fraternal world manifesting a fitness, zeal and determination that I have not seen equalled in the four years I have devoted to state-wide Odd Fellowship, and I doubt if the general prospects have been brighter in the history of the Order. For these and all the manifold blessings vouchsafed to us, we are devoutly thankful to the Supreme Ruler of the Universe, through whose favor we receive all good and perfect gifts.

Illinois Odd Fellowship has taken its place in the "fame and fight, in the struggles and cares of men" and its influence on the side of moral and social purity, equal opportunity and industrial justice, will be felt more and more as the years go by. It has come to understand that it is not sufficient to relieve distress, but it must be prepared to bear its share of the burden of freeing the Jericho roads of life from those vices and superfluities that cause distress and interfere with happiness. In our childhood days we were taught that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" and in our mature years, as the social problems grow more and more intricate, we find the Scholarship of the World wrestling with the vital problems of PREVENTION in CRIME, DISEASE and all the long list of matters and conditions that disturb the peace and happiness of society. Keeping step with the onward march of current events, we find Illinois Odd Fellowship on record in its RESOLUTIONS concerning these matters and it now behooves us to make a more strenuous endeavor to conform our lives to the lines of our profession and mould our pledges into active endeavors for the suppression of vice, the consummation of Peace and the diffusion of HAPPINESS and GOOD WILL in the Universal Family of Man.

With unbounded confidence in the strength and ability of our beloved Order and inspired by its high ideals, we may confidently look forward to the dawning of a higher and nobler manhood and womanhood, of better lives and happier homes, of a better citizenship in this grand old State, a better enjoyment of the things of this world and a better hope for the world to come.

ANNUAL SESSION.

Once in each year the membership of this jurisdiction, through its duly accredited representatives, assembles for the purpose of transacting business, making provision for carrying into effect the benevolent intentions of our laws, deliberating on the state of the Order, correcting mistakes if mistakes there be, and adjusting our practice to the ever changing conditions in our social organism brought about by the constant increase of population and the onward progress of civilization. That annual conference is now at hand and it becomes my pleasant duty to lay before you such information as may seem valuable in an intelligent consideration of the labors for which you have met.

It would be an extravagant waste of time and space to burden the records with details concerning routine and trivial matters common to all administrations. It is sufficient to record in this connection that every situation that has arisen has been met squarely and in the final analysis every other consideration has been subordinated to the welfare of the Order. The volume of business transacted increases year by year. The daily grind at the Grand Master's office carries with it a vast amount of labor, much of it, I believe, out of all just proportions with the importance of the results accomplished, but of this I will speak more fully later on.

In these pages I shall venture to record some of my individual impressions gained from four years of first-hand study among the Lodges of this and neighboring jurisdictions supplemented by personal contact with the Brethren. The conditions as I view them and the suggestions I shall offer for remedial legislation are merely for your information and consideration. I shall speak more freely along this line because of the fact that I have always consistently maintained that the duties of the Grand Master are executive and not legislative, the initiative must come from you.

The ultimate success of all our laudable undertakings is a matter about which we are of one mind, but choosing the means to be employed, or the route to be traveled, may disclose a variety of opinions. It is well at this time to reflect that we do not now concern ourselves about the differences of opinion among our Brothers who so patiently sowed the seed of Odd Fellowship under manifold difficulties in by-gone years, and in the future our children and our children's children will not be concerned over our differences of opinions. They will surely bless us and the God whom we serve for the accomplishment of our day as truly as we annually reverence the day and hour when Thomas Wildey and his four associates laid the corner-stone of Odd Fellowship on that memorable April day in 1819. We do not know all the motives that impelled these men to that act. Much that was said and done in the name of Odd Fellowship in those early days would be offensive to the finer sensibilities of a large majority of our membership today, but the one fact that stands out boldly is that they accomplished something worth while in that they put in motion those potent forces that have electrified the world with the extent of their accomplishment, and it will remain for future generations to charitably draw the veil over the mistakes and short-comings of our day and rejoice in the magnificent results which our combined efforts will surely achieve.

OTHER JURISDICTIONS.

Our relations with other jurisdictions are in every way most cordial and satisfactory.

During the year I have had official correspondence with the Grand Masters of the following jurisdictions: Vermont, California, New York, Colorado, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Ohio, Wisconsin, Missouri, Indiana, Iowa, West Virginia, Virginia, Michigan, Tennessee and Kansas.

Some of the matters adjusted through this correspondence were of long standing and some were exceedingly difficult, but it is very gratifying to me to be able to report to you that each and every one of them has been threshed out to a final conclusion, positive settlements have been made, by compromise when other means failed, and the incidents are definitely closed.

I feel very grateful for the uniform courtesy which distinguished the attitude of all these Grand Masters during these negotiations. Their fraternal consideration has helped materially in several unpleasant situations.

The Order is to be congratulated in its selection of such splendid leaders.

OUR LAWS.

Our laws should be simplified and made to conform to the statutory laws of our State.

They should be sufficiently comprehensive and flexible to fit the needs of local conditions and when regularly adopted should only be amended or modified as the Constitution and By-laws of the Grand Lodge provide.

I feel that this is imperative if we would avoid expensive litigation in the civil courts, and the longer we delay action the greater the danger.

Furthermore, it is a boast of Odd Fellowship that, in all its activities, it looks to the future and marks time on the firing line of progress. Its equipment therefore should be in keeping with its position before the world. Obsolete laws fitted to other days and conditions should be reverently laid away and replaced as occasion arises.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The volume of correspondence has engaged the attention of each succeeding Grand Master and should be definitely regulated for the good of the service as well as the pleasure of the Chief Executive.

A survey of the reports of former administrations reveals the fact that more than fifty years ago the Grand Masters complained about the heavy correspondence.

Modern methods have helped some, but the increase in volume has far outgrown the improvement in facilities until the pressure from this quarter has become positively burdensome.

Our laws provide that the Grand Master is not required to answer a multitude of questions that naturally arise in the course of subordinate Lodge work, but they are silent on the question as to who shall perform this important duty.

Now the Grand Secretary's office is the only immovable office in our Grand Jurisdiction and that office is fully equipped with all the laws, records and references, indispensable to this service. Beyond question the best and least expensive bureau of information available could and should be maintained at that office. An extra stenographer at a moderate salary would enable the Grand Secretary to reduce the correspondence of the Grand Master from sixty to seventy per cent and the results would be in every way more satisfactory to all concerned.

I understand that such an arrangement would be perfectly satisfactory to our present Grand Secretary and, if the incoming Grand Master will avail himself of this favorable opportunity to correct this pernicious custom, he will have more time for service infinitely more valuable to the Order.

DROPPING FOR NON-PAYMENT OF DUES.

At the last annual session the special committee on Dropped Members recommended that "a follow-up system be inaugurated, so as to obtain from the different Lodges, large, medium and small, city and country, the names and postoffice addresses of a sufficient number of members who have been dropped for non-payment of Lodge dues, to make the list a representative one, and the information that thus may be secured be used as a basis for the adoption of any practical plan to obviate the great loss of members by our Order from dropping for non-payment of dues."

In the early days of my administration, I was very enthusiastic over the possibilities suggested in this recommendation. I believe yet that theoretically it has much value, but practically it is a failure at the present time and it will continue to be so until a more systematic plan is devised for communication between the Grand Master and the local Lodge member.

This raises the question of District Organization with which it is very closely interwoven, but which, because of its importance in other connections, I desire to treat independently.

To revert to the subject of Dropped Members. On January 6th, after careful study of the situation, I placed in the hands of the Subordinate Lodges an identical letter with request for prompt reply. I also requested each Deputy to report the date this letter was read in open Lodge. Copy of this letter appears in full, in the order of its dating, among the official letters and papers attached hereto.

The result may occasion surprise among all but Past Grand Masters, who have had more or less experience along this line. By actual count, I received from Lodges and Deputies, during the months of January, February, March and April, reports from 356 Lodges out of a total of 988. - A percentage so small that manifestly these reports can only be considered as "early returns" and not in any sense as representative of the information desired. The remedy for failure to get replies from the remaining 632 Lodges without which no follow-up system can be made effective, I shall consider under the head of District Organization.

Of the reports from the 356 Lodges, a number indicate that the Brethren do not want those who have refused or neglected to pay their dues back in the Lodge, and no names are given. Practically all of the reports were incomplete and only gave the names of those dropped at the close of the last semi-annual term. To be exact, the 356 Lodges reported a total of 1,693 dropped members in their jurisdictions as against the official report in the entire State of 3,715 in 1912, 3,919 in 1911, and a grand total of 31,177 for the past ten years.

So much time was consumed and the answers were so unsatisfactory that I abandoned the whole matter for work that promised more fruitful returns.

One splendid result of this letter, however, as gratifying as it was unexpected, developed. A number of Lodges wrote that, having their attention directed in this way, they had inaugurated a campaign locally to reclaim dropped members, stating that it was more satisfactory to them to do the work in this manner. One Lodge especially reporting later on that it had succeeded in reclaiming every dropped member in its jurisdiction.

After a most thorough investigation, I am of the opinion that the remedy for "dropping for non-payment of dues" is very simple. The practice should be stopped.

Why drop the members at all unless in the most extreme cases? Our laws are clear enough on the question of beneficial membership and do not require "dropping" except at the will of the Subordinate Lodge. When a Brother becomes non-beneficiary because of neglect to pay dues, the Lodge's liability ceases except for Capitation Tax and perhaps attentive benefits. He may even be prevented from attending Lodge meetings. After this the Grand Lodge gains nothing by dropping him, as that reduces the probability of his returning to active membership. The local Lodge gains nothing except to save the Capitation Tax and the Grand Lodge can well afford to let the Capitation Tax apply only to members in good standing and those less than one year in arrears.

To protect the Lodge against imposition, suitable provision may be made so that disability contracted while in arrears more than one year may prevent the Brother from again becoming beneficiary. In fact, it appears to be a clear case of everything to win and practically nothing to lose. A strict adherence to the letter of the law under such conditions would place the Subordinate Lodges in a safer position than they now occupy in view of their irregular practices and laxity in the enforcement of their own laws.

Let the dues, assessments, fines and charges accumulating against the Brother during the first year of his absence be the amount he is required to pay in order to restore him to good standing, and I feel confident that we will by this simple method save thousands of Brothers valuable to the Order, who fall in arrears from one cause or another and having once been dropped, their fear of the ballot and many other circumstances and conditions prevent their return.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge by fixing a different ballot for re-instatement from that required by Institution has restricted the general principle of "once an Odd Fellow, always an Odd Fellow" and why not? It is no credit to the Order to have men in almost every community who will tell you that "they have been Odd Fellows, once." The thoughtful citizen will naturally ask, "if once, why not now?" And too often the impression is gained that the Order is in some way at fault. My opinion is we should be more careful in selecting our candidates, but "once an Odd Fellow, always an Odd Fellow" unless guilty of conduct calculated to bring discredit to the Order, in which case the penalties provided should be rigidly administered.

DISTRICT ORGANIZATION.

The value of local organization in all great and important enterprises is so well established that it requires no discussion.

In the political organization of our State we have county and even township organization, the people's business is conducted through these channels and this is modern practice. Twenty centuries ago every Roman citizen was accorded the right to appeal direct to Caesar, but as Caesar's term of office was not limited to one year, the question of time was not important and, moreover, if the aforesaid citizen happened to spend a few years in Roman chains waiting for his turn, it was merely an incident and not a matter of concern to Caesar. We do not like to admit it, but that is exactly the system we are trying to work out in the transaction of our Lodge business today.

We should have District organizations recognized by the Grand Lodge. The Chief Executive Officer should be a Special Deputy of the Grand Master and be charged with the direct supervision of the work in his District. The services of such an officer would be invaluable as a means of communication on general subjects between the Grand Master and the local Lodge members, also in arranging for Schools of Instruction and major social functions, collecting reliable information as to local conditions aiding in the adjustment of differences in the Lodges and generally in arousing enthusiasm and promoting harmony in his District.

We have already had some good results from the efforts of our Directors of Work, but they have been handicapped because they had no authority, except from the instruction-department, and that, in the last analysis, means no authority at all.

I think it imperative that this matter should receive early and careful consideration.

FUNERAL BENEFITS AND FUNERAL EXPENSES.

I find that many of the Lodges have failed to amend their By-laws to conform to the action taken by the Grand Lodge at the 1912 session concerning funeral benefits and funeral expenses.

I am surprised to learn that many do not know yet that the item of funeral expenses has been stricken from our laws. Many more do not know that, in order to conform to law, their former By-laws covering the matter of funeral benefits should be officially ratified if they wish the amount to remain as it was before, or amended if they wish to change the amount. The practical effect of the action of 1912 was to abolish every By-law in the State on this subject. No less than $50.00 may be paid as a funeral benefit and, if the Lodge wishes to pay more, proper action should be taken.

Representatives will probably save their Lodges expensive litigation by having this important matter attended to at once. The Lodge which has been paying a liberal funeral expense, and has failed to take proper action, stands between two fires, the Beneficiary and the Court, a dangerous position.

PROMPT SETTLEMENTS.

There is a venerable adage to the effect that "short settlements make long friends". I know of no place where it is more applicable than in Lodge work.

Try as we may, we cannot get away from the cold fact that according to our laws the matter of sick and funeral benefits is purely a matter of business. There should be no sentimental consideration permitted to influence action on these claims. If a Brother or his beneficiary is legally entitled to benefits, they should be promptly adjusted and terms of payment arranged. Charity begins at the point where legal liability ends. There is a limit to legal liability, there should be none to charity.

Many of the vexatious differences which I have adjusted during my administration were not originally legal liabilities against the Lodges, but because the Lodge at some point mixed its business and its charity, through making appropriations as benefits when they should have been made as charity, it became in the final analysis liable under the civil laws for a claim of large amount.

I want to emphasize the fact that differences should not be permitted to drift along, but should be adjusted in some way. My observation is that the Lodge is almost invariably caused to suffer by the delay.

EFFICIENCY AND ECONOMY COMMISSION.

The business of this Grand Lodge is recorded in larger figures year by year. Already our capitation tax alone amounts to more than $105,000.00 and receipts from various sources swell the amount to approximately $150,000.00 annually.

The economical distribution of our resources is a matter of vital importance and one that should receive the most careful attention. It is not sufficient that every cent of that vast amount is satisfactorily accounted for and that one dollar's worth of value is received for every dollar expended. Sound business methods demand that the distribution shall be most advantageous and so made that we shall accomplish the most possible good with the means at our command.

I am of the opinion that we should have an efficiency and economy commission to look after these matters in conformity to modern practice in the operation of enterprises wherein large appropriations are involved. Strict economy and one hundred per cent efficiency will produce better permanent results than all the glowing promises we can advertise through the medium of rostrum and press.

SUBORDINATE LODGE FUNDS.

Our laws on the question of legitimate expenditures of Subordinate Lodge funds are framed to suit other days and conditions and should be brought down to date.

A practical separation of the funds should be made, retaining a fixed portion of the receipts intact for the benevolent purposes of the Order, and releasing the balance to be used for current expenses and social activities.

SCHOOLS OF INSTRUCTION.

The official Schools of Instruction in Illinois have long since passed the experimental stage.

When the court of public opinion demanded that the low comedy that had hitherto characterized the ceremonial labors of first class Secret Orders should be relegated to its proper place, many warm friends feared that a death blow had been given to Lodge attendance. This was emphasized in Odd Fellowship in 1908, when in the preparation of our new ritual the wise counsel of mature minds prevailed and the "goat" was reverently taken out of the Lodge room and turned into the back pasture to round out an eventful career with a well earned rest.

Following the natural demoralization in our ceremonial work of the next two years, Illinois, through her schools of instruction, began to demonstrate the practical value of the exemplification of our sublime degrees when applied to the work-a-day affairs of life, and the success of the venture has been phenomenal. New interest has been aroused. Other States have called for demonstrations and remarkable appreciation followed. These schools are the most valuable asset in our propaganda today and they can be made even more effective under District Organization than they have been heretofore. An account of the activity along this line during the past year will be found in the official report of the Ritualistic Department.

SPECIAL RELIEF.

During the year I have found it imperative to extend special relief to three of our afflicted Brothers.

These cases were extraordinary and each was considered on its own merits. It is well known that we have no provision in our laws and practices for hospital cases wherein the Subordinate Lodge Funds have been exhausted. Years ago our Grand Masters wisely decided to discontinue the early practice of circularizing the Lodges of the State for the purpose of raising contributions for individual cases and I found that some new plan must be tried out.

The case of Brother W. I. Ross, a member of Rose Hill Lodge No. 744, was reported to Past Grand Master Jennings last year and he appointed a special Deputy to investigate it. Brother Jennings' term expired while the case was under consideration and it was passed on to me. The report of the Deputy came to me while we were conducting the School of Instruction at Greenup. As many of the Lodges in the vicinity of Rose Hill were represented at this school and the Brethren were well informed as to the merits of the case, I determined to try the experiment of asking for voluntary contributions to create a fund for Brother Ross's benefit to which I could add such amount as appeared necessary from the Special Relief Fund, and the result was most gratifying.

The personal contributions amounted to $58.53, which was intended to reach Brother Ross in monthly installments of $5.00 each. To this I added an appropriation of $10.00 per month from the Special Relief fund, which together with the $4.00 benefits raised the total to $19.00 per month. It was also agreed at the time that personal contributions would be raised in his home town to pay his house rent and I supposed that had been done, but I have just recently learned that there is some doubt about this.

This is a case of paralysis, the Brother is helpless and has a wife and two children. By this appropriation of $10.00 per month from the Special Relief Fund and the arrangements that went with it, Brother Ross and his family have been able to live in comparative comfort. This appropriation was for eleven months and the extra $3.50, of the contribution taken at Greenup, was paid the first month, so that the first warrant drawn was for $18.53, for the month of January.

The second case was that of Brother James Ozee, a member of Round Hill Lodge No. 494, at Saline Mines. This is also a case of paralysis of long standing.

Brother Ozee was injured in a mine accident. He is absolutely helpless and the resources of his Lodge were practically exhausted. His people are barely able to support themselves. After a careful investigation into the merits of this case, I formed a local district composed of the county in which Brother Ozee resides and the abutting counties. In this district there happen to be 36 Lodges and I asked for voluntary contributions to raise $50.00, to which I added an appropriation of equal amount, so that Brother Ozee could receive a warrant in the sum of $20.00 each month during the remaining five months of this administration. As an evidence of the success of this endeavor, I am pleased to report that 32 Lodges out of the 36 reported with a total contribution of $57.50. Of this amount, $50.00 will have been used during this administration and there will be left over the sum of $7.50 to be used for Brother Ozee's benefits as the incoming Grand Master or this Grand Lodge may determine.

The third case is that of Brother Jacob Livingston, a member of Treasury Lodge No. 237, of Rantoul.

Brother Livingston has been helpless for two years and eight months. His case was brought to the attention of the Grand Officers by Past Grand Master Jennings at Olney in the spring of 1913, and it was the unanimous opinion of the Grand Officers that an appropriation should be made for his benefit from the Special Relief Fund. Brother Jennings took the case up at once and appointed a Special Deputy to investigate. Following the investigation, an arrangement was partially completed whereby Brother Livingston should be sent to Campaign and the expense of his care should be shared by the Grand Lodge, Treasury Lodge and another Order of which Brother Livingston happened to be a member. The story of the failure to carry this arrangement into effect, which in no way reflects on Past Grand Master Jennings, but as a matter of fact threw practically the whole burden of providing for Brother Livingston on Treasury Lodge, is too long to repeat here and not material.

Treasury Lodge finally succeeded in getting some assistance from a family relative of Brother Livingston, but is now paying, out of the Lodge Fund, $7.50 per week for his care. The three dollars per week originally contemplated from the Special Relief Fund would have materially relieved the burden of Brother Livingston's care.

After an exhaustive investigation of this case, I appropriated an amount equal to $10.00 per month for the twelve months of my administration for Brother Livingston's relief, a total of $120.00, and it was drawn in a single warrant.

Brother Livingston was very low on the occasion of my recent visit at his bedside and his death at any time should occasion no surprise.

Later—Since writing the foregoing I have received information that Brother Livingston died Oct 30th and was buried by the Lodge.

SPECIAL SESSIONS OF THE GRAND LODGE.

During the year seven special sessions of the Grand Lodge have been held according to law in various parts of the Jurisdiction.

These special sessions afforded a splendid opportunity for a large number of the Brethren to be instructed in the Grand Lodge Degree, all of which was thoroughly appreciated. Their names and the dates of their instruction will appear in due course.

A list of dates and places when and where these sessions were held follows:

January 14th—Greenup.....	Cumberland County
January 28th—Oregon.....	Ogle County.
February 11th—Galesburg.....	Knox County.
February 18th—Bloomington.....	McLean County.
February 21st—Rock Island.....	Rock Island County.
May 12th—Chicago.....	Cook County.
July 18th—McLean.....	McLean County.

By way of explanation, I desire to advise that the particular occasion for holding the special session at McLean was to install the newly appointed Grand Treasurer.

NEW SUBORDINATE LODGES.

During the year, I have granted Dispensations for four new Subordinate Lodges. These Lodges are now working under this authority and I recommend that they be granted charters by this Grand Lodge.

Detailed information concerning names, numbers, locations, dates of institution and names of installing Officers of said Lodges is furnished below:

No.	Name	Location	County	Date	Deputy
202	Bohemia.....	Cicero.....	Cook.....	Aug. 1, 1914	Joseph Muir.

SUBORDINATE LODGES CLOSED.

It affords me great pleasure to report that no Subordinate Lodges have been closed in this jurisdiction during my term as Grand Master.

NEW REBEKAH LODGES.

During the year I have granted dispensations for twenty-seven new Rebekah Lodges. These Lodges are now working under this authority, and I recommend that they be granted charters by this Grand Lodge.

REBEKAH LODGES CLOSED.

The following Rebekah Lodges have been closed during the year:

Fordville Rebekah Lodge No. 174, at Fordville, in Williamson county, was closed on February 2, 1914, by Brother R. H. Perrin, of Energy, Illinois. The seal, records, etc., were received by the Grand Secretary on February 4, 1914.

Home Rebekah Lodge No. 557, at Chicago, in Cook county, was closed on April 20, 1914, by the President of the Assembly, Sister Grace A. Henry, the effects being shipped to the Grand Secretary's office.

Sunshine Rebekah Lodge No. 563, at Lake City, in Moultrie county, was closed by Brother Owen Scott, P. G. M., of Decatur, on August 8, 1914, the effects being shipped to the Grand Secretary's office.

Bond Rebekah Lodge No. 586, at Sorento, in Bond county, was closed by Sister Edith Hendrich, of Edwardsville, December 20, 1913. The effects of this Lodge were received by the Grand Secretary, together with draft for $8.23.

Forrest Rebekah Lodge No. 345, located at Tioga, in Hancock county, was closed by Sister Lizzie Waggoner, P. N. G., of Hamilton, on October 21, 1914. The effects were received by the Grand Secretary, together with a draft for $65.00, being the amount of funds in the hands of the Treasurer at the time the Lodge was closed.

Ferndale Rebekah Lodge No. 459, I. O. O. F., located at Kampsville, in Calhoun county, was closed by Sister Mason, P. N. G., of White Hall. The organization was formally closed October 29, 1914, and its effects, consisting of rituals, etc., were received by the Grand Secretary on October 31. No cash was realized.

CONSOLIDATIONS.

The following Lodges have been consolidated during the year:

Palermo Lodge No. 646, located at Palermo, in Edgar county, and Sidell Lodge No. 225, located at Sidell, in Vermilion county, were consolidated on January 10, 1914, by Past Grand Master E. R. Sayler; the consolidated Lodge taking the name and number of Sidell Lodge No. 225, I. O. O. F.

Dew Drop Rebekah Lodge No. 493, of Spring Valley, in Bureau county, and New Era Rebekah Lodge No. 592, of Spring Valley, in Bureau county, were consolidated on January 5, 1914, by Brother A. H. Booth, of LaSalle, Illinois; the consolidated Lodge taking the name and number of Open Hand Rebekah Lodge No. 493, I. O. O. F.

Ambrosia Rebekah Lodge No. 681, at Atlas, in Pike county, and Rockport Rebekah Lodge No. 505, of Rockport, in Pike county, were consolidated August 24, 1914, by Sister Rose Brenner, P. N. G., of Pittsfield, Illinois; the consolidated Lodge taking the name and number of Rockport Rebekah Lodge No. 505.

Lola Rebekah Lodge No. 663, located in Stockland, Iroquois county, and Milford Rebekah Lodge No. 510, located at Milford, Iroquois county, were consolidated by Sister Bessie Schultz, P. N. G., of Momence; the consolidated Lodge taking the name and number of Milford Rebekah Lodge No. 510.

LOSS BY FIRE.

Subordinate.

Adelphi Lodge No. 8, I. O. O. F., of Chicago, in Cook county, was destroyed by fire on May 22, 1914. A duplicate charter was issued May 23. The loss was practically total.

Bible Grove Lodge No. 273, I. O. O. F., of Bible Grove, in Clay county, was destroyed by fire July 3, 1914, and a duplicate charter was issued July 11, 1914, the loss being practically total.

Ashley Lodge No. 302, I. O. O. F., of Ashley, in Washington county, was destroyed by fire March 8, 1914, and a duplicate charter issued March 9, 1914. The loss was total, with the exception of the Secretary's books.

Dongola Lodge No. 343, I. O. O. F., of Dongola, in Union county, was destroyed by fire August 14, 1914, and a duplicate charter issued August 17, 1914.

G. Garducci Lodge No. 948, I. O. O. F., of Chicago, in Cook county, was destroyed by fire May 22, 1914, and a duplicate charter was issued on May 25, 1914.

Rebekah.

New Century Rebekah Lodge No. 227, of Dongola, in Union county, was destroyed by fire on August 14, 1914, and a duplicate charter was issued August 17, 1914.

Missing Link Rebekah Lodge No. 547, of Ashley, in Washington county, was destroyed by fire on March 8, 1914, and a duplicate charter was issued on March 24, 1914.

CHANGE OF NAME.

Englewood Hill Lodge No. 822, I. O. O. F., located in Chicago, Cook county, petitioned the Grand Lodge at its 1913 session to have its name changed, the new name being omitted in the petition. The petition was granted by the Grand Lodge and the Grand Master was instructed to issue a new charter to said Lodge, the name being left blank in the instructions. The name was changed to Greater Chicago Lodge No. 822, I. O. O. F.

Pride of Lake City Rebekah Lodge No. 469, located in Chicago Cook county, petitioned the Grand Master to change its name to Golden Glow Rebekah Lodge No. 469. Permission was granted and the name changed accordingly.

REINSTATEMENT OF EXPELLED MEMBERS.

Satisfactory reasons having been furnished according to law, I granted permission for the reinstatement of the following expelled members, as indicated:

No.	Name of Lodge.	Location.	Name of Applicant.	Date.
85	Dallas.....	Effingham....	Joseph Evans.....	2-14-14.
309	Browning.....	Browning....	W. L. Waters.....	1-10-14.

615	Eddyville.....	Eddyville....	Oscar Lockeby.....	9-16-14.
543	Auburn.....	Auburn.....	Anton Forneris.....	10-9-14.

I also granted permission for the reinstatement, upon proper representation being made to this office, of Sister Alice Rosenberger, of Deborah Rebekah Lodge No. 306, at Vergennes, on April 21, 1914.

DISPENSATIONS.

During the year I have granted approximately 150 dispensations for social functions and affairs usually of more or less local interest for the pleasure and convenience of the members.

I desire to call special attention to an erroneous impression, seemingly widespread, to the effect that an illegal function can be made legal by dispensation from the Grand Master. This is all radically wrong. If a function is illegal, no permission of a Grand Master can change that fact, and the Brethren are just as liable to complaint and censure with a dispensation from the Grand Master in their pocket as they would be without it. The Grand Master cannot free a member of his Lodge from individual responsibility to the regularly established laws of the Order.

I have been obliged to refuse certain applications that plainly indicated violation of law. Others were couched in language that, while apparently innocent, might have concealed intent to do something the law prohibited.

In order to protect the Order in all cases, as well as to emphasize my position, I have inserted in every dispensation granted for such purposes the notation, "subject to the laws and usage of this Order only," in order that no Brother or Sister might violate existing law with impunity and set up a defense that the Grand Master had given his assent thereto.

DECISIONS.

During the course of the year I have made a multitude of decisions, covering apparently every phase of Lodge law and practice imaginable.

In not a single instance did I render a decision with the purpose of directly or indirectly altering or amending the laws of our Order, as already reported. I am unalterably opposed to the practice of creating law by the approval of decisions that, in effect, alter or amend laws already enacted. For this reason I refrain from quoting any of my rulings. A complete record of every decision made is on file in this office.

As an evidence of the marked success of this administration in the settlement of differences, I feel that it is only right at this time to record that, although there could not have been less than two thousand, and possibly there were three thousand, complaints filed at this office, there has not been a single appeal from any decision I have made. It is also noteworthy that not a single appeal has thus far been filed from any decision of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee. When we realize that there are necessarily two sides to every question, it follows that these decisions must have been at least reasonably satisfactory, else one side or the other would have refused to be governed by them.

VACANCIES.

The following vacancies have occurred in offices and committees and were filled according to law, as indicated:

The death of Past Grand Master William R. Humphrey caused a vacancy on the Board of Trustees of Endowment Funds of the Old Folks' Home and Orphans' Home. Having in mind the active interest Brother Humphrey had manifested in this line of service, I felt it incumbent on me to choose for his successor a Brother who was thoroughly acquainted with his plans and in full sympathy with them. I accordingly appointed Past Grand Patriarch Fred D. P. Snelling of Loyal Lodge No. 601, to serve the remainder of the term.

Brother J. A. Giberson resigned as Chairman of the Committee on Credentials, causing a vacancy. Brother J. E. Taylor of Hennepin Lodge No. 118, having rendered long and valuable service on this Committee in the past, is especially qualified for the position. I accordingly appointed him to fill the vacancy.

The ability and sterling integrity of Brother L. M. Kagy of the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home attracted the attention of the administration at Washington, and he was chosen to responsible service in connection with the Panama Canal, thus causing a vacancy on this Board. Past Grand Master Charles S. Harris, through his services as Special Deputy on the Old Folks' Home Commission, was eminently well qualified to fill the vacancy, and I accordingly appointed him to the position.

The death of Past Grand Master and Grand Treasurer Thomas B. Needles caused a vacancy in the office of Grand Treasurer. After careful consideration, I appointed Brother Elon F. Verry, of Nona Lodge No 152, to fill the vacancy.

The selection of Past Grand Master E. R. Sayler to the position of Superintendent of the Old Folks' Home caused a vacancy on that Board. Because of his business ability, his sympathy for the interest involved and his peculiar fitness in every way for the position, I appointed brother H. G. Cormack, of Queen City Lodge No. 179, to fill the vacancy.

SPECIAL DEPUTIES.

I have not considered it good practice to appoint Special Deputies indiscriminately. I have therefore refused a number of requests wherein the issue was unimportant in proportion to the expense involved. While I have called to my assistance the services of a number of the Brethren, I have been especially careful to take no chances in appointing Special Deputies to handle delicate propositions, and have only selected experienced men for such service.

In addition to the usual number of Special Deputies for dedications, laying of corner stones, etc., there were three appointments of sufficient importance to require special mention.

A difficulty arose early in the year between Harvel Lodge No. 706 and the Grand Sire, C. A. Keller, growing out of some indiscreet resolutions that were passed by the Lodge, reflecting on the action of the Grand Sire. The wording of these resolutions was so offensive as to threaten for a time the existence of the Lodge, but, through prompt and vigorous action on the part of this office, a satisfactory adjustment of the affair was reached and the incident was definitely closed.

Past Grand Master E. R. Sayler represented the Grand Master in the personal negotiation with the Lodge, and Past Grand Master James Ewing Davis rendered valuable assistance, gratuitously, in the correspondence with the Grand Sire. The thanks of this Grand Lodge are due to both these Past Grand Masters for their splendid services.

An unfortunate difference has for a long time existed between certain members of James R. Kewley Lodge No. 1022. In order to iron this out it became necessary to audit the books of the Lodge for a considerable period of time. I enlisted the services of Deputy Grand Master W. H. Pease, who devoted considerable time to the adjustment of this affair and did splendid work for the Lodge and Order.

For several years there has been friction between the members of Ashmore Lodge No. 792, which has finally developed into almost feudal proportion. I appointed Past Grand O. H. Wylie, of Paxton Lodge No. 418, as the Special Deputy to investigate this affair. On one occasion, at Brother Wylie's request, the Grand Master visited the Lodge in person and found the conditions worse, if possible, than they had been represented. I finally succeeded in obtaining a promise from both sides of the controversy to submit the whole matter in dispute to an Arbitration Committee of three members, one to be selected by each party and the two to choose the third. The terms of this agreement are now being worked out.

Persistent rumors derogatory to the conduct of the Old Folks' Home have been a source of concern to previous administrations as well as to this one.

After mature deliberation, I came to the conclusion that, since one man's opinion and report had not been accepted as final in the past by the membership, one man's opinion this year would receive no more favorable consideration. I therefore appointed a Commission of Five Special Deputies, who have labored faithfully and conscientiously throughout the greater part of the year in solving the problems at that institution. They are still at work, and will continue to do so right up to the last minute of this administration. The Board of Trustees co-operated and rendered every assistance in their power.

As conclusive evidence of the splendid work of this co-operation, I venture to remind the Brethren that never in the history of that institution has there been a more satisfactory condition of peace, happiness and contentment than there is right now. The members of this Commission are: Charles S. Harris, P. G. M., of Veritas Lodge No. 478; George F. Howard, P.G.M., of Austin No. 664; W. E. P. Anderson, Chairman of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, of Calvinville Lodge No. 107; Edward L. Stahl, of Atlas Lodge No. 261, and G. J. Feldkamp, of Woodlawn Park Lodge No. 825.

VISITATIONS IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS.

During the year I have made two notable official visitations to other Jurisdictions.

The Grand Masters of Kentucky and Tennessee issued an invitation to the Grand Officers of the Jurisdictions bordering on those two States, fourteen in all, to assemble at Louisville, Kentucky, on May 8 and 9 in special conference, to consider problems peculiar to these Jurisdictions. The glowing press accounts in the current publications scarcely did credit to the wonderful enthusiasm and success of that meeting. At the final session on Saturday night, to which all Third Degree members were invited, the First Degree was conferred on a class of 150 candidates before an audience of two thousand Brethren in the largest opera house in Louisville. Illinois was especially honored on this occasion, in that your Grand Master was one of the three Grand Masters selected to address this splendid audience.

On Saturday, July 26, the Grand Officers of the Jurisdiction of Illinois were invited to attend the Field Day exercises of the Lake County, Indiana, I. O. O. F. Association, at East Chicago. The guest of honor was the Grand Sire, C. A. Keller, of San Antonio, Texas. Your Grand Master had the honor and very great pleasure of participating in the conferences, festivities and School of Instruction which engaged attention at the various sessions on Friday night, Saturday and Saturday night.

NECROLOGY.

During the year two eminent Brothers have closed their earthly labors and gone into that dreamless sleep that marks the transition between time and eternity.

Earth knows them no more. Their voices are hushed and their familiar presence in the great deliberations of our Order will be sadly missed. Their cheering words and wise counsel have been a source of profit and inspiration for many years. They have filled a large place in our progress and the success of our laudable undertakings.

Our hearts are sad because of their untimely removal, but there is comfort in the reflection that, although their ears are closed to our call, their long and valuable services in the cause of humanity have left to us an heritage rich in example of kindly deeds and the diffusion of happiness in the hearts and lives of men and women, after which we may conform our own experience with credit to ourselves and honor to our beloved Order.

William Rodgers Humphrey, P. G. M., P. G. R., member of Cook County Lodge No. 240, Chairman of Trustees of Endowment Fund of Old Folks' Home and Orphans' Home, died at his home in Chicago, January 18, 1914.

Brother Humphrey served this Grand Lodge as Grand Master in the year 1905 with distinguished ability. He was known in the Grand Lodge as the father of the Endowment Funds of our two Homes.

Thomas B. Needles, P. G. M., P. G. R., member of Nashville Lodge No. 37, and Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge, died at St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., June 4, 1914.

Brother Needles was perhaps the most distinguished and best known Odd Fellow in Illinois. He served this Grand Lodge in the capacity of Grand Master in 1870 and as Grand Treasurer from 1883 to the hour of his death.

ODD FELLOWS' LEAGUE AND RELIEF BOARD.

The Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board, with office at Room No. 49, 54 West Randolph street, is a valuable medium for extending the local service in the city of Chicago.

Originally there were two organizations in the city of Chicago, the Odd Fellows' League and the Odd Fellows' Relief Board, neither of which had any official standing, and many Lodges contributed to both. During his official term in 1907, Grand Master Scott devoted considerable time to the establishment of one organization, to be known as the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board, and since that time there has been less confusion and better practical results.

It should be remembered that the success of this enterprise depends upon the co-operation and support of the Lodges of Chicago. There is certainly a field for this sort of endeavor, and it would seem the part of wisdom for the Lodges of the city to thus unite their energies for the common good.

The report of the year's work, from September 1, 1913, to August 31, 1914, is given in full in its proper place among the messages and papers.

OUR HOMES.

During the year I have made frequent visitations at the two Homes. My purpose has been to get first-hand information by personal observation and direct contact with conditions.

The Official Boards have been exceedingly kind. I have not hesitated to accept their gracious invitations to attend, and even at times to participate in their deliberations, and altogether our relations have been most cordial.

ORPHANS' HOME.

At the Orphans' Home at Lincoln I have visited quite often, partly because it is not far away, and particularly because we have had on trial certain improvements in the service that especially interested me and I was anxious to keep in close touch with results.

The Superintendent and Board are to be congratulated upon their enterprise and the splendid results of their labors. Right now they are working on plans to make a practical application of the Widows' pension laws of the State, also to extend the vocational training of the children at the Home.

Following a time-honored custom, I was present on the occasion of the annual graduating exercises of the School. I had the honor and pleasure of making the class address and presenting the usual gold pieces. I particularly remember that I was impressed at the time-with the personnel of this class, a bright, intelligent, energetic bunch of boys and girls, going out into the world to take their places in its affairs and carve their way to usefulness among their fellow beings. Certainly the efforts of the Home were here worth while.

OLD FOLKS' HOME.

The conditions at the Old Folks' Home are certainly most gratifying.

The selection of Past Grand Master E. R. Sayler and his good wife early in the year to succeed to the charge of this Home appears to have been a master stroke on the part of the Board. Every one at all conversant with the affairs of a Home for Old People realizes the difficulties to be encountered, and yet on the occasion of my last visit there a few days ago there was such an atmosphere of content and satisfaction about the place that the good old Sisters and Brothers seemed to have actually acquired a renewed interest in life.

The operation of these two Homes as a major enterprise among our benevolent activities demands serious and careful consideration. Practically two-thirds of our annual receipts for capitation tax are appropriated for their maintenance.

The permanent success of these enterprises demands that rigid economy and the practical application of strict business principles shall be exercised in their management.

Our Order guarantees equal rights and privileges to all its members, and the necessities of all should be considered in the extension of our benevolent undertakings, if we would avoid criticism from without and ultimate dissension from within our ranks.

The physical condition and general atmosphere at both these Homes at this time are exceedingly gratifying to me, as they will be to all who will take the time to interest themselves to the extent of a personal visit, and such a visit is well worth both the time and expense required.

THE PRESS.

The press has been very generous during the year and showed a commendable-willingness to extend its co-operation and the use of its columns in placing before the public such matters relating to the work of the Order as were brought to its attention.

In fact, representatives of the Associated Press and other bureaus have insisted that items of general interest concerning the progress of our work and our position on current problems be furnished from time to time for publication, but the requirements on my time were such that I could not do the matter justice and I felt that any half way measures might injure us, rather than prove a benefit.

I believe this would be a good field to cultivate in the future.

INVITATIONS.

During the year I have been obliged to deny myself the pleasure of attending many social functions, picnics and conferences to which I have received invitations.

Some of these came from neighboring States, and all would have been sources of entertainment and profit. They were in every case fully appreciated, but the time was simply too short and the field too broad to be covered as I should most certainly have been pleased to have it done.

DEDICATIONS.

Many Lodges have had occasion to hold dedication services during the year. Some of the buildings are new and others have undergone extensive repairs. Some of these services I have conducted in person, but most of them I have assigned to Brothers, who have performed the services in every case most credibly.

There is a commendable determination on the part of the Brethren, manifested generally, to make our Lodge homes more pleasant and attractive. This is as it should be. Our great service to the community demands that we should have meeting places that are in every way a credit to our surroundings and in keeping with our high purposes.

STATE FAIR HEADQUARTERS.

As usual, Headquarters were maintained on the grounds at the State Fair at Springfield.

I am not satisfied with this service. We should either make this worth while or discontinue it altogether. It has been suggested that a permanent cottage, not expensive, but complete in equipment, should be erected; a sort of resting place, information bureau and general headquarters for the comfort and convenience of our members who attend the State Fair.

Brother A. H. Gardner, who has been in care of that service, has done well considering the facilities furnished him, but I am of the opinion that this service should be made representative and a credit to the Order or abandoned.

ASSOCIATION OF FRATERNAL HOMES.

The date of the annual meeting of the Association of Fraternal Homes is fixed for the first Monday in September.

To make way for the Golden Jubilee Celebration in the Order of Knights of Pythias, the meeting, which is booked this year for the Masonic Home at Sullivan, was postponed until Thursday, November 5th, inst. At this writing (November 2) the meeting has not been held, but a splendid program has been prepared by the Secretary that will be both interesting and instructive.

Your Grand Master is Chairman of the Association for the current year and Brother J. W. Birney of the Orphans' Home Board is the Secretary.

OFFICIAL MESSAGES AND PAPERS.

In order to avoid, as far as possible, unnecessary repetitions and at the same time furnish details to which this Grand Lodge is entitled, that it may gain an intelligent understanding of the work accomplished, I submit herewith the most important official messages and papers issued from this office during the current administration, in the order of their dating.

SALUTATORY.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.—Greeting:

In assuming the great trust which you have committed to my hands, my first desire is to assure you of my heartfelt gratitude for the confidence you have reposed in me.

It is no small distinction to be called to exercise executive administration of the laws, and to preside over the deliberations of an organization made up of 160,000 of the best men and the best women, in the best State, in the best nation under the shining sun, and the honor is magnified when the call is made unanimously.

Three times only has my name been proposed for consideration in your Grand Lodge, and each time my election followed without a dissenting vote. The remembrance of this manifestation of your confidence will cheer me many times in the trying situations that will undoubtedly arise.

During the coming year I shall greatly rely upon the wisdom and discretion of those who may share with me the responsibilities and duties of administration, and together we appeal to you for that earnest, thoughtful and harmonious support without which our best efforts will prove fruitless, with which we cannot fail.

Odd Fellowship stands today upon sublime heights that overlook a pilgrimage of ninety-four years of active service in the cause of humanity.

Let us pause and gather renewed inspiration from a brief survey of the path over which this pilgrimage was made. We see a vast panorama of almost a century of unrivaled history in the annals of time. During this epoch the world has witnessed greater development in the arts and sciences, greater advancement in the realm of education, and far greater progress in the crystallization of intelligent forces into a concrete effort to better social, moral and physical conditions of the human race, than appears during all the previous years of which history makes a record.

In such environment and amidst such stirring surroundings has Odd Fellowship grown from obscure infancy into a vital, potent world force for good. Cradled in obscurity and nursed in the lap of poverty, buffeted by the storms of adverse criticism, yet ever steadfast in the consciousness of its own strength and pure motives, we see this Child of Destiny threading its way onward and upward, marking time with the progress of current events until at last it stands triumphant before the world, the champion of every essential element of loyal citizenship, the elevation of human character, social purity and industrial justice.

In the practice of its higher ethics Odd Fellowship emphasizes the lessons of sane, practical benevolence and its daily acts and ministrations challenge the wonder and admiration of the world. Its cardinal virtues are sacredly regarded and the hour-glass of time does not pass one measure of sand but during which, somehow, somewhere, Odd Fellowship carries a ray of sunlight on the wings of love into some darkened home, and there brings peace and happiness to drive out the gaunt spectre of distress. But our labors do not end here. We war against vice in all its forms. Friendship for man prompts the contest, the gentle influence of love supplies the weapons, truth consecrates our efforts and leads to victory.

So, then, with commendable regard for the glorious record of the past, let us turn our faces resolutely to the land of the Rising Sun and, with our hearts full of gratitude for the world-wide opportunity we enjoy, let us press forward to higher and nobler achievement. In this conflict we will follow the illustrious example of the Shepherd Lad of Bethlehem in that we ask for no armor, no sword, no helmet, no shield save only the guiding hand of Him who doeth all things well; and sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust in Him our burdens will be light and our progress safe and sure.

THE FUTURE.

It is not my purpose to burden you with detailed plans for the future at this time. You will receive concise letters from this office regularly which will keep you in close touch with current events. The acid test of time has proven our fundamental laws and usages to be correct. All we need is a more intelligent understanding of their meaning and how to fit them into the needs of each passing moment.

OUR RELATIONS.

Our relations with our neighboring Jurisdictions are most cordial and I shall endeavor to cultivate a still better acquaintance and closer ties with them, that all may benefit thereby.

FINANCE.

Our system of finance will provide for every contingency if intelligently applied. My observation is that much of the dropping for non-payment of dues arises from contentions over matters of finance. Brethren, as you love our Order and hope for its future greatness, let us get a more intelligent understanding of the word "distress," and remember that this is not an insurance society. While its laws are liberal, bear in mind that you owe a duty to the Lodge as well as it owes one to you, and let your disposition of all financial matters be absolutely free from prejudice and selfishness.

OUR HOMES.

Our Homes are monuments to the greatness of our Institution. As you enjoy the fruits of your labor do not forget to contribute as liberally as circumstances will permit to both the Endowment Fund and the various operating funds of our Homes. Every contribution of money, food or clothing will be gratefully received.

SOCIAL.

Do not neglect the social features encouraged by our Order. Clean, wholesome amusements bring us into closer touch and add greatly to the interest in our labors. They broaden the horizon of our vision concerning the rights and privileges of those about us and should not be neglected.

LODGE DEPUTY.

The Deputy of your Lodge must be in good standing; one who will be able and tactful in promoting the peace and harmony of your Lodge. On receipt of this letter let each Subordinate and Rebekah Lodge proceed to select a Brother or Sister who will measure up to these requirements, and the Secretary in reporting your choice will certify, under seal, that he or she is in good standing.

FRATERNAL PRESS.

Your Grand Master will avail himself of the generous tender of the columns of the Odd Fellows' Herald and the Chicago Odd Fellow in his endeavors to keep you well informed concerning current happenings of interest, and would recommend that you subscribe for one or both of these valuable papers.

Finally, brethren, let us consecrate our energies to the end that our brightest hopes for the continued prosperity of our noble Order may be fully realized, and with the assurance that I am fully convinced that I may rely on you to the utmost in every emergency, I remain,

Sincerely and fraternally,

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Grand Master.

P. S.—Please find a few extra copies of this letter enclosed, which kindly hand to interested members.

PEACE MONUMENT.

McLean, Ill., December 20, 1913.

To Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

The attached proclamation, issued by the Grand Sire, C. A. Keller, San Antonio, Texas, bearing date the 15th day of November ult., and known as the Peace Monument Proclamation, is respectfully submitted with the request that you carefully consider its contents and take such action as the importance of the subject merits and your financial ability will permit.

Knowing the temper of the splendid citizenship of the great State of Illinois and its record in rising to the necessity of every emergency, I do not deem it necessary to emphasize the request of the Grand Sire for voluntary contributions for the purpose of erecting a "Peace Monument" at The Hague.

We stand shoulder to shoulder with the giant forces that are working so valiantly to disseminate the principles of the Fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man in every land and nation, and should have a fellowship in all laudable enterprises calculated to keep our position before the world.

Considering the heavy demand upon our resources this year, it would seem proper that each Lodge might contribute such amount as you desire, probably from one to five dollars, and forward the same to the Grand Secretary at Springfield, Ill.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Attest:

JNO. H. SIKES,
Grand Secretary.

WARREN C. DARNALL,
Grand Master.

Peace Monument Proclamation.

To the Officers of Grand Bodies of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

In accordance with the authority given me by the Sovereign Grand Lodge at the Minneapolis session, you are hereby requested to call upon all Subordinate Bodies under your jurisdiction to take a collection of individual contributions for the purpose of erecting a "Peace Monument" at The Hague, and that your Grand Bodies make such contributions to said fund out of the Grand Treasuries as may be deemed expedient.

I trust that every Odd Fellow under the jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge will consider it not only a duty, but a privilege, to contribute to this fund for the erection of the "Peace Monument," which will be an object lesson to the world in proclaiming that the tenets of our Order teach "Peace on earth and good will to men."

All contributions should be sent to the Grand Secretaries, Grand Scribes, and Assembly Secretaries of the various Grand Jurisdictions and by them sent to the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Done at San Antonio, Texas, this, the fifteenth day of November, Anno Domini, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and of the Order the ninety-fourth year.

C. A. KELLER,

Grand Sire.

Grand Secretary.

AN EPISTLE FROM THE GRAND CHAPLAIN TO THE BRETHREN OF THE JURISDICTION OF ILLINOIS.

Brethren, Greeting—As Grand Chaplain of this great Order, I would be recreant to my oath and to the spirit of our venerable Fathers should I fail to take the obligations of this sacred office seriously. In this, my first epistle, I desire to lay emphasis upon the importance of

THE BIBLE IN THE LODGE ROOM.

In the general instructions of the Subordinate Lodge we are charged with the fact that the Holy Bible is an integral part of Odd Fellowship; is so regarded by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and that it must be present in every Lodge while open for business. The fact that the Bible must at all times be in the Lodge room implies that it contains great lessons, other than those taught in our several degrees, for consistent Odd Fellowship. Then it should be to familiarize himself with these great lessons and, as the regularly appointed and official Preacher to the Lodge, could, to the moral betterment of its members, raise the standard of efficiency by broadening their minds with the intelligence thus imparted. To know of Adam is to learn of the folly of disobedience to the will of God. The story of Abraham teaches faith in God. The life of Jacob teaches the reward earned by turning from evil to good. Joseph's life is the tree from whose branches the fruit of brotherly forgiveness is plucked. Stories of Moses, Joshua, Caleb and many others are but a few of the starring actors upon the stage in God's drama of life. The many scenes in the life of David alone, when well told, would hold the interest and instruct any Lodge through all the winter months.

THE LODGE CHAPLAIN AND THE CONSTITUTION.

The Constitution of the several Lodges states that the Chaplain's duties shall be those peculiar to his office. The New Standard Dictionary affirms the duties of a Chaplain to be those of a clergyman with special functions, such as conducting religious services in a secret society, etc. This may mean to pray, to preach or to instruct in religious morals. I judge this duty to be that of religious interpreter of the teachings of Odd Fellowship to its members.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE CHAPLAIN'S DUTIES TO THE LODGE.

The office of Lodge Chaplain is not insignificant, but is decidedly significant. Great as are our numbers in good standing, the number who are not in good standing and are dropped from our lists is, also, startlingly large. This continuous dropping of members is due, in a very large measure, to our lack of assimilation: our neglect to teach in the lodge room the larger Odd Fellowship to the untutored.

WHAT THE CHAPLAIN SHOULD TEACH AND HOW.

While the obligation of a Lodge Chaplain, in a Subordinate Lodge, plainly states his duties in the business session, under "Good of the Order" he has latitude for these larger duties.

The Chaplain should always remember that his work in the Lodge is not doctrinal, sectarian, creedal or to instruct in theology, but to teach Virtue, Friendship, Brotherly Love, Divine Truth, molding the Brothers in these sublime ideals.

It is the desire of the Grand Chaplain to assist the brethren, that every member shall become a full unit in our great Order.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

F. LEWIS STARBUCK,
Grand Chaplain.

RECLAMATION OF DROPPED MEMBERS AND VALUE OF GOOD WORK.

McLean, Ill., Jan. 6, 1914.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F., of Illinois—Greeting:

We are just now entering the harvest season in our Lodge work. The months of January, February and March offer better opportunity for energetic and fruitful labor than any other three months of the year.

From all quarters the sound of preparation has been in the air and the echo reaching this office kept everybody here working overtime to meet the requirements of a strenuous situation. Now that the general financial atmosphere shows signs of clearing and the crucial hour has arrived, let every Odd Fellow bend his energies to the accomplishment of the great purposes that called this noble institution into being and for the aid and support of which our word of honor is sacredly pledged.

For years there has been more or less agitation over the question of how to prevent "dropping for non-payment" of dues, yet we have heard comparatively little about any organized effort to re-gather into the fold that great army that is made up of those who for one or more of a multitude of reasons have drifted away and are not counted in the records of the Order.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge, by fixing a different vote for re-instatement from that required for initiation, has recognized the general principle of "once an Odd Fellow always an Odd Fellow," yet I greatly fear that our natural opposition to the view-point of the unaffiliated brother has prevented the exercise of that generous charity toward him and his actions that his relationship to the Order merits.

It is the earnest wish of your Grand Master that especial efforts be directed toward the reinstatement of worthy Brothers whose names have been dropped from the rolls, and I hereby direct that on receipt of this letter the Deputy of your Lodge, with the assistance of the Noble Grand and Secretaries, prepare and forward to this office a list of all the desirable Brothers residing in the jurisdiction of your Lodge who have at some time in the past been members of the Order, but are not now affiliated with it, and we will see if we can not interest them in renewing their covenant.

May I depend upon your prompt action in this important detail?

Let everybody get busy. If there is no place for you to take hold—make a place.

Let the watchword all along the line be "Altogether—now!" and you will be surprised how easy the load will move.

Schools of Instruction to accommodate every county will be provided as rapidly as arrangements can be made and dates fixed. There will be five general or State Schools of two days each with Special Grand Lodge session, if desired. The others will be one-day schools in charge of two or more Grand Officers.

Announcements will follow. Large classes are in order, but small ones are just as highly appreciated. Report progress. I must have a letter on this subject from every Lodge in the jurisdiction.

If you are well and prospering, I want to help you enjoy it. If you are sick, perhaps I may suggest a remedy.

Yours for the greatest year in our history.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Grand Master.

P. S.—Let each Deputy report the date this letter was read in open Lodge.

SPECIAL SESSIONS.

McLean, Ill., Jan. 6, 1914.

To the Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting:

Dear Brothers: Whereas, a large number of the Past Grands in the cities of Greenup, Cumberland County, and Oregon, Ogle County, are desirous of receiving the Grand Lodge Degree, and

Whereas, Oregon Lodge No. 94, and Greenup Lodge No. 116, I. O. O. F., have made request therefor, I, Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., do issue this, my Proclamation of said Grand Lodge, calling special sessions of the Grand Lodge to meet in the cities of Greenup, at 4 P. M. on Wednesday, the 14th day of January, and Oregon, at 4. P. M. on Wednesday, the 28th day of January, 1914, A. D., for the purpose of giving instructions in the unwritten work and conferring the Grand Lodge Degree.

Past Grands desiring to receive the Grand Lodge Degree are requested to present certificates of official rank from their Lodges, which can be mailed to the Secretaries of the aforesaid Lodges, who will place them in the hands of the Credential Committee.

A Past Grand's credential, to entitle him to receive the Grand Lodge Degree, should be substantially in the following form, viz.:

This certifies that Brother _____ is a Past Grand in good standing.

This certificate should be dated, signed by the Secretary, with the seal of the Lodge attached.

Representatives are not compelled to attend these special sessions of the Grand Lodge, but all who can possibly do so should be present.

They will not be allowed mileage and per diem.

Those officers of the Grand Lodge required by law to attend will take notice and be governed accordingly, and I hope there will be a good attendance of the members at the special sessions.

Sincerely and fraternally,

"SOVEREIGN ODD FELLOW" PROCLAMATION.

To Whom These Presents May Come, Greeting:

Whereas, A. C. Veach, owner and editor of the "Sovereign Odd Fellow," published at Gravette, Ark., has for more than a year last past been filling the columns of said paper with violent attacks on a prominent religious denomination, accusing it of being a political organization whose operations are injurious to the community; and

LIBRARY

Whereas, The Grand Sire's attention having been called to the articles in question, he wrote Brother Veach, courteously suggesting that their publication in a periodical purporting to be an Odd Fellows' paper was a violation of certain established principles of our Order, and asking that they be discontinued; and

Whereas, This suggestion was disregarded and the articles objected to increased in number and virulence; and

Whereas, The Sovereign Grand Lodge, at its session in Minneapolis last September (Journal pp. 336 and 337), fully indorsed and approved the action taken by the Grand Sire; and

Whereas, The special committee, consisting of five Past Grand Sires and the Chairman of the Committees on the Judiciary and Appeals, reported among other things, as follows:

"Every Odd Fellow knows perfectly well that with systems of faith or sects, religious or political, our Order as such has no affiliation. We not only have no controversy with any of them, but we are forbidden to enter into controversy about them. Religious and political debates under the auspices of Odd Fellowship are absolutely prohibited. On these matters individual Odd Fellows are entitled to hold whatever opinions they think the evidence will justify, and they have a right to all the freedom in expressing their opinions that the laws of the country in which they live may give them; but our Order is not in any way, directly or indirectly, to be made responsible for them, nor should they be discussed in an Odd Fellows' paper any more than in an Odd Fellows' Lodge.

"To the Odd Fellow Press the Sovereign Grand Lodge has always extended sympathy and encouragement. Grand Bodies have even purchased copies for distribution in the Lodges and Encampments. But this has been done with the distinct understanding that, while of necessity they are to some extent private enterprises, yet they are published in the interest of Odd Fellowship. We have no desire to curtail in the slightest freedom of utterance on the part of our fraternal press, but that freedom must be exercised in harmony with our law and with full recognition of our authority.

"Brother Veach claims the right to publish what he pleases, without any interference by the Grand Sire or the Sovereign Grand Lodge in his management of his own enterprise. If his paper is a purely private enterprise, then he is violating the law which forbids the use of any titles or emblems of the Order in connection with a private enterprise. Let him change the name of his paper, surrender all claim to being an Odd Fellows' paper, and cease using our Lodge to increase his circulation. Then he can preach his favorite doctrine without any interference by us."

And, Whereas, Said report was adopted without a dissenting voice, and it was made the duty of the Grand Sire by the resolutions attached thereto to enforce the laws of the Order as to Brother A. C. Veach, and the "Sovereign Odd Fellow"; and

Wsereas, The said Veach, in the October, November and December issues of said "Sovereign Odd Fellow," has not only continued said articles against said church, but has violently assailed the Sovereign Grand Lodge for its action in the premises, as well as the members of the Special Committee, and the Brother who he supposed made the original complaint about said articles, and has severely criticised the Grand Sire for performing his duty in endeavoring to carry out the mandate of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and through the columns of his paper is trying to spread dissension and to incite the subordinate bodies of our Order to insubordination, and has, in a few instances, induced Lodges, in violation of the laws of the Order, to discuss the subject of his articles in the Lodge sessions, and to pass resolutions condemning the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Grand Sire for enforcing the law;

Now, therefore, I. C. A. Keller, as Grand Sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, hereby enjoin all subordinate bodies of the Order from purchasing or subscribing for said "Sovereign Odd Fellow" for distribution in the Lodges and Encampments, and from permitting said paper to be received, read or discussed in the Lodge room, and call upon all loyal Odd Fellows to remember their obligations to maintain and abide by the laws of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and to refrain from creating dissension and insubordination in our ranks.

The Grand Masters and Grand Patriarchs of each Jurisdiction are requested and directed to promulgate this proclamation to each of their subordinate bodies.

Done at the City of San Antonio, State of Texas, this 10th day of January, A. D. 1914, and of our Order the Ninety-fifth Year.

Proclamation.

To all Grand Masters, Grand Patriarchs and Presidents of Rebekah Assemblies—Greeting:

Certain unprincipled publishers of spurious rituals and secret work of the various Orders have recently become very active in sending out circulars concerning our Order, and are using the mails freely to carry on their nefarious business;

Now, therefore, I. C. A. Keller, Grand Sire, by virtue of the authority vested in me, do hereby admonish all members of the Order to refrain from purchasing or having in their possession any pamphlets or documents purporting to contain any part of the rituals or secret work of Odd Fellowship, and from doing anything, directly or indirectly, to encourage such illegitimate and fraudulent publications; and all members of the Order are notified and warned that, under Sections 1962 and 2246 of Busbee's Digest, the penalty for having an unauthorized work, purporting to be the written or unwritten work of the Order, is expulsion.

All Grand Masters, Grand Patriarchs and Presidents of Rebekah Assemblies are hereby requested to promulgate this proclamation to their respective subordinate bodies and to forbid them, or their members, from purchasing, attempting to use, or having possession of such unlawful and spurious work of every kind, and to see that the law is rigidly enforced.

Done at San Antonio, Texas, this, the nineteenth day of February, Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen.

ANNIVERSARY PROCLAMATION.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges of Illinois, I. O. O. F. -- Greeting:

Dear Sisters and Brothers: Once again we stand before the hour-glass of time and watch the swiftly moving sands, as they sweep down their relentless course, marking the passing of another year.

On the twenty-sixth day of April, 1914, we shall have completed another cycle in the eventful course of our beloved Order and will celebrate our ninety-fifth anniversary.

The Grand Sire of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, C. A. Keller, has issued a proclamation bearing date the nineteenth day of February, 1914, enjoining all Grand and Subordinate Bodies of the Order to take appropriate action for the due commemoration of the ninety-fifth anniversary of our Order on the said twenty-sixth day of April (or, it being Sunday, the 25th or 27th day of April, as may be selected) by suitable exercises in observance of the day and by public thanksgiving to Almighty God for his manifold mercies to us as individuals and as an Order.

Now, therefore, I, Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the jurisdiction of Illinois, by virtue of the authority and power vested in me, do hereby request and direct that all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges within this jurisdiction fittingly observe this anniversary by suitable and appropriate exercises on the twenty-sixth day of April, 1914, or on some other date convenient for the membership.

And as we reverently bow before the Throne of Grace with heartfelt thanks for the blessings that have attended our labors in the past, let us be mindful of the larger world-wide opportunity for service in the cause of humanity that has now come to us because of our strength and because of our preparedness. Let us heed the admonition of our Order which teaches us that the bounds of Brotherhood are not marked by the four walls of any Lodge room, but gather within their sphere the Universal Family of Man. That it is ever our bounden duty to hasten to the relief of a fellow creature in distress, and, finally, let us rise to the full realization of the Sublime Truth that, if we would fulfill our whole mission, we must not only relieve distress, but we must free the Pericho roads of our social, moral and political life from those vices and superfluities that cause the distress, blight the home, destroy happiness and batter and beat the unwary traveler and cast him upon the cold and heartless rocks of a cruel worldly benefaction, then may we with pure hearts and clean hands herald the approach of the millennial day when the law of Universal Brotherhood shall bind all nations, tongues and kindreds of the earth, and the boundless love of our Omnipotent Father shall wipe the tear from every eye.

A general dispensation is hereby granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges observing this anniversary in accordance with this proclamation, to wear the regalia of the Order upon such occasion in accordance with our established laws.

Done at McLean, Illinois, this tenth day of March, A. D. 1914, and in the year of our Order the ninety-fifth.

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

Note.—The ceremony to be observed at the celebration of the anniversary of the Order, as adopted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, can be obtained from the Grand Secretary, John H. Sikes, Springfield, Illinois, at twenty-five cents per copy.

M., on Tuesday, the 12th day of May, 1914, in the City of Chicago, for the purpose of giving instructions in the unwritten work and conferring the Grand Lodge Degree.

Past Grands desiring to receive the Grand Lodge Degree are requested to present certificates of official rank from their Lodges, which can be mailed to the Secretary of the aforesand Lodge, who will place them in the hands of the Credential Committee.

A Past Grand's Credential, to entitle him to receive the Grand Lodge Degree, should be substantially in the following form, viz.:

This certifies that Brother _____ is a Past Grand in good standing.

This certificate should be dated, signed by the Secretary, with the seal of the Lodge attached.

Representatives are not compelled to attend these special sessions of the Grand Lodge, but all who can possibly do so should be present.

They will not be allowed mileage and per diem.

Those officers of the Grand Lodge required by law to attend will take notice and be governed accordingly, and I hope there will be a good attendance of the members at this special session.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WARREN C. DARNALL,

MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION.

McLean, Ill., May 21, 1914.

To the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

Dear Brothers and Sisters—According to the requirements of a standing resolution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the proclamation of Grand Sire C. A. Keller, I do hereby name the second Tuesday of June next, being the 9th day of June, 1914, as Memorial Day, and request all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges that have suffered loss in membership by death to assemble on that day or upon any more convenient day thereto, and engage in appropriate services in memory of their deceased members. A general dispensation to wear the regalia of the Order at such memorial services is hereby granted to all Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges within this jurisdiction.

Done at the City of McLean, this 21st day of May, 1914, and in the year of our Order the ninety-sixth.

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

The ceremony for Memorial Day and for decorating the graves of deceased members (two in one book) may be obtained from Grand Secretary Jno. H. Sikes, Springfield, Illinois, at 25 cents per copy.

SPECIAL SESSIONS.

McLean, Ill., July 16, 1914.

To the Officers and Members of Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

Dear Brothers: Whereas, a large number of the Past Grands in the city of McLean, McLean County, are desirous of receiving the Grand Lodge Degree; and

Whereas, Mt. Hope Lodge No. 746 has made request therefor, I, Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., do issue this, my proclamation of said Grand Lodge, calling a special session of the Grand Lodge to meet in the city of McLean at 8:00 o'clock P. M. on Saturday, the 18th day of July, 1914, for the purpose of giving instructions in the unwritten work and conferring the Grand Lodge Degree.

Past Grands desiring to receive the Grand Lodge Degree are requested to present certificates of official rank from their Lodges, which can be mailed to the Secretary of the aforesaid Lodge, who will place them in the hands of the Credential Committee.

A Past Grand's Credential, to entitle him to receive the Grand Lodge Degree, should be substantially in the following form, viz.:

This certifies that Brother _____ is a Past Grand in good standing.

This certificate should be dated, signed by the Secretary, with the seal of the Lodge attached.

Representatives are not compelled to attend this special session of the Grand Lodge, but all who can possibly do so should be present.

They will not be allowed mileage and per diem.

Those officers of the Grand Lodge required by law to attend will take notice and be governed accordingly, and I hope there will be a good attendance of the members at this special session.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES, Grand Secretary.

Waterloo, Illinois, April 26th, 1835

THOMAS B. NEEDLES

From 1883 to 1914 .

DIED

St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis, Mo., June 4th, 1914

Funeral under auspices Nashville Lodge No. 37, Grand and Past Grand Officers participating.

To the Officers and Members of Subordinate Lodges, I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting:

Whereas, The death of Brother Thomas B. Needles has caused a vacancy in the office of Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.;

Now, therefore, in conformity with the laws and usages of this Order, by virtue of the authority in me vested, I, Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. of Illinois, do hereby appoint Elon V. Verry, of Armington, member of the Grand Lodge and of Nona Lodge No. 152, to serve until the next regular session of the Grand Lodge or until his successor is duly elected and installed.

Done at McLean, Illinois, this eighteenth day of July, A. D. 1914, and in the year of our Order the ninety-sixth.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Attest:

Grand Master.

JNO. H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.

Brethren:

The death of our Grand Treasurer added a new and unwelcome responsibility to the already unusual number which have devolved upon the Grand Master during the current term.

The Constitution provides that, in the event of a vacancy, it shall be filled, ad interim, by the Grand Master.

Immediately following the announcement of the death of Brother Needles there developed a factional fight that was altogether out of proportion with the importance of the issues involved. The claims of several candidates were urged with vigor. I can truthfully say that there was not a name proposed that I could not have endorsed with the greatest satisfaction to myself and honor and credit to the Order, yet regardless of this fact the desire to win seemed to overshadow every other consideration.

I purposely delayed action in the hope that some common ground might be found where a mutually satisfactory solution of the problem might be reached, but the deadlock appears complete, and I can not permit the service to be impaired by further delay.

The plain and only official duty of the Grand Master in this emergency is to promptly safeguard the funds and other property of the Grand Lodge, see that the service that belongs to the office of Grand Treasurer is performed with accuracy and fidelity, and finally, when the Grand Lodge shall have manifested its choice for Grand Treasurer, see that the funds and property are duly delivered to him.

I have selected a man who has no connection whatever with any party or faction, nor was his name ever mentioned in this connection by any individual. His qualifications are above criticism, and I have taken no chances. I have appointed a man whom I have known from childhood; one whose individual bond is good for several times the total amount of Lodge funds that will pass through his hands and whose word is as good as his bond. His long and prosperous career as a banker, grain dealer and farmer bears the stamp of honesty, integrity and square dealing.

The bond of the Grand Treasurer is fixed at One Hundred Thousand Dollars, and, to guard against any possible contingency that might interrupt the even course of the financial transactions of the Grand Lodge, I requested that the bondsmen should represent a financial responsibility of ten to one, or one million dollars. Mr. Verry presents a bond signed by individuals whose combined wealth exceeds one and one-half million dollars, by far the larger part of which is invested in Central Illinois first-class farm lands, which is not subject to the danger of fluctuation in value and depreciation that is inseparable from all hazardous business undertakings.

Mr. Verry was this day legally installed by me in the hall of Mt. Hope Lodge No. 746, at McLean, in the presence of more than sixty members of the Grand Lodge, among whom were Grand Warden John J. Crowder, Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, Grand Chaplain F. Lewis Starbuck, Grand Chaplain of the Sovereign Grand Lodge J. A. Lucas, and J. W. Birney, of the Orphans' Home Board, and the brethren may content themselves in the full assurance that their treasury is in absolutely safe and competent hands.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Grand Master.

PEACE PROCLAMATION.

To the Officers and Members of the Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges,
I. O. O. F. of Illinois—Greeting:

The President has issued a proclamation setting apart Sunday, October 4th, prox., as a day of prayer for the restoration of peace.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows as an institution believes in the efficacy of prayer. It believes and teaches that no great or important enterprise should engage our efforts without first invoking Divine approval.

The Independent Order of Odd Fellows as an institution believes and teaches that to hasten the dawning of the great day when the law of Universal Brotherhood shall bind all nations, tongues and kindreds of the earth the desires of our hearts and the energies of our hands must be harmoniously directed to the elimination of all those agencies and conditions which create heart burnings, discord and strife between the elements of the human family.

We therefore deplore present conditions and commend every earnest effort that may be put forth in restoring peace and harmony between the so-called nations of the Old World now engaged in deadly strife.

We honor President Wilson for his energy and zeal in the cause of Universal Peace and extend to him the loyal support of the Odd Fellows of Illinois in this worthy cause.

As Grand Master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Illinois, I call upon all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in this jurisdiction to co-operate, so far as their ability will permit, in complying with the request of the President and assisting in such services as may be arranged locally in furthering his laudable purpose.

A general dispensation is hereby granted to those Lodges which may so desire to wear the regalia and emblems of the Order on the occasion aforesaid.

Done at McLean, Illinois, on this 25th day of September, A. D. 1914, and of our noble Order the ninety-sixth year.

Sincerely and fraternally,

WARREN C. DARNALL,

Grand Master.

WAR.

As these lines are being written the civilized nations of the Old World are in the midst of the greatest war known in the annals of time, and history is once more being written in characters of blood.

Just now Turkey has entered the arena, and the end is beyond human comprehension. In this great crisis the fires of Odd Fellowship should be kept burning brightly. With a firm and steadfast faith in a God of Love and Mercy and the final triumph of His will, let us bear aloft the banner of Friendship, Love and Truth.

Civilization and culture, as a preventative of war, have failed. It is now time to try the diffusion of the principles of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, and, when the law of Universal Brotherhood is firmly established, the kings of earth will be the servants of men, and there will be no need for standing armies and giant navies; the fires will be drawn from the grates of the great gun works and men will no longer wax fat in the traffic that brings only desolation, distress and death.

Illinois Odd Fellowship stands before the world today as a great moral school. Its mission is to guide men to a better knowledge of themselves, their origin and their destiny. To imbue them with a proper conception of their capabilities for the diffusion of happiness in a world where the arch enemy of mankind is ever at work, sinking his poisonous fangs into innocent hearts and sowing the seed of discord and distress in the lives of men created in the image of God. It teaches that true happiness is not of time alone, but belongs to eternity, and if we diligently seek after this "Pearl of Greatest Price" we shall draw very near to the shining pathway of Truth.

To this end we war against vice in all its forms, not as the armies of earth go forth to kill, that man may revel in "the boast of heraldry and the pomp of power," but bearing the shield of truth and armed with the weapons which Love supplies, that men may be saved from the results of their own misdoings, and the song of the angelic hosts may find echo in every heart and every lip shall sing "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will to men."

REPORT OF DEPUTY GRAND MASTER WILLIAM H. PEASE.

Harvey, Ill., October 24, 1914.

Hon. Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master I. O. O. F., McLean, Ill.

I have yet three engagements to fill, and then I shall have completed my work under your administration.

I am indeed pleased to be able to report to you the splendid condition of all the Lodges I have been privileged to attend, and the loyalty that has been expressed in those to whom the reins of government have been given for the year now drawing to a close.

Sincerely and fraternally yours,

WILLIAM H. PEASE,
Deputy Grand Master.

REPORT OF GRAND WARDEN.

Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.,

Office of John J. Crowder, Grand Warden,

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 1, 1914.

Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., McLean, Ill.:

Dear Brother Darnall: In response to your request for a short report of my actions as Grand Warden.

During the past year I have attended schools of instruction and special sessions of the Grand Lodge at Bloomington, Galesburg, Oregon, Rock Island, Chicago and McLean, and at each place had the pleasure of conferring the Grand Lodge Degree on a large class of Past Grands. On April 26th, I attended the anniversary exercises in Chicago, under the auspices of the Cook County Anniversary and Picnic Association, and spoke to a large audience, estimated at twelve hundred persons. I also accepted invitations to speak at Mt. Carroll on Memorial Day, and at Bloomington and Blue Mound on picnic occasions. I have attended Lodge meeting in many places near Peoria, and am glad to say that the Order in this part of the State is prosperous and harmonious. One occasion which I recall with special pleasure, was the meeting at Harvey, the home of Deputy Grand Master Pease, where the Grand Lodge officers assisted in the initiation of a class of more than sixty candidates. A similar meeting was held at Rock Island, where a similar class was initiated.

At all the schools and meetings, I was impressed with the interest shown in the work by the members, the evident desire to grasp the full meaning of the lessons sought to be conveyed by the ceremonies of the several degrees, and to study carefully the deeper meanings of Odd Fellowship. This tendency I heartily welcome, for while we should not overlook the practical work of Odd Fellowship, neither should we minimize those teachings of the Order which make for better citizenship and a purer individual life.

I wish to thank you for the many courtesies extended to me during the year.

Fraternally yours,

J. J. CROWDER,
Grand Warden

REPORT OF GRAND CHAPLAIN.

Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F.,
Office of F. Lewis Starbuck, Grand Chaplain.

McLean, Ill., Nov. 1, 1914.

Hon. Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., McLean, Ill.

Dear Grand Master: Breaking all precedents of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F., with respect to the office of Grand Chaplain, I hand you, herewith, a summary report of my activities for the past year.

When you asked me to accept the appointment to the office of Grand Chaplain, my reply to your request was that, if to accept the office was merely to receive the compliments of an empty honor, I would not be interested. I accepted the appointment expecting to be put to work for the Good of the Order. I did not crave that the office honor me, but, rather, that I fill the office with honor both to your administration and to the brethren throughout the State, by worthy service rendered.

In entering upon my work I sincerely endeavored to bring to the several Subordinate Lodges throughout your jurisdiction a quickening thought as to the importance of the office of Lodge Chaplain. Since the Holy Bible is the cornerstone in our foundation, as is its spirit the key-stone in our arch of usefulness, I have traveled here and there, over the State of Illinois, giving definite accent to the importance of a fuller knowledge of its beautiful lessons. I have tried to imbue the brethren with the idea that the office of Lodge Chaplain is not an incumbency of memorized prayer and benedictions, but one so important in character, if its highest ideals are met, as to require a clear and comprehensive understanding of all the lessons the Bible holds for the good of Odd Fellowship and that it should be a part of his duty to impart these lessons to the brethren thus to raise the standard of fraternity among us.

My first official act, immediately at the closing of the Grand Loodge, was to assist the retiring Grand Master in the dedication of the new dormitory at the Orphans' Home. I began my acquaintance with the brethren by attending the receptions given to the Grand Officers-elect by their home Lodges. The first of these was given in honor of Brother W. H. Pease, Deputy Grand Master, at Harvey, Ill., then followed in the order given that of John J. Crowder, Grand Warden, Peoria, Ill., Mrs. Grace Henry, President of the Rebekahs, Maywood, Ill., and Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master, McLean, Ill.

Acting upon instructions from your office, I attended meetings of the Grand Lodge, and participated in the work of instruction in the Degree Work at Harvey, Oregon, Bloomington, Greenup, Galesburg, Cairo, Murphysboro, Chicago, McLean, and Alton. I refrain from giving the details of these meetings since other officers will cover them in their reports.

On the occasion of our annual Memorial and Anniversary days and other special events at local Lodges, I made addresses at Paris, Bardolph, Lewistown, various Lodges in Chicago, Paw Paw, Bloomington, Weldon, and Alton. I assisted Brother Sayler at the dedication of the new hall of the Austin Park Lodge, and presided at the dedication of our new hall at Weldon.

Throughout the term I have delivered thirty-six extempore and set addresses. I sent out one general letter to all the Lodges, the contents of which, I presume, you will incorporate in your General Report. I have continually urged that assimilation of members was more important to the conservation of the Order than large lists of applications for membership without thought of rendering service.

And now, Grand Master, since I have thus far in my report merely given a cross-section exhibit of my aims for the Order and the Lodges visited in the course of my duty, it is fitting that I shall not close without making a brief statement of general conditions, as I found them throughout the State, resultant from your splendid year of administrative achievements for higher ideals among the Brothers.

That which impressed me first was your own methods of presenting the ideals of Odd Fellowship to the Brothers. The fact that fraternity is best exemplified by a truer conception of our lessons and pictures, as portrayed in our marvelous degrees, seemed to me to be the base of your work for the betterment of the Order. Then, as through the months, these ideals began to be a part of every Lodge's activity. It made for better observance of our laws among the members. The number of disputes seems to have grown less and less; and, where at first I heard conjectures of doubt, there now come generous words of praise for your wisdom and management. These changes were obvious to me as I passed in and out pursuant to the discharge of my duties. Odd Fellowship certainly has stepped out and higher because of your leadership. And, since the golden period in the life of any social group sets their hearts in tune and brings praise songs to their lips, will thy brethren long remember this year.

“But the record fair
That memory keeps, of all thy kindness there,
Still outlives many a storm that has effaced
A thousand other themes less deeply traced.

* * * * *

All this and more, enduring more than all,
Thy constant flow of love, that knew no fall,
Ne'er roughened by those cataracts and breaks
That humor interposed too often makes;
And this still legible in memory's page,
And still to be so to my latest age,
Adds joy to duty, makes me glad to pay
Such honors to thee as my numbers may;
Perhaps a frail memorial, but sincere,
Not scorned in heaven, though little noticed here.”

If my poor services have added somewhat to the glory of this year's administrative achievements, even though but a little, I am fully paid and grateful. Night falls when the lowering sun dips beneath the cover of the western sky, but nights are mere divisions ordered to set apart our days of usefulness. It is thus that my day as Grand Chaplain to the Grand Lodge of Illinois, I. O. O. F., passes into the night of history. If it has been a day of service to the good of Odd Fellowship, Grand Master, so be it.

My report is respectfully presented.

Fraternally yours,

F. LEWIS STARBUCK,
Grand Chaplain.

Department of Ritualistic Instruction.

REPORT BY H. M. BLOOD, CHIEF OF EXAMINERS AND INSTRUCTORS.

Chicago, October 19, 1914.

Hon. Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master, I. O. O. F., McLean, Ill.

Dear Brother Darnall—I cannot begin this, my third yearly report, without first expressing my appreciation of the uniform courtesy, sympathy and unlimited co-operation given me by yourself and the other Grand Officers and the whole rank and file of our membership. While my work has at times been arduous, requiring the limit of my endurance, still, as I look back upon the past year, and take into account the friendships made, which I believe will endure, I cannot help but feel that the Order has been kind to me in that the opportunity to help promote the principles of Odd Fellowship fell to my lot. I hold it a great honor to have been even a small part of the many forces that have helped to push the good work.

SCHOOLS OF INSTRUCTION.

During the year I have attended the following Schools and at each have endeavored to teach the lessons and basic principles of Odd Fellowship as laid down in our Ritual. I have tried to do this work in a simple manner, leaving to the ingenuity of the Staff Captains the elaboration of the work as far as they felt they were able. To what extent I have succeeded I must leave to the judgment of those who have attended the Schools.

December 15—The first School was held at Harvey, in the Coliseum building. During this meeting the Grand Officers filled the principal chairs in the Initiatory Degree and conferred that degree upon sixty-five candidates for Harvey Lodge No. 80. The attendance was about one hundred and twenty-five, and all Lodges in the Calumet District were represented. The Grand Officers present on this occasion were: Grand Master Warren C. Darnall, Deputy Grand Master William H. Pease, Grand Warden John J. Crowder, Grand Chaplain

F. Lewis Starbuck, Grand Marshal Fred Beckstrom, Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, Chief of Examiners and Instructors H. M. Blood.

January 13—On this date we held a School of Instruction at Greenup, beginning at 10:00 a. m., with fourteen Lodges represented and about one hundred members present. The afternoon session, beginning at 1:30 p. m., showed fifteen Lodges represented and one hundred and twenty-five present. At this time the Initiatory Degree was conferred on six candidates. In the evening, beginning at 7:00, the Initiatory Degree was again conferred on three more candidates, making a total of nine for the day. Twenty-six Lodges were represented and two hundred and fifty members present. During the evening Westfield Lodge No. 644 conferred the First Degree and Bonegap Lodge conferred the Second Degree. On January 14 the School was continued, with seventeen Lodges represented. At this time the First and Second Degrees were taken up by the Chief of Examiners and Instructors and the Grand Master. During the morning session about ninety were present. The afternoon session showed three more Lodges represented than on the previous day. Brothers Grand Secretary John H. Sikes and Past Grand Master Henry A. Stone reported and gave talks on Degree Work. This School closed on the evening of January 14 with a general all around get together meeting, which seemed to be fully appreciated by every one, including the Grand Officers.

January 27—The next School was held at Oregon, beginning in the afternoon of January 27, with twelve Lodges represented and fifty members of the Order present. The Grand Master opened the meeting, which was followed by the Chief of Examiners and Instructors in the exemplification of the Initiatory Degree. At the evening session the Grand Master took up the First Degree, and was followed by the Chief of Examiners and Instructors in the Second Degree. At this meeting we had the assistance of the Grand Chaplain and others. Roll call showed seventeen Lodges represented and seventy-five members present. At the morning session January 28 the Initiatory Degree was conferred by DeKalb Lodge No. 155 in good shape. Then followed a special session of the Grand Lodge. At this session, in addition to the Grand Master and Chief of Examiners and Instructors, were found Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, Deputy Grand Master William H. Pease, Grand Warden John J. Crowder, Grand Chaplain F. Lewis Starbuck and Brother Dr. C. A. Robbins. During this session twenty-four Lodges at different times were represented and the meeting was pronounced a success by those present.

February 2—On this date, in company with Grand Chaplain F. Lewis Starbuck, I visited Cairo and held a School in the evening. Owing to a misunderstanding with reference to the advertising of this meeting, the attendance was not as large as they would have liked, but it seemed to me to be satisfactory, considering the season and conditions of the weather. We, however, had about one hundred present and eighteen Lodges were represented. This meeting was what we call a one-night session, and when the meeting was closed we left for Murphysboro.

February 3—In the afternoon at Murphysboro we held a round table session. Past Grand Master Fred B. Merrills and Brother George W. Young made their appearance and stayed for the evening meeting. Both of these Brothers made extended talks along the general line of Odd Fellowship. During the evening Chief of Examiners and Instructors exemplified the Initiatory, First and Second Degrees and Brother Starbuck closed with usual good taste. Fifteen Lodges were represented at this meeting.

February 10—On this date we held a School of Instruction at Galesburg. Session opened at 2:00 p. m. at the Elks' hall, with twenty Lodges represented and seventy-five members present. Chief of Examiners and Instructors took up the Initiatory Degree in the afternoon. This work seemed to be well received. Short talks were made by Brothers present. During the evening session, which began at 7:00, Brothers met at the Lodge hall and were led by Canton Galesburg and a brass band to the Elks' hall. The First Degree was exemplified by the Staff of Memento Lodge No. 44 of Farmington. After this work the Grand Master took the floor and exemplified several characters in the dramatic part of the First Degree. February 11 the morning session was devoted to instruction in the First Degree. The afternoon session was devoted to instruction in the Second Degree and the session of the Grand Lodge, all Grand Officers being present. The attendance at this meeting was fairly good and those present seemed to appreciate the work.

February 17—On this date we held a School at Bloomington, beginning in the afternoon, with short talks by various Grand Officers and prominent members of Bloomington. Roll call showed eighteen Lodges represented. The evening session was devoted to Instruction in the Initiatory Degree. Roll call showed twenty-three Lodges represented and the hall well filled. February 18, at the morning session of this School, Grand Master took up the instruction in the First Degree. During this time Brother Past Grand Master J. A. Lucas arrived and gave an excellent talk concerning the Orphans' Home. The evening session was devoted to conferring the Initiatory Degree by the Grand Officers who were present and the balance of the Staff, made up from local Brothers, on thirteen candidates. During this Bloomington School we had more than forty Lodges represented and the attendance was generally good.

February 21—On this date we held a School of Instruction at Rock Island, beginning in the afternoon. Instruction in the Initiatory Degree was given by Chief of Examiners and Instructors and instruction in the First Degree by the Grand Master. At 4:00 p. m. a special session of the Grand Lodge was convened, when a large class of Past Grands took the First Degree. This was followed by a banquet at 6:00. At 8:00 o'clock Lodge was opened and the Staff of No. 133 took the chairs, then the Grand Officers who were present assumed the various stations and conferred the Initiatory Degree on about seventy candidates for the local Lodges. From indications it seems that there was considerable enthusiasm engendered at this meeting, with a large attendance. Rock Island and Moline are the homes of good Lodges, the local Lodges of these two cities having a national reputation. Too much cannot be said for the splendid manner in which these Lodges look out for the instructions of their candidates, and where work of this character is done there can be no doubt as to the future of the Order.

May 19—We held a School of Instruction in the hall of William Tell Lodge No. 219 at Joliet. Instructions in the various degrees were given and the Initiatory Degree was conferred by the Staff of William Tell Lodge. This is a new Staff, which has recently been organized, and the work was most excellent. I look for fine reports from this Lodge in the future. At this meeting the attendance was good, both in the number of Lodges and the membership present.

September 22—I held a School of Instruction for the German District of Cook County, in the hall of Olympia Lodge. At this session I took up a part of the Ritualistic Work, and the Unwritten Work was exemplified in both English and German by Official Instructors and Chief of Examiners and Instructors.

October 8—On this date I held a School of Instruction in Washburn, at which we took up instruction in the Initiatory, First and Second Degrees. The attendance was satisfactory and enthusiasm was all that could be asked.

SCHOOLS IN COOK COUNTY.

During the spring, beginning March 23, four Schools were arranged for Cook County, the first one being held in the hall of I Will Lodge No. 141, at which the Initiatory Degree was exemplified by the Staff of I Will Lodge, except as follows: Conductor, John H. Sikes; Right Scene Supporter, H. M. Blood; Left Scene Supporter, Warren C. Darnall. This work was well received. The meeting was very large, fifty-nine Lodges being represented and the hall packed to its capacity.

April 24—I arranged for a School for the North Side in the hall of Three Links Lodge No. 812, at which the First Degree was exemplified by the Staff of that Lodge and the Unwritten Work exemplified by Official Examiners and Instructors. On account of illness I was unable to be present at this meeting.

May 20—On this date the third meeting of the Chicago series was held in the hall of Woodlawn Park Lodge No. 825. The Second Degree was conferred by I Will Lodge No. 141. This Staff is famous in the work of this degree, and their work was fully up to their reputation. The attendance was large and the number of Lodges represented very great. At this session Past Grand Master James Ewing Davis presented a twenty-five year jewel to Brother Larkin, who is a charter member and at present their Staff Captain. Enthusiasm ran high and compliments were given on every hand for the work done.

June 15—This was the date of the last of the series of four meetings for Chicago and was held in the hall of James R. Kewley Lodge No. 1022. A short talk was made on the Ritual by Chief of Examiners and Instructors, which was followed by the Staff of Kewley Lodge, who exemplified the Third Degree in a most elaborate manner. Their hall was full to capacity and Lodges were represented, not only in the Chicago District, but from LaSalle, Gary, Joliet, South Bend, East Chicago and Calumet District and the South Side generally. This closed the regular scheduled meetings with a boom, and I am satisfied that the work was appreciated by every one and will have a good effect on the Chicago Lodges for some time.

From time to time on various dates I have held special Schools for individual Lodges, both in Chicago and surrounding counties, and at all of these meetings I have tried my best to impress upon the members, and especially the members of the various Staffs, that mere memorizing of charges is not sufficient, but that only by a true interpretation of the lessons of the Ritual can the Work be carried on as we would wish, and I am glad to say that there does seem to be a marked improvement all along the line. I trust that the work in this department will be pursued until there shall be no Lodge in our Jurisdiction unable to interpret the charges as they are intended.

DIRECTORS OF WORK.

There has been some trouble in getting the proper Brothers to fill the positions of Director of Work in many of the districts. This likely comes from the fact that the districts are large and hard to cover, and also from the fact that there is no fund from which expenses for traveling may be paid. It is asking a whole lot to expect Brothers not only to give their time, but pay railroad bills in doing this work. I would therefore recommend that these districts be cut down so as not to include more than one county, and that the county organizations be requested to recommend some one of their own members to the Grand Master for the position of Director of Work. In this way I believe we could get more counties covered than in trying to get one brother to take care of two to four counties, with Lodges scattered in many cases fifty miles apart by railroad.

The following Directors of Work were appointed early in the term:

District No. 2. Dr. C. A. Robbins, Dixon. Winnebago, Ogle and Lee counties.

District No. 4. Frank S. Taylor, Aurora. DuPage, Kane and DeKalb counties.

District No. 5. Fred W. Beckstrom, Moline. Whiteside, Henry and Rock Island counties.

District No. 9. James G. Hitchcock, Watseka. Iroquois county.

District No. 14. E. L. Harris, Dallas City. Henderson and Hancock counties.

District No. 18. M. C. Weaver, Champaign. Champaign and Douglas counties.

District No. 20. John Merrick, Westfield. Edgar and Clark counties.

District No. 23. W. W. Curry, Decatur. DeWitt and Macon counties.

District No. 25. W. C. Crowder, Springfield. Sangamon county.

District No. 26. F. E. McDougall, Jacksonville (resigned). Morgan, Scott and Greene counties.

District No. 28. Isaac M. Sparks, Rushville. Adams and Schuyler counties.

District No. 29. C. R. Talbott, Carlinville. Macoupin and Jersey counties.

District No. 30. C. G. Barnwell, Litchfield. Montgomery, Fayette and Bond counties.

District No. 31. Arthur Mason, Watson. Effingham and Jasper counties.

District No. 32. Z. H. Barker, Oblong. Crawford, Lawrence and Richland counties.

District No. 33. I. N. Jones, Wayne City. Wayne, Edwards and Wabash counties.

District No. 34. W. W. Yeck, Flora. Marion and Clay counties.

LODGE VISITS.

I have felt that I owed to the Order all I could put into it, and I have limited that to the possibilities of my physical ability. During the past term I have attended more than one hundred Lodge sessions, not counting the times I have attended my own Lodge. These meetings have been scattered all over the State, some of them requiring two days and a night, or two nights and a day to make the trip and hold the meeting.

On April 20 I had a breakdown, due to overwork, and was compelled to go a slower pace for a month in order to get back to my normal condition. Since then I have had to pay more attention to myself than I have been used to, having always before enjoyed good health. I am glad to say at this writing that I believe I am fully recovered.

These meetings cover a wide range of occasions. Whenever possible I have tried to "stick to my text." At all "closed" meetings I have confined my subjects to the Ritual, feeling that too much can not be said along that line. Following is a synopsis of some of the meetings where I have participated to the best of my ability:

December 22—Short talk on Degree work and then presented twenty-five year jewel to Brother Forbes, charter member of Golden-rod No. 59.

January 10—Participated in laying corner stone of Austin Park Lodge Temple.

February 24—Attended a meeting in Pullman Lodge, where the Initiatory Degree was exemplified by two Staffs, one Past Grands and the other Third Degree members. Deputy Grand Master W. H. Pease and Brother C. A. Young and myself acted as judges.

February 26—Gave address at the seventieth anniversary exercises in Union Lodge No. 9.

March 19—Attended meeting at John Corson Smith Lodge No. 990. On this occasion the Lodge presented Brother James Ewing Davis and myself each a very fine traveling bag.

March 20—In company with the Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master, I participated in the presentation of twenty-one veterans' jewels to as many Brothers in Batavia.

April 20—Attended a Union Encampment meeting in Cook County Temple, where I was taken sick and brought home by Brother Dr. Sven Windrow.

April 23—Anniversary at Elburn.

May 14—Presented fifty-year Honorable Veteran's jewel to Brother Jacob Schnable. The Grand Master also participated.

June 6—Chairman dedicatory exercises Austin Park Temple.

June 14—Memorial address, South Bend, Ind., in M. E. church.

July 13—Presented fifty-year Honorable Veteran's jewel to Brother Melville E. Eames, Past Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge. Deputy Grand Master W. H. Pease participated.

July 30—Presented five twenty-five year jewels to as many members of Brighton Park Lodge No. 639.

July 24 and 25—With the Grand Master and Deputy Grand Master I attended the Tri-State meeting at East Chicago.

August 1—Attended the new Bohemian Lodge (Bohemia No. 202) and addressed the new members of the Order who were present in a Lodge room for the first time.

September 7—Delivered address at the LaSalle county picnic, held at Ottawa.

September 13—Acted as master of ceremonies at the laying of the corner stone for the Odd Fellows' monument in Oak Ridge cemetery.

The foregoing are only some of the more important meetings I have attended, but do not take into account many visits to small Lodges, where help was needed, or where some of the members had got into more or less trouble, in which I found ways to settle same and promote peace and tranquillity again.

CORRESPONDENCE.

During the past year I have had a good deal of correspondence with individual members and Lodges. In this work I have had the services of Miss Jessie E. Pitkin, without which I could not have taken care of it. With Miss Pitkin's help I have managed to find the time each day to clear my desk, so as to start the next day without any dragover. The only delays have occurred when I have been out of town on the business of the Order.

REPORTS OF DIRECTORS.

I herewith give you extracts from reports as received from the Directors of Work. In July I sent out a circular letter asking for information from Directors of Work. Nearly all of them reported, and some of them reported a large amount of work done in their respective districts. The tone of these reports, however, would show that there was a financial depression throughout the State and that our Lodges, in common with other orders and business generally, were suffering to some extent, while here and there was found a Lodge doing a rushing business. From reading these reports I attributed the reason that some Lodges were busy was due to the fact that they had adopted methods which created enthusiasm, and where members are enthusiastic they are always able to overcome all ordinary obstacles. Final reports from Directors of Work have been received from only a few, and among them I would mention report of:

Lew E. Baldwin, Director of Work, District No. 24, in which he gives me a full detailed report of the work he has done, including visitations, instruction and general participation in the work of his district. In this district there are twenty-three Subordinate Lodges, and they have initiated, up to October 12, 118 candidates. He says there are still some Lodges in his district that have no regular Staffs and I believe with Brother Baldwin's assistance that the Lodges will be very few in his district who are in that position in the near future.

A. W. Burbank, Director of Work, District No. 40, reports that he has visited nearly all of the Lodges in his district, held Schools of Instruction and exemplified the Unwritten Work many times. Brother Burbank's report on the whole is optimistic.

F. W. Charles Eberhardt, Director of Work, District No. 43. This is a district composed entirely of German Lodges and working in the German language. He reports that the Lodges are all organized in good shape, have excellent Degree Staffs and generally good attendance at their meetings. He has held several Schools, and there seems to be peace and harmony all around, which bids fair for progressive work.

Dr. Sven Windrow, Director of Work, District No. 46, says he "has visited all of the Lodges in his district, not only once, but many times. He has instructed many in the Unwritten Work and exemplified it in the Lodges." Brother Windrow is on the job most of the time and his report is optimistic.

T. B. Blair Director of Work, District No. 45. Brother Blair is a hard worker in the Lodges and has devoted a great deal of time to the weak Lodges or Lodges without a Staff, and, as he is an expert in this line of work, he has accomplished a great deal in his district. He reports that there is a lot of work still to do, and Brother Blair will undoubtedly continue to labor along that line until he is satisfied that the Lodges in his district are able to do the work.

Dr. C. A. Robbins, Director of Work, District No. 2. Brother Robbins is well known for his activity in the Lodges in his district, spending lots of his time and money in an effort to promote the work. Distances and time have cut no figure with Brother Robbins. His district is in fair shape, but, like all other districts, requires constant pushing and encouragement.

If the reports from the other Directors of Work arrive in time I shall be glad to make an abstract of them and forward them to you at the earliest possible moment.

In conclusion, I am of the opinion that the work in this department is really only begun. For many years all effort along the line of instruction was confined to the Unwritten Work. In the last few years we have endeavored to place that responsibility upon the Lodge Deputies, Lodge Officers and Official Examiners and Instructors, leaving more time for the Chief Examiners and Instructors and the Grand Officers to devote to the Ritual itself. That this study of the Ritual is inexhaustible there can be no doubt, because no Staffs as yet have succeeded in exemplifying a Degree so well that it could not be improved, and until such time as there can be no further improvement there should be no let-up in the effort to progress. Because of our regular attendance in Lodges constantly changing, owing to the addition of new members and the retirement from active service of the older ones each year, it may be observed that in many Lodges those who are in charge of the work at this moment were not even members three or five years ago. It does not help a Lodge any because some member who does not attend, or who was once a member, was proficient in this work, but it is all-important that those who are actually doing the work understand the principles of Odd Fellowship, and that in the rendition of the charges they interpret these principles properly to the incoming members who are to take the place of those who are doing the work today. I hope this work will be continued, and I believe that the small expense incurred necessary to carry it on is well spent. The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, like all other organizations, needs constant field work in order to get the best out of it.

Now, Grand Master, I have tried to make this report as short as I could, and I trust that it will meet with your approval.

Again thanking you for the many personal kindnesses you have shown me, and trusting that the memories of our work will be as pleasant to you in the future as they will be to me, I am,

Fraternally yours,

H. M. BLOOD,
Chief of Examiners and Instructors.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 5, 1914.

Hon. Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master I. O. O. F., McLean, Ill.

Dear Sir and Brother—The by-laws of the Odd Fellows' League and Relief Board require us to make an annual report of the organization to the Grand Master.

I take pleasure in submitting for your approval the following report, from September 1, 1913, to August 31, 1914:

Receipts from Lodges, $1,761.87; expenses for the same period, $1,615.85, leaving a balance on hand of $146.02.

There have been 485 applications for employment, and about 40 per cent of these have been placed. Ninety-eight cases of sickness have been reported to the office and have been referred to the nearest Lodge for care, or sent to the hospitals at reduced rates. These cases represent nineteen Jurisdictions. Six members have been referred to the Legal Board. Seven nurses have been furnished to members at reduced rates. Financial assistance has been furnished to members in distress to the amount of $2,288.02. Less than 4 per cent of this is outstanding and 75 per cent of this will come in later.

The work of the office covers a great variety of cases and requires the careful attention of the General Secretary; in fact, is a trouble clearing house in this city, where so many people are arriving and departing daily, and many of them become stranded; then it is that they apply to this office for relief. This office being open during business hours, they get immediate results, otherwise they would be obliged to wait until some Lodge could taken action.

Thanking you in advance for any courtesy you may be able to extend, we are, Sincerely and fraternally yours,

S. A. CHAPIN,
 Recording Secretary.

The Grand Treasurer exhibited to us the following evidences of the cash held by him belonging to the Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. of Illinois, to-wit:

Certificate of Deposit, No. 39784, dated May 9, 1914, issued by the First National Bank of Nashville, Illinois, payable to Thomas B. Needles, Grand Treasurer, for.....$ 13,263.82

Draft No. 285717, dated May 7, 1914, drawn by the First National Bank of Nashville, Illinois, on the State National Bank of St. Louis, Missouri, payable to Thomas B. Needles, Grand Treasurer, for..... 25,000.00

(The above draft certified May 8, 1914, by State National Bank by H. L. Stadler, Cashier.)

Draft No. 292713, dated May 7, 1914, drawn by the First National Bank of Nashville, Illinois, on the Mechanics-American National Bank of St. Louis, Missouri, payable to Thomas B. Needles, Grand Treasurer, for..... $20,000.00

(The above draft certified May 8, 1914, by Mechanics-American National Bank by C. L. Allen, Assistant Cashier.)

The Grand Treasurer has included, in his receipts, General Fund $5,000—sent him by the Grand Secretary on May 6, 1914—being the donation by the Springfield Commercial Association towards the erection of the Secretary's office building. This amount is not included in Secretary's report.

Also the collections of interest on the Endowment Funds, as follows:

Old Folks' Home Endowment.....	$1,081.02
Orphans' Home Endowment.....	1,298.00

which have not yet been transferred to the Maintenance Funds of the Homes. This is usually done at the end of the year when interest collections are all in.

The Grand Treasurer made a transfer of $7,000 from General Fund to Old Folks' Home Building Fund. This should be only $5,000. Correction will be made.

During the past six months there have been paid off the following in

Old Folks' Home Endowment Fund—

James Raleigh, 4½% Mortgage.....	$3,500.00
O. O. Clay, 4½% Mortgage.....	500.00
Carthage, Ill., 5% Bonds.....	1,000.00	$5,000.00

The Finance Committee at this time arranged with the First National Bank of Nashville, Illinois, of which our deceased Grand Treasurer was president, and where our funds were deposited, to honor all drafts issued by our Grand Secretary, countersigned by the Grand Master, until such time as a new Grand Treasurer has been appointed.

The Finance Committee desires at this time to comment upon the exceedingly pleasant relations which have always existed between them and the deceased Grand Treasurer, and desire to express to Brother A. G. Hartnagel and Mr. Paul Krughoff (Brother T. B. Needles' son-in-law) both officers of the First National Bank of Nashville, Illinois, our appreciation of the consideration accorded your Committee upon their various visits to the bank where our auditing was done.

Respectfully submitted,

FOURTH REPORT BY BROTHER GEO. F. KOESTER, OF NO. 601.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows on the bond of Elon F. Verry, Grand Treasurer, which has been presented to this committee for approval:

We find the bond, dated July 18, 1914, to be in proper form in the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00). The bond is signed by Elon F. Verry as principal and Mary H. Burt, J. C. Britt, George S. Hunter, Clarence Darnall and George Verry as sureties. There is a certificate on the back of said bond signed by Charles H. Turner, cashier of the People's Bank of Atlanta, Illinois, setting the combined financial responsibility of principal and sureties in said bond at one million five hundred thousand dollars ($1,500,000.00).

Based on above certificate, we concur with the Grand Master in the approval of the bond.

Respectfully submitted,

G. F. KOESTER,
M. P. BERRY,
JAMES EWING DAVIS,
Committee.

CONCLUSION.

In closing, I desire to direct attention to the splendid work of Sister Grace A. Henry and her co-workers in the cause of Rebekah Odd Fellowship. They have been earnest and faithful, and we rejoice with them in their success.

I also want to voice once more my heartfelt thanks for the loyal support and co-operation of all the Brethren in our efforts to advance the principles of Odd Fellowship. By your expression of confidence you have laid upon me a debt of gratitude which a lifetime of service can scarcely repay.

While the work has been most strenuous and trying at times, I am comforted in the thought that it has not all been in vain, and in the coming years the seed that has been sown will bring forth an abundance of fruit to gladden and bless mankind.

I want to especially commend the services of my associate Grand Officers. They are a splendid bunch of men, clean, energetic and competent. In them your greatest confidence will not be betrayed. During our Schools of Instruction the assistance of Deputy Grand Master William H. Pease, Grand Warden John J. Crowder, Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, Grand Chaplain F. Lewis Starbuck and Chief of Examiners and Instructors H. M. Blood were invaluable. These men have earned your confidence and support by their self-denial and brilliant work for the Order.

Brother Elon F. Verry manifested the true fraternal relation when he undertook the responsible duties of Grand Treasurer, just to help out until you could have an opportunity to manifest your choice for that important office. Brother Verry is a prince among men, and I thank him sincerely for his assistance.

The co-operation and services of the following Brethren command special recognition:

P. G. M. Charles S. Harris, P. G. M. George F. Howard, P. G. M. E. R. Sayler, P. G. M. James Ewing Davis, P. G. M. Owen Scott, P. G. M. John J. Brown, P. G. M. Henry A. Stone, W. E. P. Anderson, G. J. Feldkamp, E. S. Stahl and every member of the Boards of both our Homes.

I lay down the gavel of authority and take my place in the ranks with Love in my heart for every one of you. You have nobly responded to every call I have made, and your organization today is strong and vigorous and capable for the great work which lies before you.

May the same loyalty, the same fellowship ever animate your hearts toward those whose lot it may be to direct your efforts, and may the guiding hand of our gracious Heavenly Father ever direct you in the paths of usefulness, that success, prosperity and happiness may be yours all the days of your lives, and finally lead you into the realms of eternal happiness.

Sincerely and fraternally,

Harren C. Darnall

Grand Master.

INTRODUCTION

To Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

It is with pleasure that we herewith submit to you, and through you to the Grand Lodge of Illinois, the twenty-second annual report of the Directors of the I. O. O. F. Orphans' Home, at Lincoln, Illinois.

Resident Members.

There are now in the Home 101 boys and 85 girls, of which 61 are whole orphans and 126 half orphans (those having a surviving parent). There are 23 applications on file, approved for admission to the Home, of which 4 are whole orphans and 19 half orphans.

Education of Our Orphans.

In addition to the common school education which the members of the Home are given, we are now endeavoring to devise and put into operation a plan which will also give them, to a certain extent, an industrial training. We believe that such a system, properly managed, will be of great benefit to them, not only while they are in the Home, but after they have gone from the Home.

While we now require all members of the Home who are old enough, and able to work, to assist in the labors necessary to maintain the Home, yet this is not sufficient, and many hours are spent in enforced idleness which should be devoted to useful and profitable employment. To meet this situation with some of the members, we contemplate utilizing a small portion of the farm for the raising of small fruit and vegetables, for which there is generally a good market. In addition to the revenue which these crops should bring to the Home, we believe it would have an educational and industrial value to those who participate in the work.

Learning how to prepare the ground, the planting and cultivating, gathering and preparing for market, we believe would be of use to them after they leave the Home. Following up this industrial idea, we hope to be able to have all the shoe repairing done by some of the boys, which would save for the Home from $15.00 to $25.00 per month, which this work now costs us. Also to have the barber work done by one of the boys, and save the Home the amounts we now pay out for hair cutting.

We will not permit this plan, if put into operation, to weaken the course of study of our school, thereby depriving any member of the Home of the opportunity of completing the course. Neither will we permit it to impose a hardship on any member of the Home. By this plan we hope to be able to teach our boys and girls to do work that is beneficial to them, as well as profitable to the Home, and to create among them an industrial spirit which will help to develop the individuality and personality of the members of the Home, which is so highly essential in an institution of this kind.

Some of the Needs of the Home.

The increase in membership of the Home necessitated an increase in our dairy herd, beyond the capacity of our dairy barn. An addition should be built to this barn to meet the requirements of the Home. This addition should be made of brick, to correspond with the barn. This equipment will cost about $2,500, and we ask that the Grand Lodge make this appropriation.

The following list of all the children in our Home Oct. 1, 1914, together with the age, date of admission, name and number of the Lodge certifying to them:

Number in Home Oct. 1, 1914.....	186
Number of boys in the Home.....	101
Number of girls in the Home.....	85
Average for year	184.5

How to Gain Admission.

Lodges or guardians, wishing to place in the Home children who are eligible to its benefits, should apply to the Superintendent, Dr. J. A. Lucas, Lincoln, Illinois, for a blank form of application. The blank application must be signed by the guardian, if the child is a full orphan. And every child, before admission, must have a guardian. If a half orphan, the living parent must sign the application. The Lodge, of which the father was a member, if dead, or is a member, if living, must also sign the application (under seal). The application should be returned to the Superintendent, who will present it to the Board of Directors for consideration at their first meeting thereafter.

Domestic Science Building.

The Rebekahs of Illinois have kept their building, known as the Domestic Science Building, in good condition throughout. A large number of improvements have been made by enlarging the dining room, carpeting same, placing in a new toilet and bath, also an additional bed room. This has greatly added to the convenience of this splendid building donated by the Rebekahs of Illinois.

This building received the warmest commendations from the visiting Odd Fellows and Rebekahs throughout the State of Illinois, as well as many who come from other jurisdictions. Members of other fraternities also commend the zeal and splendid work of the Rebekahs of this state.

The Assembly.

The visit of the Band to the Assembly is always greatly enjoyed. Last year they received a donation of $52.22, which was very much appreciated by the boys and girls.

The keep of the sewing woman in the Home and the giving of $100.00 for entertainment add very much to the convenience, comfort and entertainment of the children.

The past year has been a source of great pleasure to the children especially, on account of moving pictures, which they enjoy every week during the school year. We sincerely thank the Assembly for furnishing this pleasure as well as for the educational advantage that comes to the children of our Home.

Rooms Furnished.

Since our last report the following lodges have furnished rooms. In every single case the room has been furnished with not only beautiful furniture but with exceedingly good taste. To every one who has in any way contributed to the furnishing we sincerely tender our thanks:

Flora Rebekah Lodge, No. 152, Chicago, $250.00.

Lizzie L. Morrison Rebekah Lodge, No. 647, Chicago.

Denmark Rebekah Lodge, No. 627, and Denmark Subordinate Lodge, No. 908, Chicago.

Sophia Rebekah Lodge, No. 96, Chicago.

Caritas Rebekah Lodge, No. 625, Jacksonville.

Wide Awake Rebekah Lodge, No. 430; Galva Subordinate Lodge, No. 408; Galva Encampment, No. 174, Galva.

Christmas and Holidays.

The past year has been one of supreme delight on account of the large contributions made by different lodges and individuals. An itemized statement of amounts of money contributed by lodges or persons is given below, and the way in which it was spent. We will give as nearly as possible the list of articles which have been donated to the Home, under a separate heading.

School.

Our school, as usual, is in good condition. Special attention is given to Manual Training, Domestic Science and Practical House-keeping. The Manual Training boys do much of the repairing and carpenter work in our buildings. Indeed, there is about enough repair work required in the large number of buildings we have to keep one person busy most of the time.

Our School Building is not modern by any means, and the past year we have been obliged to make use of the basement, because of the crowded condition of rooms. The room in the basement is not a very inviting one for school purposes, as the light is poor, the room damp and difficult to heat. We do the best we possibly can under the circumstances. We hope this matter will be remedied soon.

The Primary room is overcrowded.

Grand Master W. C. Darnall delivered a masterful address to the graduates, composed of five girls and four boys, namely, Ruth McCorkle, Freda Roberts, June Snodgrass, Reta Radford, Edith Wold, Andrew Seletich, Edward Sheets, Glen Wellons and Claude Sitter.

Charles W. Keiser, President of the Board, presided. J. W. Birney, H. E. Makutchan, G. M. Carson and W. A. Hubbard were present and each spoke briefly. The Superintendent presented the diplomas.

The teachers for the school year of 1914-15 are:

Miss Flora Sheets (a former Home girl), principal and teacher of the seventh and eighth grades.

Miss Clara Wonderly, fifth and sixth grades.

Miss Nellie Lucas, third grade.

Miss Blanche Baldwin, primary, first and second grades.

Miss Huldah Peters, vocal and instrumental music.

Miss Louise Wetzel, domestic science.

Mr. C. L. Michaelson, manual training.

Prof. H. O. Merry, band.

The Band.

Quite a change has been made in the Band on account of the going out of the older members.

Prof. H. O. Merry still has charge and is doing a splendid work, as he has always done. Norman Radford succeeded Segurd Carlstrom as leader and we believe he is one of the best the Band has yet had.

Improvements Made During Past Year.

During the year, we have built an ice house ample for needs of the Home, at the cost of $645; purchased fire hose and cart for $300.00; built a hose house for $25.00; put in wiring for electric lights in the East and West Cottages at a cost of $211.00; changed the toilet and bath for teachers' room in Main Building, and installed toilet and bath for the Superintendent and Matron's rooms, at a cost of $282.00; had the West Cottage repaired and completely renovated at a cost of $169.00; equipped a school room off one end of the Gymnasium at a cost of $98.00; purchased fire extinguishers for $18.00, paid for placing scales $70.00, and for installing electric light fixtures in the new building $42.00.

George Charles Lewis.

George Charles Lewis, one of our boys, was taken suddenly ill on December 12th, 1913, with meningitis and on the 14th, by direction of our Home physician, was taken to the Deaconess Hospital. Consultation was held with Dr. H. B. Brown who agreed perfectly with Dr. Hagans as to the disease. The very best of care was given him by the nurses in the hospital. All the skill that could be summoned by Drs. Hagans and Brown availed not and he quietly passed away at 7:15, December 18th.

George came to the Home on October 14, 1908, from Celestial Lodge No. 186. He was quite a genius in many ways and would have made his way in the world as a mechanic, as his talent seemed to run in that direction.

The sickness was so short that we could scarcely realize that George had sickened and passed away. His uncle and guardian, George Lewis, took him to Decatur, where the funeral service was held at the home, and George was buried in Decatur Cemetery.

Dr. Lucas, Superintendent of the Home, was not able to attend the funeral on account of illness. Miss Barr, his Governess, represented the Home and Owen Scott, P. G. M., represented the Board of Directors.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

Cash Donations, Etc.

The following, given in detail, are the cash receipts by donations and otherwise during the year. Useful and valuable articles have been given, as in former years, for which we are very thankful, but, as they have been duly acknowledged by letter and in The Odd Fellows' Herald, from time to time, it seems unnecessary to again enumerate them, as they would require much space and expense.

Conclusion.

The liberal appropriations of the Grand Lodge and the donations of the Subordinate Lodges, Encampments, Rebekah Lodges and individual members of the Order, and the moral support given to the Home by the membership generally, show that the care, protection and education of our orphans are the cardinal principles of our great fraternity, in the practical application of which the Grand Jurisdiction of Illinois will always be found in the front ranks. Such support stimulates every one directly connected in conducting the affairs of the Home to put forth every effort to make this Home as ideal as the law of human love, which built it, and which so generously sustains it.

We have had two very pleasant and harmonious meetings with the Advisory Board, and were glad to receive the suggestions which they offered. We also had the pleasure of holding a joint meeting of the Directors of both Homes, in June and October, the first meeting being held at the Home in Lincoln and the last at the Home in Mattoon. We feel that the exchange of ideas and the inspection of the two Homes and their management by the Boards will prove beneficial to both Homes.

We take pleasure in commending to the Order the splendid work of our Superintendent and Matron, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Lucas. They have given to this work their best thoughts and untiring efforts. This, combined with their ability, energy, perseverance and love for the work, has given our Home the high standing we believe it maintains among such institutions. The atmosphere of happiness and contentment which surrounds our Home at all times is due largely to the manner in which they hold the confidence, the love and the esteem of the members of the Home.

The work for the year of the teachers and governesses has been performed with an efficiency deserving special mention. They have done their part faithfully and well.

All the help at the Home, including the farmer and his assistants, have added their share to making the Home a happy one for our dear children.

We thank you, Grand Master, for meeting with us so often and for the interest you have manifested in the Home and for the valuable suggestions we received from you. We feel grateful to every one who assisted in this labor of love and to the fraternal press for the publicity it gave to the work of the Home. May the blessings of Heaven rest upon the entire membership of our great Order is our heartfelt wish.

Fraternally yours,

CHARLES W. KEISER,
J. W. BIRNEY,

INTRODUCTORY

To the Grand Master and Members of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Illinois:

We deem it a pleasant privilege, under the rule of the Grand Lodge, to submit the seventeenth annual report of the Old Folks' Home at Mattoon for the year ending on September 30, 1914.

We take especial pride in presenting this report, for we believe that the inspections and investigations made show the Home to be in such splendid condition that it will receive the commendation of the entire Order.

Under the management of Brother J. T. North, the farm has been placed in a high state of cultivation, the fencing rebuilt in the most permanent way, buildings repaired and repainted, and the grounds beautified. Under the supervision of the Superintendent and the Matron, Sister Dora L. North, the interior of the Home has been kept thoroughly renovated and brought to a high sanitary condition. Economy has been practiced in all departments, consistent with proper care and good and wholesome food. The employees have been uniformly kind to the members of the Home and have yielded a willing performance to the labors assigned to them.

Brother and Sister North resigned their positions as Superintendent and Matron, to take effect September 1, 1914, carrying with them the esteem and best wishes of the Board of Trustees and the assurance that their earnest labors for the good of the Home will long be remembered.

To fill the vacancy caused by the resignations of Brother and Sister North, your trustees selected Brother E. R. Saylor and his wife, Rhoda Saylor. They assumed their duties on September 1st, and the trustees feel that Brother and Sister Saylor are able and willing to give such conscientious labor as will continue the Home in its present splendid condition and meet the growing requirements of this grand temple of our Order.

The present membership is 140; 37 Sisters and 103 Brothers.

The members of the Home, generally, are appreciative of what the Order is doing for them, and take pride in showing and speaking of the beauties of the Home to the many visitors that annually pay a visit to the buildings and grounds. Of course, there must always be exceptions to prove the rule, but when the great number of old people are considered, with their human aches and pains and grouches, the wonder is that the percentage of contentment is so large, and we believe that it is largely due to the beautiful teachings in the Odd Fellow and Rebekah rituals.

The Grand Master requested that the trustees of the two Homes should meet at each Home once during the year, and, in compliance with this request, the dates were fixed at a time when the Advisory Boards would also be present. At the regular April meeting this joint meeting was held at the Orphans' Home in Lincoln, and in October the joint meeting was held at the Old Folks' Home in Mattoon. These meetings were well attended, and we believe were of much benefit to both the children and the old folks, as well as a pleasure and benefit to the different boards.

THE NEW BUILDING.

The new building is well under way and will be under roof before the Grand Lodge meets.

The contract for the building was let to Ed F. Lampitt of Pekin, Illinois, and the plumbing and heating was let to White & Hansen of Mattoon, Illinois; each being the lowest bidder for their respective contracts. The firm of Deal & Ginzel of Lincoln, Illinois, are the architects whose plans were accepted. The size of the building is about 50 by 95 feet, two stories, and the construction is fireproof. There will be, when completed, twenty-two rooms besides the sun parlor, operating room, nurses' room, dining room and kitchen. Under the contract the second story is left unfinished, as we found it impossible to have fireproof construction for the $15,000 appropriation. The bids, however, included the completion of the entire building, if the Grand Lodge shall elect to make the necessary further appropriation of $3,500. We recommend that this be done, as it will be much cheaper to have it done now than later, and the room is badly needed. We feel confident that the Grand Lodge will approve of our action in making this building fireproof at the small additional cost.

FARM, GARDEN AND DAIRY.

The drought affected our farm and garden, as it did many others throughout the State. However, we have our silo filled and will have about 800 bushels of corn in the crib. We have about 15 tons of hay and our oats yielded 40 bushels per acre.

The garden has yielded well toward the supply of the table, and with our large membership in the Home to feed we have had but a small amount to sell. The sales from the farm are therefore lighter than usual.

The dairy herd has been brought to the highest standard that it has ever been, and has received much favorable comment from the visitors. We are able to give to the members of the Home a bountiful supply of milk and cream.

LIGHTING PLANT.

The bills for electric lighting had become so large that the Trustees thought best to investigate the advisability of securing a plant of our own, and ascertained that the Odd Fellows' Building Company of Springfield desired to exchange their plant for a larger one, and offered their plant at a greatly reduced price to the Home. The Trustees purchased the plant and had it completely overhauled by the Ide Engine Works of Springfield and installed in our engine room at the Home at an expense of a little less than one thousand dollars. We think that this will prove a good investment.

CONCLUSION.

We desire to thank all who have contributed toward making the members of the Home happy and have aided the Trustees and management in the performance of their duties.

There have been many visitations the past year, and those who came to view the Home and Farm have expressed themselves as more than repaid for their time and expense. We wish that many more could come with a desire to really learn of the good the Order is doing through the instrumentality of this Home.

The Advisory Board has been of much assistance. At each of their meetings they have assigned their visitation work and every room and member was visited by one of the Advisory Board, and they report cleanliness, plenty of bedding, good and well prepared food and happy members.

We desire to especially thank Grand Secretary Sikes and the Odd Fellows Herald for courtesies extended.

REPORT OF THE GRAND SECRETARY.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

I herewith submit my report as your Secretary for the year ending November 1, 1914.

While Odd Fellowship has been progressive in this jurisdiction during the past year, our net gain in membership has not been as large as in some previous years.

Business conditions enter very largely into the growth and activity of the Order, and they have not been entirely satisfactory.

Very few Subordinate Lodges, however, are either delinquent or dormant and there are many evidences that the winter season will bring activity in Odd Fellowship.

I am persuaded that our Brothers are honestly and faithfully endeavoring to obey the command of our Order, viz.: "To visit the sick, relieve the distressed, to bury the dead and educate the orphan." The Order is taking a higher place in the estimation of the world as its work and worth to humanity are known. The value of Odd Fellowship is measured by the good that we are able to do, and the future of Odd Fellowship depends upon the fidelity with which each member plays his part in the great drama of life.

GRAND LODGE JOURNAL OF 1913.

The Grand Lodge Journal for the session of 1913 consisted of 601 pages.

To arrange copy, read proof, and index the Grand Lodge Journal, requires the entire time of a thoroughly competent person, whom we secured in the person of Bro. Past Grand Master Owen Scott.

TRUSTEES OF THE ORPHANS' AND OLD FOLKS' HOMES.

All bills allowed by the two Boards of Trustees are forwarded to me with an attached certificate signed by the President and Secretary of the Board and countersigned by the Grand Master. These bills and vouchers are kept on file in my office for future reference, and orders on the Grand Treasurer are drawn for the several amounts. Upon these vouchers the Grand Master and myself have drawn orders on the Grand Treasurer for the sum of $41,667.50, to pay bills contracted by the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home, and the sum of $43,806.78, to pay bills contracted by the Directors of the Orphans' Home, making a total disbursement for these two charities of the sum of $85,474.28.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE.

As Secretary of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, I report that four sessions of this committee were held, as provided by law, on the third Tuesdays of November, 1913, February, May and August, of the present year. At the November session one opinion was rendered and the By-Laws from 49 Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the February session two opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from 55 Subordinate and 13 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the May session two opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from 58 Subordinate and 15 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon. At the August session three opinions were rendered and the By-Laws from 26 Subordinate and 24 Rebekah Lodges were acted upon.

JOHN COLLMAN.

Under instructions from the Grand Lodge found on page 64, Journal 1913, I addressed a communication to Bro. John Collman, of Walhalla Lodge No. 574, I. O. O. F., located at Blue Island, extending to him the sincere appreciation of the Order on account of the will which he has executed in favor of the Endowment Funds of the Orphans' and Old Folks' Homes. Brother Collman is now 73 years of age, and has been an earnest and enthusiastic Odd Fellow for many years.

THE HAGUE PEACE MONUMENT FUND.

Responding to a call for contributions to the Hague Peace Monument Fund, authorized by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, contributions from Lodges and individuals were received by the Grand Secretary, amounting to $300.50, which amount was remitted to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, as shown by the following receipt:

GRAND SECRETARY'S OFFICE BUILDING.

Pursuant to action had by the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Illinois, at its November session, 1913, (See Grand Lodge Journal, 1913, page 409) at which time it was decided to erect a fire-proof building in Springfield to be used as the Grand Secretary's office, at a cost not to exceed $20,000.00 and conditioned upon the payment of a bonus of $5,000.00 by the citizens of Springfield, Grand Master Warren C. Darnall called a meeting of the Building Committee to meet in Springfield, Saturday, April 18, 1914.

The following members of the committee were present, viz.: Grand Master Warren C. Darnall; Grand Secretary Jno. H. Sikes; Grand Treasurer T. B. Needles; members of the Finance Committee, Geo. F. Koester, James Ewing Davis, P.G.M., and M. P. Berry, P.G.M.

In addition to the foregoing members of the Building Committee, the following Brothers attended this meeting, viz.: Deputy Grand Master W. H. Pease, Grand Warden Jno. J. Crowder.

Nine sites were submitted and viewed by the above members of the Grand Lodge. After careful deliberation a location was selected at the northwest corner of the State House grounds, immediately across from and facing the State House. The location is very desirable, being a corner lot with ample street car service and within easy walking distance from the business section of the city.

An abstract of title was furnished and examined by Mr. B. L. Catron, an attorney of Springfield, who gave a legal opinion that the grantors held a good and sufficient title.

BONUS OF $5,000.00.

The bonus of $5,000.00 to be raised by the citizens of Springfield was paid to the Grand Secretary on the first day of May, 1914, and the same was remitted to Grand Treasurer T. B. Needles, as will be shown by his detailed financial statement.

It is due to the I. O. O. F. organizations of Springfield to say that $1,000.00 of the bonus money was contributed by the Odd Fellow organizations of this city, viz.: Sangamon Lodge No. 6, Teutonia Lodge No. 166, Springfield Lodge No. 465 and Prairie State Encampment No. 16.

WARRANTY DEED.

Following the decision made by the Building Committee the following deed was executed and witnessed by John S. Schnepf, notary public:

"THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH, That the grantors, Frank R. Miller and Mary Miller, husband and wife, of the City of Springfield, in the County of Sangamon and State of Illinois, for and in consideration of the sum of Six Thousand ($6,000.00) Dollars in hand paid, CONVEY and WARRANT to Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, the following described real estate, to-wit: The Southwest Part of Lot Six (6) in E. Iles' Addition of Out Lots to the City of Springfield, bounded as follows: Beginning at the Southwest corner of said Lot six (6) and running thence North on the East line of Spring street One Hundred and Ten (110) feet; thence East, parallel with the North line of Monroe street, fifty (50) feet; thence South, parallel with the East line of Spring street, One Hundred and Ten (110) feet to the North line of Monroe street, and thence West on the North line of Monroe street fifty (50) feet to the place of beginning; reserving the East Two (2) feet of the above described premises for driveway purposes to be used jointly by the grantors and grantee, their heirs and assigns, for a period of Twenty years. An easement for said period of Twenty (20) years is also hereby granted over a strip of ground Six (6) feet in width adjoining said above described tract on the East side thereof, to be used jointly for driveway purposes by the grantors and grantee, their heirs and assigns. This deed is made subject to all taxes and assessments on said tract above described for the year 1914 and subsequent years. As a covenant running with the land and as a condition on which this deed is made, the grantee agrees that no building of any kind will be erected on the South Twenty (20) feet of the above described premises within Twenty years from this date; situated in the City of Springfield, in the County of Sangamon, in the State of Illinois, hereby releasing and waiving all rights under and by virtue of the Homestead Exemption Laws of this State.

Dated this 30th day of April, A. D. 1914.

FRANK R. MILLER, (Seal.)

MARY MILLER. (Seal.)

ARCHITECT.

Mr. Edward Furrow, architect, located at 429-430 Odd Fellows' Building, Springfield, Illinois, was selected by the committee as architect to prepare plans and specifications, and the following contract was entered into in the matter of preparing plans and superintending the construction of the building:

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT WITH THE ARCHITECT.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

For a compensation of two and one-half per cent (2½%) I agree to furnish preliminary sketches, complete working drawings and specifications and general superintendence of building operations for an office building to be located on the lot of the owner, northeast corner of Monroe and Spring streets, in Springfield, Illinois, to be erected for the GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS OF THE INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS—a corporation—on terms of payment as follows: One and one-half per cent of lowest bids for plans and specifications and one per cent for superintendence of construction.

Tuesday,
Nov. 17, 1914. }

In all transactions between yourselves and contractors, where acting as your agent, my duties and liabilities are to be those of an agent only. My pecuniary liability in connection with this building is not to exceed, in its total, the gross amount of my compensation. The amount of my compensation shall be reckoned on the total cost of the building, which cost shall not exceed $14,000.00.

PLANS AND SPECIFICATIONS.

Mr. Edw. Furrow, architect, proceeded to execute plans and specifications for a fire-proof building, making the building as large and commodious as the appropriation would permit.

These plans, having been approved by the Building Committee, were submitted to contractors for bids. An attempt was made to secure bids from contractors in Chicago, Peoria and Danville, without success.

Grand Master Warren C. Darnall called a meeting of the Building Committee to be held in the Grand Secretary's office on July 18, 1914, at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of opening bids on the plans and specifications which had previously been submitted.

The following members of the Building Committee were present, viz.: Grand Master Warren C. Darnall, Grand Secretary Jno. H. Sikes and members of the Grand Lodge Finance Committee, James Ewing Davis, P.G.M., and M. P. Berry, P.G.M. Three bids were received from the following contractors, viz.: H. A. Raney, H. B. Carley and Herman Hysler; the bids submitted being in the following language:

H. A. Raney, contractor, of Springfield, submitted the following:

"I have given the plans and specifications of the I. O. O. F. office building due consideration and propose to furnish material and labor as per plans and specifications and complete same for the sum of fifteen thousand, three hundred and thirty-nine dollars ($15,339.00), using wood for front entrance door and frame in place of iron, deduct $390.00. Should the committee desire to reserve the plumbing, heating and vacuum cleaner, deduct for plumbing $522.00; heating, $790.00; vacuum cleaner, $355.00. Respectfully submitted, H. A. Raney."

Mr. H. B. Carley, contractor, of Springfield, submitted the following, viz.:

"I propose to build the Grand Secretary's building for the I. O. O. F. according to plans and specifications prepared by you, everything included for the sum of seventeen thousand, two hundred and twenty dollars ($17,220.00). Respectfully submitted, H. B. Carley."

Mr. Herman Heysler, contractor, of Springfield, submitted the following:

"I respectfully submit estimate on your proposed office building for the Grand Secy. I. O. O. F., according to plans and specifications, with the following exceptions, plumbing, heating, wiring, and elevator, for the sum of fifteen thousand, three hundred and twenty-two dollars, ($15,322.00). Very respectfully submitted, Herman Hysler."

After considering the bids the following motion was made by Brother Davis and unanimously adopted by the committee:

"I move the bid of Mr. Raney be accepted and the contract awarded to him, deducting from his figures the sum of $355.00 for the vacuum cleaner which we desire to leave out, and subject to any further changes we may desire to make as provided for in the plans and specifications."

BOND.

A satisfactory bond in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00) having been executed by the contractor and approved by Grand Master Warren C. Darnall, the following contract was signed:

CONTRACT FOR BUILDING.

This contract and agreement made and entered into this 18th day of July, 1914, by and between Henry A. Raney, hereinafter called the Contractor, and the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, a corporation, hereinafter called the Owner,

WITNESSETH: That the contractor and the owner for the consideration hereinafter named agree as follows:

(1) That the contractor will provide all the materials and perform all of the work for the construction and completion of the building known as the office building of the Grand Secretary of said Grand Lodge, the same being located on Lot 6, in E. Iles' addition of out-lots to the City of Springfield, and being one hundred and ten (110) feet on Spring street and fifty (50) feet on Monroe street, on the northeast corner of Monroe and Spring streets, for the sum of fifteen thousand three hundred and thirty-nine dollars ($15,339.00), excepting therefrom the sum of three hundred and fifty-five dollars ($355.00) for a vacuum cleaner which has been excluded from said specifications, and it is further agreed that any further changes in said plans and specifications that the owners may desire to make shall be agreed upon by the said contractors and Edward Furrow, the architect of said building; said building to be completed as provided for my the plans and specifications made by Edward Furrow, the artichect, which plans and specifications are hereby made a part of this contract and the contractor aforesaid agrees to do said work to the satisfaction of the architect and according to the general conditions, specifications and drawings therefor.

The contractor agrees to complete the said work on or before the first day of January, 1915, and to pay or allow the owners as liquidated damages the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) per day after January 1, 1915, (Sundays and legal holidays not included) that the work remains uncompleted.

The owner hereby agrees to pay for said building as follows: Every two weeks after the work begins the architect shall make an estimate of the amount of material used and work performed and file the same with the Grand Secretary of said Order and eighty-five per cent (85%) of that amount shall be paid to the contractor upon the filing of said certificate and fifteen per cent (15%) of the amount of each estimate shall be retained and paid to the contractor upon the completion and acceptance of said building by the architect.

The contractor hereby agrees to give to the owner a good and sufficient bond in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500.00) which bond shall be approved by Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master of said owner. Said bond to be conditioned for the faithful performance of all the obligations of said contractor and for the payment in full by him for all material and labor that enters into the construction of said building, and keep safe and harmless the said owner from all mechanics' and material-men's lien for material or labor furnished.

LAYING OF CORNER STONE.

The corner stone of the new office building to be used by the Grand Secretary was laid on September 18th, but no formal service was held at that time for the reason it did not seem to be convenient for the Grand Master and other Grand Officers to be present at the exact time when it was necessary to lay the stone. However, a copper box was placed in the corner stone containing the following list of articles, viz.: One Merrill's Code, one Grand Lodge Journal of 1913, one Chicago Odd Fellow, one Odd Fellows' Herald, one each of the Springfield daily papers, one Rebekah Journal, one Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal, one Book of Constitutions.

PROGRESS IN CONSTRUCTION.

The building is being constructed of stone, brick, tile, concrete and iron. Outside of the window frames and doors, there is practically no wood in the construction. Many delays have occurred as it seemed impossible to procure material at the proper time. The building, however, is progressing, as will be noted by those in attendance at this session of the Grand Lodge, and it is hoped that it will be ready for occupancy about the first of the year 1915.

The building has been pronounced by experts to be the best constructed of any building in Springfield, from the standpoint of a fire risk. Judged by the accumulation of records since the organization of the Order in Illinois, it is safe to predict that this building will answer the purpose of the Grand Lodge for at least a century.

JUDICIARY AND APPEALS COMMITTEE

I. O. O. F.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FIRST SESSION—FEB. 17, 1914.

CASE NO. 447.

Freeport Lodge No. 239, I. O. O. F. } Before Committee on Judiciary vs. } and Appeals, February Session,
August Shelp. } 1914.

Opinion by Bro. Owen Scott, of No. 186.

Serious charges were preferred against August Shelp by Freeport Lodge No. 239. The offense consisted in applying extremely abusive, profane and indecent language to various members of the Lodge. This grew out of action taken by the Board of Directors of the Odd Fellows' temple at Freeport. Bro. Shelp pleaded not guilty. The regular steps were then taken leading up to a trial upon the charges.

During this time Bro. Shelp began suits for slander in the civil courts against two members of the Lodge. Full statement of these suits at law was published in a Freeport daily newspaper. It is alleged that this was authorized by Bro. Shelp and his attorney. The record shows that at the Lodge meeting held October 6, 1913, "Bro. Shelp being in attendance was asked if the suits instituted by him against Bros. P. O. Martinson and Roy Spitler were the outcome of their testimony in the charges preferred against him on September 8, 1913. He answered in the negative, but when asked to place his signature to a statement to that effect he refused." Immediately following, new charges were preferred alleging violation of the law and his obligation by going into the civil courts for redress of grievances.

The charge is as follows: "The laws of the Order and his own solemn vows are in contempt, the censure of the public press a menace calculated to intimidate witnesses, his action, following directly after the copy of charges and specifications were made known to him, a violation of most sacred laws. We recommend that he be expelled from the Order for contempt."

This was signed by the trial committee. Bro. Shelp was asked to and did retire and the vote was taken. The result was 39 guilty and 9 not guilty. Following this the vote for expulsion was the same. August Shelp was therefore declared expelled.

The merits of the case on the original charges can not be ascertained, as no evidence is presented in the record. The Lodge abandoned this and expelled the accused because he brought suit in the civil court. No evidence appears. Bro. Shelp denied that he began the suits because of the evidence given in his trial. He declined to sign a paper conforming to his oral statement.

The ground of expulsion is given as contempt. Under the definition of contempt as given by the law, Sec. 13, Art. VII, No. 1738, and the S. G. L. No. 1474 of the Code of 1906, this case can scarcely be brought. Contempt is a summary proceeding when a brother neglects to "appear and answer charges preferred against him or the absents himself with the evident purpose of avoiding the service of notice or any regular summons from the Lodge." In this case the accused was present and, so far as the record goes, did not evade service or refuse to attend when required by the Lodge.

The bringing of a suit in the civil courts may be such a violation of the laws of the Order as to subject a brother to discipline. It does not in any sense constitute the offense of contempt with the drastic penalty of expulsion. The brother has a right to a trial on this the same as on any other violation of the law.

It appears, therefore, that expulsion, the most severe penalty that can be inflicted, was not justified by the charge made. He should have been put upon trial in the regular way.

Your committee, therefore, holds that for irregularity of procedure and entire want of evidence the action of the Lodge be set aside; Brother Shelp restored to good standing, and that the case be remanded for trial by the Lodge under the laws of the Order.

Wheeler Lodge No. 130, I. O. O. F..	} Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, August Session, 1914.
Charles M. Sowers.

CASE NO. 446.

Opinion by Bro. W. E. P. Anderson, of No. 107.

On October 11, 1913, complaint was made by a member of Wheeler Lodge against the defendant for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, namely, that he "was seen at a late hour enter a widow's house at different times, there being no lights in said house."

On October 18th the committee who were appointed by the Noble Grand to investigate the charge reported "Finding that Bro. C. M. Sowers may be, and probably is, guilty of conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, and prefer the following charges, viz.:

"That he was seen during the dark hours of the night going to a widow's house, where there were no lights at the time of such travel. This has been seen at different times."

At a meeting of the Lodge on November 1, 1913. Bro. Sowers pleaded not guilty; a Commissioner was appointed by the Noble Grand to take and report the evidence in the case.

On November 25th the testimony of the witnesses on each side was taken, reported and read to the Lodge on November 29th, whereupon the case was then argued before the Lodge by counsel on the part of the prosecution and defense, who were lawyers of well recognized ability in that section of the State (Judge Kasserman, attorney for the Lodge, having since died).

Upon a ballot being taken, there were sixteen votes for sustaining the charge and twenty-two for acquittal. The Noble Grand declared the charges not sustained; an appeal was prayed and perfected by the committee, the record and transcript comes before us in unusually good shape. Eleven witnesses testified in chief on the part of the prosecution, seventeen in chief on the part of the defense, and ten on the part of the prosecution in rebuttal. Much of the testimony, however, is incompetent, irrelevant and not material to the issue, which is, was or was not the defendant seen during the dark hours of the night at different times going to a widow's house when there were no lights at the time of such travel.

Twelve reasons were assigned in support of the appeal, among them that the decision is clearly against the weight of the evidence, against the law, and that the evidence in the case warrants a conviction, which practically embody all of the material elements involved in the consideration of the case.

In all controversies of this character the prosecution must stand or fall on the evidence presented, in order to secure a conviction, the burden being upon the prosecution. The charge upon which the defendant was tried must be proven by a preponderance of the testimony and the weight of the evidence.

It should be borne in mind at the outset that defendant was tried upon a charge stated in general terms, without any specification, giving the details showing when, where and in what manner the offense was committed. However, the defendant, by his personal appearance and that of his lawyer at the taking of the testimony and the trial of the case before the Lodge, was in effect a waiver of the informality; but while that is the case the prosecution is not relieved of the burden of showing by a preponderance of the evidence that the offense charged was committed at some certain place and at a time certain.

This committee has gone over the facts and testimony of the case with considerable attention and care, and in our consideration of same we do not overlook the fact that the conduct of the members of our Order should be circumspect and above suspicion as to morals, yet upon a charge of this serious a character the proof ought to be clear and explicit. While there is much conflict in the testimony we cannot reconcile our minds to the conclusion that the preponderance of the testimony in the case proves that the defendant, C. M. Sowers, was seen going to this woman's house during the dark hour of the night of June 23, 1913, or at the dark hour of any other night.

He was tried by the members of his own Lodge who are familiar with all of the circumstances and environments surrounding the case, and who are personally acquainted with the witnesses, and who could judge of the laudable purpose or bias actuating the testimony of each, and he was acquitted by a majority vote when it required a two-thirds of the members voting to sustain the charge.

Even granting that the evidence is conflicting on the vital point at issue, there being no preponderance of evidence in favor of the charges, a judgment of acquittal by a Trial Lodge will not be disturbed on appeal.

In cases of doubt, where the evidence is conflicting, much weight should be given to the findings of a Subordinate Lodge which is familiar with the witnesses.

In support of the last two paragraphs, see Merrill's Code, 1906, Secs. 439 and 440.

It is therefore ordered that the decision of Wheeler Lodge, acquitting the defendant, Charles M. Sowers, be affirmed, and that the appeal be and is hereby dismissed.

CASE NO. 449.

Beaucoup Lodge No. 159, I. O. O. F., { Before Committee on Judiciary vs. { and Appeals, August Session,
T. L. Wallace. { 1914.

Opinion by Bro. Henry A. Stone, of No. 122.

This is an appeal made by J. O. Charlton, Fred Starkweather and John Huggins, members of Beaucoup Lodge No. 159, I. O. O. F., of Pinckneyville, Illinois, from the action of said Lodge, on May 13, 1914, on the expulsion of Bro. T. L. Wallace, by reconsidering the first ballot and taking the second ballot, by which the Noble Grand declared Bro. Wallace expelled. Appeal on the ground of putting Bro. Wallace's membership in jeopardy the second time.

The Lodge records filed in this case show that charges were regularly preferred against Bro. T. L. Wallace, number of said Lodge, for conduct unbecoming an Odd Fellow, and that he should be cited to appear before the Lodge and plead on the charges on the 13th day of May, 1914.

That on the 30th day of April, 1914, by order of the Lodge, the Warden of said Lodge served citation, together with certified copy of charges, on Bro. T. L. Wallace, with notice to appear before the Lodge and plead on the 13th day of May, 1914.

That on the regular meeting of the Lodge, on May 13, 1914. Bro. T. L. Wallace failing to appear and plead, either in person or by counsel, a motion prevailed that Bro. T. L. Wallace be expelled for contempt, by ballot.

The ballot was ordered taken by the Noble Grand. There were twenty-two voting members present. The Noble Grand announced that the ballot showed twenty-two ballots cast—sixteen white balls and six black balls—and declared Bro. Wallace not expelled.

A question was immediately raised by several of the members that there was a misunderstanding whether it was the white ball or the black ball for expulsion, but it was finally decided that the black ball was for expulsion. Therefore, every member being present who voted on the first ballot, the Noble Grand ordered a second ballot. On this ballot twenty votes were cast (two members present not voting), nineteen of which were black balls and one a white ball, and the Noble Grand declared Bro. T. L. Wallace expelled.

There is no question raised in this appeal that Bro. Wallace was not clearly guilty of contempt, while the Lodge records and papers filed in the case show that he was in contempt.

The law and instructions on balloting on charges or contempt cases are so clearly set forth in Section 1688 of the Code that there can be no reasonable excuse for misunderstanding, but it seems in this instance there was a misunderstanding, and the members wanted to be right.

It is very clear to this committee that the decided sentiment of the Lodge was for expulsion for contempt, and, while there was a difference of opinion in regard to the method, both ballots showed that it should be expulsion. The first one being sixteen white and six black should have been decided as expulsion; and the second ballot, after an erroneous understanding that black balls were for expulsion, nineteen were black and one white, showing conclusively the Lodge were for expulsion.

Opinion: It is therefore ordered that the appeal be dismissed and that the action of the Lodge in expelling Bro. T. L. Wallace be sustained.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS IN THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE, I. O. O. F.

Grand Lodge Constitution.

The following amendment to Art. 4, Sec. 20 of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows was regularly adopted, approved by Grand Sire C. A. Keller on Oct. 25, 1913, and his action was ratified by the Ninetieth Annual Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge held at Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 21-26, 1914.

Original Section.

ELECTION.—Sec. 20. All elective Grand Officers shall be chosen separately by a majority of the valid votes cast. When there are but two candidates for the same office, in the event of a tie for two successive ballottings, the election shall be decided by lot. When there are more than two candidates in nomination, and neither receives a majority of votes at a balloting, the one receiving the fewest number of votes shall , after the result of the ballot has been announced, be, by the Chair, declared dropped from the nomination and the balloting shall proceed.

Amended Section.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT.

Article IV, Sec. 20. All elective Grand Officers shall be chosen separately by a majority of the valid votes cast by the duly accredited Representatives of this Grand Lodge. When there are but two candidates for the same office, in the event of a tie for two successive ballots, the election shall be decided by lot. When there are more than two candidates in nomination, and neither received a majority of votes at a balloting, the one receiving the fewest number of votes shall, after the result of the ballot has been announced, be, by the Chair, declared dropped from the nomination, and the balloting shall proceed.

Not adopted. Action of S. G. L. made it unnecessary.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS IN THE GRAND LODGE, I. O. O. F. OF ILLINOIS.

Grand Lodge Constitution.

The following proposed amendements to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, were presented at the Session of 1913, to be entered on the Journal for consideration at the 1914 Session:

Original Section.

THE COMMITTEE ON MILEAGE AND PER DIEM.

Art. VI. Sec. 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge Committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The Committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way, and two dollars per diem.

Proposed Amendment.

Journal 1913, Doc. No. 17.

Art. VI, Sec. 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way and three dollars per diem.

Amendment adopted.

Proposed Amendment.

Journal, 1913, Doc. No. 45.

Art. IV, Sec. 20.—Election. All elective Grand Officers shall be chosen separately by a majority of the valid votes cast by the Past Grands who are the duly accredited representatives of this Grand Lodge, each Lodge being entitled to one vote on each ballot cast. When there are two candidates for the same office, in the event of a tie for two successive balloting, the election shall be decided by lot. When there are more than two candidates in nomination, and neither received a majority of votes at a balloting, the one receiving the fewest number of votes shall, after the result of the ballot has been announced, be, by the Chair, declared dropped from the nomination, and the balloting shall proceed.

Original Section.

SESSIONS.

Art. VII Section 1. The Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the third Tuesday in November. This meeting shall be styled the Annual Session. Special Sessions shall be held on the call of the Grand Master. When in Annual or Special Session, fifty representative members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the Grand Lodge may adjourn from time to time until the business of the session shall have been disposed of. The Annual Session shall be held in the city of Springfield, except when otherwise ordered by a two-thirds vote, by the Grand Lodge convened in Annual Session. A Special Session shall be held at the time and place designated by the Grand Master in the call.

Amendment not adopted.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

Resolved, That Committees appointed by the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois shall consist only of representatives of Lodges.

Not adopted.

GRAND LODGE BY-LAWS.

Proposed Addition Thereto.

Journal 1913, Doc. 46.

Art. II, Section 12. The Finance Committee of the Grand Lodge shall, not later than the first day of March of each and every year, provide for the security of all funds and property of the Subordinate Lodges which may, from time to time, come into the hands of the Financial Secretaries and Treasurers of the Subordinate Lodges, or any of them, by a suitable contract entered into between the Grand Lodge, as the insured, for the use of any Subordinate Lodge as its interests may appear, as party of the first part, and some responsible surety company, authorized to do business in the State of Illinois, as party of the second part; such contract to be made subject to the approval of the Grand Master and the premium therefor to be provided for by appropriation and paid out of the Grand Lodge funds.

Amendment not adopted.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO SUBORDINATE CONSTITUTION.

Original Section.

FINANCIAL SECRETARY.

Art. III, Sec. 6. The Financial Secretary (if any be had) shall be chosen at the election in March. He shall keep the accounts between the Lodge and its members. He shall pay over to the Treasurer immediately all moneys received by him, and shall inform the Treasurer from time to time, or at the last payment in each term, how much of the money paid to him belongs to any special fund of the Lodge. He shall notify all members who are at any time in arrears for eleven months' dues, delivering the notice in person, if practicable, but if not, then mailing it to the member's last known address, and at the expiration of the next succeeding month, if said member's account is not settled, in whole or in part, sufficient to reduce his arrears to less than one full year's dues, he shall present the name of such member to the Lodge. Prior to the last meeting in March, June, September and December, respectively, he shall notify all members who are in arrears for one quarter's dues. He shall, at the close of each term, make to the Lodge a detailed report of the business of his office, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books and papers and to aid them in the examination thereof; and at the first regular meeting of the new term he shall present his report to the Lodge, with a statement of the balance of account of each unsuspended member. He shall make out the Annual Report to the Grand Lodge, as required by Art. XI, and shall deliver it to the Recording Secretary for record and for forwarding to the Grand Lodge. He shall receive such compensation as the Lodge may have fixed prior to his election. He shall give bond as is provided for the Treasurer in the following section.

Proposed Amendment.

Journal 1913, Doc. 46.

Art. III, Sec. 6. The Financial Secretary (if any be had) shall be chosen at the election in March. He shall keep the accounts between the Lodge and its members. He shall pay over to the Treasurer immediately all moneys received by him, and shall inform the Treasurer from time to time, or at the last payment in each term, how much of the money paid to him belongs to any special fund of the Lodge. He shall notify all members who are at any time in arrears for eleven months' dues, delivering the notice in person, if practicable, but if not, then mailing it to the member's last known address, and at the expiration of the next succeeding month, if said member's account is not settled, in whole or in part, sufficient to reduce his arrears to less than one full year's dues, he shall present the name of such member to the Lodge. Prior to the last meeting in March, June, September and December, respectively, he shall notify all members who are in arrears for one quarter's dues. He shall, at the close of each term, make to the Lodge a detailed report of the business of his office, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books and papers and to aid them in the examination thereof; and at the first regular meeting of the new term he shall present his report to the Lodge, with a statement of the balance of account of each unsuspended member. He shall make out the Annual Report to the Grand Lodge, as required by Article XI, and shall deliver it to the Recording Secretary for record and for forwarding to the Grand Lodge. He shall receive such compensation as the Lodge may have fixed prior to his election.

Amendment not adopted.

Original Section.

THE TREASURER.

Art. III, Sec. 7. The Treasurer shall be elected annually at the election in March, and prior to his installation in office he shall give a joint and several bond to the Trustees of the Lodge, with two sureties to be approved by the Lodge, with such penalties and conditions as from time to time may be prescribed by the Lodge.

Provided, that, in lieu of the bond above mentioned, the Treasurer, at the option of the Lodge, may furnish a bond signed by some surety or guaranty company licensed by the State of Illinois, and that is engaged in the business of furnishing indemnity bonds, the expense of such bond to be defrayed by the Lodge.

Such bond, before being presented to the Lodge, must have been submitted to and approved by a majority of the Trustees. He shall keep the funds, notes and securities of the Lodge; pay all orders drawn on him by the Noble Grand and attested by the Secretary, and none other; keep a full account of all moneys expended, and give the Lodge, at the first meeting in each month, a statement of its funds. He shall keep a separate account of any special fund instituted by the Lodge, and report to the Financial Secretary, at or before the last meeting in each term, any money received by him as interest or dividends on any notes, securities or stocks held by him. He shall make for the Lodge, at the close of his term, a full report of his receipts and disbursements, and have his books written up for the Finance Committee, whom he shall meet prior to the first meeting in the next succeeding term, to exhibit his books, papers, securities, bonds, funds and other property in his possession; and at the first regular meeting of the next term he shall present his report to the Lodge. He shall pay over and deliver up, when legally called upon, all moneys, bonds, books, papers, and other property in his possession or under his control, belonging to the Lodge, to his successor in office, or to such person as the Lodge may appoint to receive the same.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVES' REPORT.

To Honorable Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master:

In accordance with an established custom, we herewith present to you, and through you to the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois, a summary of the proceedings of the ninetieth communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., held at Atlantic City, New Jersey, commencing September 21, 1914.

We ask your consideration of this report, and the consideration of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, and trust that the same will meet with your approval and the approval of the Grand Lodge.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the Sovereign Grand Lodge present at this session were:

C. A. Keller, of Texas.....	Grand Sire
Robert T. Daniel, of Georgia.....	Deputy Grand Sire
John B. Goodwin, of Maryland.....	Grand Secretary
M. Richards Muckle, of Pennsylvania.....	Grand Treasurer
J. Edw. Kroh, of Maryland.....	Assistant Grand Secretary
J. A. Lucas, of Illinois.....	Grand Chaplain
H. R. Perkins, of Rhode Island.....	Grand Guardian
W. G. Nye, of Minnesota.....	Grand Messenger

PAST GRAND SIREs PRESENT.

Cl. T. Campbell.....	Ontario
Alfred S. Pinkerton.....	Massachusetts
John B. Goodwin.....	Maryland
E. S. Conway.....	Illinois
W. L. Kuykendall.....	Wyoming
John B. Cockrum.....	Indiana

Reverend J. A. Lucas, of Illinois, Grand Chaplain, addressed the Throne of Grace in the opening session, as follows:

Great art Thou, O, God. We acknowledge Thy supremacy; Thy Almightiness. We also recognize the fact that we are Thy creatures, and, therefore, must be subservient to the Divine will.

We are devoutly thankful for the prosperity of our Order and for the good that has been wrought under the influence of our magic but meaningful words, Friendship, Love, Truth, Faith, Hope and Charity—but the greatest of these glorious words is Love.

We deeply feel our loss of the dear Brothers, who were members of this Body and have gone to join the great throng in the Grand Lodge above. We likewise join in sympathy with the bereaved ones who have said "good-bye" forever, in this world, to their loved ones. Grant, O God, to guide, protect, keep the widows and orphans.

O, God, we most deeply deplore the fact that the old world is in the throes of a cruel war, which is devastating the nation and the home. Stay its mad career and heartless onslaught, O, Lord. Let the power of our beloved Order be felt in its soothing touch of love imparted by Divine power to the fountain source.

We must importune Thee, O, God, to bless our President, Woodrow Wilson, in his bereavement. Guide him in his efforts to keep our great ship of state in neutral waters, and may he as the nation's leader be able to guide in universal peace.

Bless our Grand Sire. We rejoice that he has so ably conducted the affairs of the past year, and that amidst enemies has played the noble part of an Odd Fellow, remained above reproach and has come out unscathed and gloriously victorious.

Now, we pray Thee, dear Lord, guide the deliberations of this Sovereign Grand Lodge. May every Grand Officer and Grand Representative seek to perpetuate the noble principles of Friendship, Truth and Love.

Bless the loved ones at home.

All these favors we ask in Thy name. Amen.

The Grand Sire announced the following appointments:

Grand Marshal—R. H. Shanks, P. G. Rep., of Manitoba.

Official Reporter—H. C. Stevens, P. G. Rep., of Kansas.

Assistant Grand Messengers—C. M. Turner, P. G. Rep., of Illinois; H. H. Sullivan, P. G. Rep., of Missouri.

Assistant Grand Guardians—A. H. Blackeby, P. G. Rep., of Ontario; Charles Wiel, P. G. Rep., of New York; Walter H. Blake, P. G. Rep., of New Jersey.

The Representatives from Illinois received the following appointments:

Hubbard, Committee on Legislation.

Jennings, Committee on International Relations.

Roller, Committee on Odd Fellows' Homes.

Gustin, Committee on Patriarchs Militant.

CONDITION OF THE ORDER AND MEMBERSHIP.

December 31, 1912, we had 18,089 Subordinate Lodges, 3,715 Subordinate Encampments, 9,725 Rebekah Lodges and 763 Cantons.

December 31, 1912, we had 1,645,369 Subordinate Lodge members, 231,865 Encampment members, 711,873 Rebekah Lodge members, 26,298 Canton members and a total membership (without duplication) of 2,121,921.

On December 31, 1913, there were 18,153 Subordinate Lodges, with 1,673,869 members, and 3,580 Encampments, with 233,810 members, and 9,780 Rebekah Lodges, with 733,011 members, and 760 Cantons, with 26,707 members.

This shows, during the year ending December 31, 1913, an increase of 64 Subordinate Lodges, a loss of 135 Subordinate Encampments, a gain of 55 Rebekah Lodges and a loss of 3 Cantons. There was a net increase in Subordinate Lodge members of 28,500, in Subordinate Encampment members of 1,945, in Rebekah Lodge members of 21,138, in Canton members of 409, and total net increase in membership of 50,389.

REVENUES AND FUNDS.

During the year ending December 31, 1913, the total revenue amounted to $18,950,609.48, being an increase over 1912 of $27,851.10. During the year 1913, 142,963 Brothers and 8,230 widowed families shared in the distribution of relief, which aggregated $6,186,015.50.

The total invested funds of the Order on December 31, 1913, amounted to $66,163,274.48, a gain of $2,623,379.16 over the year 1912.

The following were the reports concerning our Jurisdiction:

Illinois—Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master, reports as follows: "I am just in receipt of advance figures from our Grand Secretary, showing a net gain in membership of approximately 2,500 in the Subordinate Lodges for the year ending April 1, 1914, which, considering the financial uncertainty that has prevailed for the past six months, is very gratifying. Our Lodges are moving along the even tenor of their way, performing their function generally in a very creditable manner. Our Schools of Instruction have been better attended than ever before and splendid interest has been manifested. Our platform speakers are devoting more of their time to the practical education of the masses in the purposes and possibilities of the Order, and the results are growing more and more manifest.

"Altogether, I am pleased to report a steady increase in membership and interest and a higher standard of purpose and efficiency all along the line."

John H. Sikes, Grand Secretary: "The net gain in Subordinate Lodge membership in Illinois for the year 1913 is 2,531, and the net gain in Rebekah Lodge membership 2,900. The gain is hardly an average for the past ten years, but is satisfactory. The Order in this Jurisdiction is fulfilling its mission and is establishing higher ideals as the years pass. Great advancement has been made in this Jurisdiction in the teaching of the various lessons found in the degrees. We are looking forward to a splendid year, and see no reason why Odd Fellowship should not be progressive in this Jurisdiction."

Sam J. Baker, Grand Scribe: "You will note a continued gain in the strength of membership in this Jurisdiction, and, while the increased number is not large, yet we have a better informed membership and a more strongly enforced basis upon which to build the structure of Patriarchal Odd Fellowship in the coming years. The encampments are showing a zeal that we hope will bring splendid results."

Mary P. Miller, Secretary: "Rebekah Odd Fellowship is forging ahead. Membership, December 31, 1913, was 57,088; dropped for non-payment of dues and other causes, 5,304. Even with this loss the work is advancing and interest increasing, as is demonstrated in the large, enthusiastic attendance at the annual District meetings held this year. Our Homes are in a flourishing condition and a harmonious spirit of brotherhood prevails throughout the Jurisdiction."

Major General Joseph Fairhall, Department Commander of Illinois, reports:

In compliance with your request that a report of my department be submitted, it is with pleasure that I forward the following statement:

The Department of Illinois is in a healthy, growing condition, enthusiastic and progressive. During the year 1913 charters or warrants for four new Cantons were issued. There are at present four Cantons in process of formation, which will be mustered before the year closes, each starting out with a substantial membership and fully equipped. Peace, tranquillity and prosperity have marked my term of command so far, and although at times the duties have been arduous, on account of personally familiarizing myself with all details, I am rewarded by steady growth in members and discipline.

The Ladies' Auxiliary has been a powerful help and has materially assisted the increased interest. The field exercises held during the Department Council meeting of last year proved so great a success that the same will be repeated in October on a more extended scale, a schedule of movements having been issued for the occasion, with which Cantons are becoming familiarized.

The per capita of membership shows a healthy increase, in spite of the fact that many changes have taken place and business conditions have not been at their best the whole of the time. Two Cantons on the verge of collapse have been resuscitated by consolidating them with the others, which has had a good effect.

Perfect discipline is observed throughout the Department and a more thorough military spirit exhibited in consequence. I am in close touch with every Canton, giving assistance wherever needed. I am proud to state that the Department is in a more improved condition than ever before, and my great aim is to still further increase developments.

APPEALED CASE FROM ILLINOIS.

Paris Wilson and Ella Wilson

vs.

New Hope Lodge No. 263, I. O. O. F.,
Blandinsville, Illinois.

This was an appeal from the action of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, approving a decision of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee, which denied the claims of Paris and Ella Wilson for sick benefits claimed to be due from New Hope Lodge to Paris Wilson. The Committee on Appeals of the Sovereign Grand Lodge made the following report, which was approved:

"The approval of the report of the Committee sustains the action of our Judiciary and Appeals Committee and the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois."

STATEMENT.

This is an appeal from the action of the Grand Lodge of Illinois adopting a report and affirming an appeal of its Judiciary and Appeals Committee, which denied the claims of appellants for sick benefits claimed to be due appellant, Paris Wilson.

Prior to 1907, appellants, who are husband and wife, lived in Illinois, where appellant, Paris Wilson, was a member of New Hope Lodge No. 263, of Blandinsville, Ill. In March, 1907, he moved to Oklahoma, but retained his membership in New Hope Lodge. On November 13, 1907, he suffered a stroke of paralysis. In October, 1908, he suffered a second stroke, after which he was never able to follow his usual avocation; or, indeed, any other, and as a result of which he became hopelessly insane, and is now an inmate of an insane asylum in the State of Kansas. He is said to be also suffering with Bright's disease.

At the date of his second stroke of paralysis he was in arrears for dues, therefore not beneficial, unless the considerations hereafter, in this report, stated shall operate to place him in beneficial standing. As he is now afflicted with an incurable ailment, he can never, if he was not in beneficial standing at the date of his second stroke, become beneficial; hence, the case is of vital importance to his family and to the Lodge, and is entitled to the careful consideration which your Committee has given it after hearing extended arguments on both sides.

There was a long delay in presenting claim for benefits, which delay is sought to be explained on the ground that the Brother was insane or disabled and that his wife could not find his receipts and thought he was not in beneficial standing.

September 23, 1910, appellant, Ella Wilson, filed a claim in writing demanding benefits for her husband from September, 1908, to September, 1910, based upon the second stroke of paralysis which was then alleged to have occurred in September (not October), 1910, but making no reference to the first stroke. This claim was denied on the ground that the Brother was in arrears when taken sick. Appeal was taken to the Judiciary and Appeals Committee of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, which affirmed the action of the Lodge, but, on a further appeal from the decision of said Committee to the Grand Lodge of Illinois, the case was, in November, 1911, referred back to the Committee, for what purpose or on what grounds the record does not disclose. Thereupon, by consent of all parties, it was sent back to the Lodge for a trial de novo.

Following this, at a date not disclosed, appellants amended their claim so as to allege that Paris Wilson was continuously sick from the time of his first stroke in November, 1907, and entitled to sick benefits continuously from that date. Testimony was taken, and the Lodge, in August, 1912, denied the claim. The Grand Lodge of Illinois affirmed this action, taking the ground that the evidence shows that Paris Wilson recovered from his illness of 1907, referred to as his first stroke, to such an extent as to be able to follow his usual avocation, and that his permanent illness dated from the 9th day of October, 1908, at which date he was, it is stated, not beneficiary. From this decision the appeal now here was taken.

The question of his right to benefits for any temporary illness following the first stroke, November 13, 1907, was not raised or decided. The original claim, as for benefits from and after the 1908 stroke, having been, after appeal, referred back for trial de novo, stands now as never having been passed upon specifically in that form; notwithstanding it is stated in the opinion of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee of the Grand Lodge of Illinois that "It is also clearly established to our minds from all the evidence that the second stroke suffered by Paris Wilson was on the 9th day of October, 1908, at which time he was not beneficiary." It is manifest that the finding of fact here intended to be made or ratified is as to the date of the second illness, concerning which there was some dispute, and that the expression "at which time he was not beneficiary" is a mere recital upon a point assumed but not in issue and not decided. The real issue was whether there was continuous sickness from 1907.

Appellants suggest the following questions as raised by the appeal:

1. Did Paris Wilson recover from the illness of 1907?
2. If he did recover from the illness of 1907, was he beneficial at the date of his second stroke, October 9, 1908?

OPINION.

It is contended here that it is not possible for a man to recover from Bright's disease or from a stroke of paralysis produced thereby. Assuming, but not deciding, that this may be true in a scientific and technical sense, it is common knowledge that men do recover from such attacks as this Brother's first stroke, so far as to be able to follow their usual callings, and, therefore, not entitled to sick benefits.

Upon the question of a continuous illness from November, 1907, it is sufficient to say that there was a conflict of testimony and that whatever may be our views as to the weight of the evidence we are precluded, under the established practice of this Body, from disturbing a finding of a Trial Body on a question of facts where there is any evidence to sustain such findings.

It is also contended that even if appellant Paris Wilson was not continuously ill, in a beneficial sense, from November, 1907, yet, by the undisputed testimony, he was sick for at least four weeks and entitled to benefits, not yet paid him, to an amount that, if applied to his credit, would have placed him in beneficial standing at the date of the second stroke. This question, so far as we are informed, is presented for the first time in the brief of appellants on this appeal. If it was urged in any form in the Grand Lodge of Illinois, the record does not disclose that fact, and while there is in the record testimony not definitely disputed, which tends strongly to show that he was entitled to benefits, unless some provision of the local law not here shown would have defeated his claim therefor, to an amount that if credited as now requested would put him in beneficial standing on October 9, 1908, to allow such credit would be to make for appellants a case which they did not urge for themselves in the trial below, and which appellee did not meet because it was not presented.

Upon these considerations the action of the Grand Lodge of Illinois must be affirmed with the observation that this affirmance reaches only to the case as presented in the Subordinate Lodge and reviewed in the Grand Lodge of Illinois, wherein the issue was, as we interpret it, whether the Brother was continuously sick from November, 1907. We therefore recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the action of the Grand Lodge of Illinois in this case be and hereby is affirmed. Signed by the Committee.

THE VEACH CASE FROM ARKANSAS.

Report No. 133. By Cl. T. Campbell, Past Grand Sire, from the Committee on Sovereign Odd Fellow, which was considered and adopted by a unanimous vote.

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

The Special Committee, to whom were referred the matters mentioned in the Grand Sire's report, pages 41 to 51, inclusive, being his statement of transactions and conditions in connection with the violation of the laws of the Order of one A. C. Veach and others, have given the subject careful and extended consideration.

Last year the Sovereign Grand Lodge affirmed the law in this connection and issued its instruction to the Grand Sire, to the Executive Officers of the several Jurisdictions and to the entire membership. The law remains unchanged. The instructions have not been rescinded. All that has occurred during the year has not altered the situation in the slightest degree. The laws of the Order must be enforced and the commands of the Sovereign Grand Lodge obeyed. There must be no doubt in this matter. It is the duty of the Executive Officers of Grand Jurisdictions, and of all in authority, to counsel when counsel is necessary; to enlighten when ignorance prevails; to command when commands should be issued; and to discipline with firmness and justice when men disregard their obligations. For all members remains unaltered the duty of fraternal regard for others, combined with obedience to constituted authority.

The Grand Sire has followed his instructions and performed his duty with characteristic zeal and energy. His loyalty to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, over which he presides, and to the principles and laws of the Order which he represents, deserves and receives the emphatic endorsement of this Body. In its approval and sympathy he has the only reward possible for the labor he has expended and the discomforts he has experienced. The acts of the Grand Master of Arkansas in this convention are also endorsed, and his loyalty to the Sovereign Grand Lodge fully appreciated.

At present the questions involved are in some respects under adjudication in the civil courts. Pending their decision no further action is required; and for their future treatment we have confidence in the wisdom and discretion of the incoming Grand Sire, to whom they are referred.

AGE LIMIT AND P. M. DEGREE.

The proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, permitting the several Jurisdictions to reduce the age of applicants from 21 years to 18 years, was on roll call defeated by a vote of 101 for the amendment to 103 against the amendment. A three-fourths vote was necessary to carry the amendment into effect. It will be observed that it did not obtain even a majority.

The proposed amendment to the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution, requiring that Sovereign Grand Lodge Representatives should be in possession of the degree and in good standing in the Patriarchs Militant, was also lost by a ye and nay vote of 78 to 125. The delegation from Illinois was divided upon each of the above propositions.

PEACE RESOLUTIONS.

The attempt to stampede the Sovereign Grand Lodge by the introduction of Universal Peace Resolutions was promptly suppressed and the printing of such resolutions as were offered was ordered omitted from the Journal of the Proceedings. This was done in keeping with the strict neutral position of the government of the United States. The Independent Order of Odd Fellows has many members on both sides of the great struggle now in progress in the Old World. It was wisely determined to leave the adjustment of our international relations with the incoming Grand Sire.

CONFERRING OF INITIATORY DEGREE.

Elsewhere in this report will be found the decisions of the Grand Sire, together with the action of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, upon the proposition of the legality of conferring the Initiatory Degree otherwise than in and by the Lodge of which the candidate is, upon being initiated, to become a member.

The Committee of the Sovereign Grand Lodge to which this matter was referred overruled the decisions of the Grand Sire and held that such initiation could not be legally conferred. The report of the Committee was adopted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, so that the law remains as was generally understood before—that the applicant must be initiated into the Lodge which elected him to membership.

ILLINOIS GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION AMENDMENT APPROVED.

The amendment made to the Grand Lodge Constitution at the last session of the Grand Lodge, in relation to the election of the Grand Lodge Officers, limiting the right to vote for such Grand Lodge Officers to the duly accredited Grand Lodge Representatives, was approved by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Report No. 32 by Rep. Cummings of Colorado, from the Committee on Constitutions:

To the Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows:

This Committee on Constitutions, to whom was referred amendment to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, report they have duly considered the same and find it correct and recommend that the same be approved.

Report of Committee adopted.

ATTENDANCE FROM ILLINOIS.

Considering the distance of Atlantic City from Illinois, there was a splendid attendance of Illinois people. This is particularly true when we consider that there were no prize contests, either for degree work or for the Patriarchs Militant. The fact that there were no contests of the above character detracted quite largely from the attendance at this meeting. Illinois received the compliment of having Brother J. A. Lucas appointed again by the Grand Sire to the office of Grand Chaplain. The Grand Sire could not possibly have made a better selection.

RECEPTION OF THE GRAND SIRE.

On Monday evening in the parlors of the Chalfonte Hotel a reception was given to the Grand Sire and his wife. Those assisting in the receiving line were Grand Sire C. A. Keller and wife, Deputy Grand Sire Robert T. Daniel and wife, Sovereign Grand Secretary John B. Goodwin and wife, Past Grand Sire W. L. Kuykendall and wife, Grand Chaplain J. A. Lucas, Grand Treasurer M. Richards Muckle, Grand Messenger W. G. Nye. Grand Representative General E. W. Bradford, of Washington, D. C., acted as master of ceremonies. It was a very brilliant affair, enjoyed by all who participated. All Odd Fellows present and citizens of Atlantic City paid their regards to our Sovereign Grand Lodge Officers.

THE DECORATION OF CHIVALRY CONFERRED.

Wednesday evening on the Steel Pier the Patriarchs Militant conferred the Grand Decoration of Chivalry on a number of Chevaliers and the Decoration of Chivalry upon the lady members of the Rebekah branch of the Order. This beautiful ceremony was open to the public and the room was packed to the extent of suffocation. The Patriarchs Militant in their splendid uniforms, exact military conduct, and the beautiful gowns of the ladies made this a sight long to be remembered.

After the conferring of the decorations the grand march was led by Grand Sire Keller and wife. The annual ball was open. The General Commanding, A. R. Stocker, and all department officers and Chevaliers were in full dress uniform.

PAST GRAND SIRES PRESENTED WITH JEWELS.

Grand Sire C. A. Keller presented a "Past Grand Sire Jewel" to Past Grand Sires Cl. T. Campbell, Alfred S. Pinkerton, Edwin S. Conway, W. L. Kuykendall and John B. Cockrum.

Senior Past Grand Sire Cl. T. Campbell responded to the speech of Grand Sire Keller. Both speeches were jewels of oratory and were loudly applauded by the members present.

THE PARADE.

On Wednesday, September 23, occurred the parade. This occasion brought into Atlantic City from the nearby Jurisdictions a large number of Odd Fellows. Some came as Cantons, some as Encampments, some as Subordinate Lodges and many as individuals.

There were about seventy automobiles for the accommodation of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Officers and Representatives.

There were fifteen brass bands and two drum corps. Patriarchs Militant were in evidence in their beautiful uniforms with gay plumes and bright swords.

The distinguishing feature of the parade were the Orphans and the Orphans' Home Band from the Odd Fellows' Home at Philadelphia. It is needless to say that this band and the little boys and girls carrying an immense American flag received the most hearty applause wherever they appeared.

Washington Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., of Baltimore, two hundred strong, in a uniform dress, white canvas hat, white trousers, white shoes and blue sack coats, was one of the most attractive features of the parade.

PLACE OF MEETING.

Atlantic City is certainly well named as the "playground of the world." It is, in fact, a continuous and exaggerated street fair, as we know such in Illinois. The sea breeze, the beach and the bathing are all that any person can say for them. The inhabitants of the city were extremely kind and considerate to the visitors. The hotel accommodations were splendid. The Sovereign Grand Lodge Officers did everything in their power in connection with the citizens to make the session a pleasure as well as a success. The sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge were held on the Steel Pier, and the good will of the Sovereign Grand Lodge Officers and citizens of Atlantic City could not control the roar of the waves of "Old Ocean," and many of the interesting proceedings of the session were not heard by a large number of the Representatives. Fortunately, we were furnished with Daily Journals, and we tried to keep posted.

NEXT SESSION.

Baltimore, Maryland, and San Francisco, California, were placed in nomination as the place for holding the 1915 session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. San Francisco was chosen by an almost unanimous vote.

THE SOVEREIGN GRAND LODGE CONSTITUTION.

The following is a copy of the proposed new Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution that will come before the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge for consideration. Many of the disputed provisions have been argued and practically settled, so that the following will no doubt be adopted at the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge:

CONSTITUTION—ARTICLE I.

General Provisions.

Section 1. Title—This Lodge shall be known by the name, style and title of "The Sovereign Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows."

Sec. 2. The Source of All Legitimate Odd Fellowship—It is the source of all true and legitimate Odd Fellowship and possesses final and superintending jurisdiction over the whole brotherhood.

Sec. 3. Powers—It shall have exclusive power and jurisdiction as follows:

1. To establish, regulate and control the unwritten work of the Order, and to fix and determine the customs and usages in regard to all things which appertain thereto, but the unwritten work of the Order shall in no wise be altered or amended except by a four-fifths vote of the members present.

2. To provide and establish suitable lectures and other written work for the Order, but the written work of the Order shall in no wise be altered or amended except by a three-fourths vote of the members present.

3. To prescribe the forms of all cards, certificates and ceremonies, to designate the style, material, shape and size of all jewels and to fix the design of all regalia.

4. To determine the qualifications for membership in the Order: Provided, that no person shall be admitted to the Order except free white males of good moral character who have arrived at the age of twenty-one years and who believe there is a Supreme Being, the Creator and Preserver of the Universe: Provided, further, that in Australia, New Zealand and other countries not on the continent of North America, in which one or more Grand Lodges have been chartered, the qualifications as to age shall be left to such Grand Lodges. No saloonkeeper, bartender or professional gambler shall be eligible to membership in this Order.

5. To introduce the Order into such countries, domestic or foreign, as it may deem advisable; to charter Lodges, Encampments and Rebekah Lodges in such countries and to retain exclusive control of such Lodges until Grand Bodies shall be legally organized and chartered therein.

6. To organize and issue charters to Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments, with such power and jurisdiction as the Sovereign Grand Lodge may determine, and to recall such charters by a majority of two-thirds of the votes cast. But no more than one Grand Lodge and one Grand Encampment shall be chartered in any State, Province, District or Territory.

7. To organize and enact laws for the government of such other branches or departments of the Order as may be deemed necessary or advisable and to abolish the same by a majority of two-thirds of the votes cast.

8. To enact all laws of general application to the Order.

9. To construe its own law, rules and regulations, to declare and interpret the customs, usages and practices of the Order and to determine the legality of the laws, ordinances and practices of Grand Subordinate Bodies.

ARTICLE II.

Members.

Section 1. Who Are Members of Sovereign Grand Lodge—Qualifications—The Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be composed of the following members, to-wit: A Grand Sire, Deputy Grand Sire, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Guardian, Grand Messenger, Assistant Grand Secretary and Grand Representatives from the several Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments working under legal unreclaimed charters granted by this Sovereign Grand Lodge, together with all Past Grand Sires. Each member shall be a Past Grand in good standing and a member of a Subordinate Lodge and a Rebekah Lodge in good standing, and must have received the Royal Purple degree and be a member in good standing of an Encampment in good standing.

ARTICLE III.

Officers.

Section 1. Officers.—The elective officers of this Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be the Grand Sire, Deputy Grand Sire, Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer, and the appointive officers shall be the Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Guardian, Grand Messenger and Assistant Grand Secretary.

Sec. 2. Elective Officers, when and how elected and installed.—The elective officers shall be chosen by the members of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, who are eligible to vote by ballot at the stated communications held in each even numbered year; and shall be installed into their respective offices before the adjournment of said communications. A majority of all votes cast shall be necessary to elect. The nomination and election shall take place on the second day of the session, and nominations for each office shall be immediately succeeded by the election for the same and before the nominations and elections for the next office.

Sec. 3. Qualifications of elective officers.—To be eligible to an elective office in the Sovereign Grand Lodge, one must, in addition to the qualifications for membership prescribed by Section 1, Article II, of this Constitution, have received the Grand Lodge and the Grand Encampment degrees.

Sec. 4. Appointive officers, how chosen.—The Grand Sire shall, after his installation, nominate the appointive officers, except the Assistant Grand Secretary, who shall be nominated by the Grand Secretary, all of whom shall, if confirmed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, be installed into their respective offices before the adjournment of the session.

Sec. 5. Failure to appear at installation.—Should any elective officer fail to appear for installation, the office shall become vacant, and the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall proceed to a new election to fill such vacancy, and the officer so elected shall be installed. No vacancy shall exist, however, if an elective officer shall fail to appear by reason of sickness or unavoidable accident, and in such case the officer shall be installed under the order of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Cec. 6. Attendance at Sovereign Grand Lodge—duties, compensation.—All officers, both elective and appointive, shall attend each meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and perform such duties as are enjoined by the laws and regulations of the Order and such as may be required by the presiding officer, and shall receive such compensation as may be provided by law.

Sec. 7. Officers may vote and participate in debate—when.—No officer who is not a Representative shall be permitted to vote, except the Grand Sire, in case of an equal division. The elective officers shall have the privilege of debating and making motion, but shall not have the right to vote unless they shall be Representatives. The have the privilege of debating and making motions, but shall not be allowed to take part in the proceedings and debates of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, except by the vote of a majority thereof.

ARTICLE IV.

Grand Sire.

Section 1. Duties of Grand Sire.—The Grand Sire shall preside at all meetings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, preserve order and enforce the laws thereof. He shall have the casting vote whenever the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be equally divided, other than upon a ballot for officers, but shall not vote upon any other occasion. He shall appoint all committees not required to be raised by ballot and appoint all District Deputy Grand Sires, fill by appointment all vacancies in office that may occur during the recess of the Sovereign Grand Lodge from resignation, sickness, disability or other cause, such appointments to last until filled by election or otherwise as provided by law for the election or appointment of such officers. During the recess of this Sovereign Grand Lodge he shall have general superintendence of the interests of the Order. He may hear and decide such questions as may be submitted to him by the several Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments, or by the Grand Masters or Grand Patriarchs thereof or by Grand Representatives, or by the Subordinate Lodges or Encampments under the immediate jurisdiction of this Sovereign Grand Lodge, and his decisions upon all questions so submitted to him shall be binding upon the bodies or persons submitting the same until reversed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. He shall be empowered to receive petitions and grant warrants for the opening of new lodges, and encampments, grand or subordinate, or Rebekah Lodges, in places where grand bodies established by this Sovereign Grand Lodge may not exist; and all warrants so granted by him shall be of force until recalled by this Sovereign Grand Lodge. He shall perform such other duties as may be devolved upon him by the Sovereign Grand Lodge by law, resolution or enactment. At every communication of this Sovereign Grand Lodge he shall make a report in writing of all his official acts and decisions during recess.

Sec. 2. Cannot hold any other office.—During his term of service he shall not hold any office in any Grand or Subordinate Lodge or encampment.

Sec. 3. Case of death, etc., Deputy Grand Sire to act.—In case of the death, resignation or removal from office of the Grand Sire, or in case he shall absent himself for six months or upwards beyond the limits of the United States and the British North American possessions, without the consent of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, the Deputy Grand Sire shall act in his place and shall be forthwith installed as Grand Sire by a Past Grand Sire, who shall make proclamation of his action, which shall be attested by the Grand Secretary under the seal of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and the Deputy Grand Sire so installed shall, at the completion of the term, be entitled to rank as a Past Grand Sire, and, in the event of the disability of the Grand Sire, from physical causes, to discharge the duties of his office, the Deputy Grand Sire shall, during such disability, act in his place. In case of the death, resignation, removal, absence or inability of both the Grand Sire and the Deputy Grand Sire, all said duties and powers shall be exercised by the Junior Past Grand Sire, competent to fill said office, and at the first communication thereafter the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall proceed to elect and install a Grand Sire for the unexpired term, and to fill any vacancy that may be occasioned thereby; provided, however, that a mere temporary or transient visit beyond said limits, not exceeding the aforesaid period of time, shall not be so construed as to work a forfeiture of the office.

ARTICLE V.

Deputy Grand Sire.

Section 1. Duties of Deputy Grand Sire.—The Deputy Grand Sire shall open and close the meetings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, support the Grand Sire by his advice and assistance, and preside in his absence. In case of the removal, death, resignation or inability of the Grand Sire, the powers and duties of the said office shall devolve upon the Deputy Grand Sire for the unexpired term, as provided by Section 3, Article IV, of this Constitution.

ARTICLE VI.

Grand Secretary.

Section 1. Duties of Grand Secretary.—The Grand Secretary shall make a just and true record of all the proceedings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, keep the journal at all secret sessions and preserve and keep the evidences of the unwritten work, and such alterations as may, from time to time, be made therein, and all other records appertaining to the work of the Order and the explanations and lectures relative thereto; summon the members to attend all the special meetings; keep accounts between the Sovereign Grand Lodge and the Grand and subordinate lodges and encampments under its jurisdiction; read all petitions, reports and communications; write all letters and communications; carry on, under the direction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge or Grand Sire, its correspondence, and transact such business of the Sovereign Grand Lodge appertaining to his office as may be required of him by the Sovereign Grand Lodge. All communications transmitted or received by him officially shall be laid before the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

ARTICLE VII.

Grand Treasurer.

Section 1. Duties of Grand Treasurer.—The Grand Treasurer shall keep the moneys and all securities, choses in action, deeds, etc., of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and pay all orders drawn on him by the Grand Secretary. He shall lay before the Sovereign Grand Lodge, at its stated communication in September annually, a full and correct statement of his accounts. Before his installation he shall give a bond, with at least two sureties, to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, in such sum as may, from time to time, be fixed by said body. ;

Sec. 2. Money not drawn unless appropriated.—No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriation made by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

ARTICLE VIII.

Appointive Officers.

Section 1. Duties of Grand Chaplain.—The Grand Chaplain shall perform such duties as appertain to his office and as may, from time to time, be required by the Sovereign Grand Lodge relative thereto.

Sec. 2. Duties of Grand Marshal.—The Grand Marshal shall assist the Grand Sire in performing his duties in such manner as may, from time to time, be required, and perform all the duties generally appertaining to such office.

Sec. 3. Duties of Grand Guardian.—The Grand Guardian shall prove every Brother before admitting him, and allow none to depart without the usual formality.

Sec. 4. Duties of Grand Messenger.—The Grand Messenger shall perform such duties as the Sovereign Grand Lodge may, from time to time, require for the convenience and comfort of the members.

Sec. 5. Duties of Assistant Grand Secretary.—The Assistant Grand Secretary shall assist the Grand Secretary and shall perform such other duties as the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall prescribe.

ARTICLE IX.

Grand Representatives.

Section 1. Grand Representatives.—Grand Representatives shall be chosen by the several Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments for the term of two years, and shall be divided into two classes, whose seats shall be vacated annually by rotation; Provided, however, that Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments which are now or may hereafter be entitled to two Grand Representatives may provide by general law for the election of one of such Grand Representatives to serve for one year, his successor to be elected annually by such Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise during the recess of the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment, such vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term in the manner provided in the Constitution of such Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment.

Sec. 2. Apportionment of Grand Representatives.—Grand Representatives shall be apportioned as follows, viz.: To every Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment having under its jurisdiction one thousand or less members in good standing, one Grand Representative; to every Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment having under its jurisdiction one thousand members in good standing, two Grand Representatives; and no Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment shall have more than two Grand Representatives.

Sec. 3. Qualifications of Grand Representatives.—Grand Representatives, in addition to the qualifications for membership in the Sovereign Grand Lodge prescribed by Section 1, Article II, of this Constitution, shall reside within the territorial jurisdiction of the Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment which they represent.

Sec. 4. Cannot represent more than one Grand Body.—No Grand Representative shall represent more than one Grand Body at the same time.

Sec. 5. Compensation.—Grand Representatives shall receive such compensation or other emoluments as may be provided by law.

Sec. 6. To be furnished certificate.—Grand Representatives shall be furnished, by the Grand Bodies which they represent, with such certificates as shall be required by law.

Sec. 7. Contested elections.—In case of contested election, this Sovereign Grand Lodge shall determine to whom the contested seat belongs.

Sec. 8. Grand Representatives from Independent Grand Lodges.—Each Independent Grand Lodge which shall have accepted and which shall be working under the charter adopted in the year 1900 for all such Independent Grand Lodges, and each Independent Grand Lodge chartered by the Sovereign Grand Lodge after the year 1900, may elect one Grand Representative to this Sovereign Grand Lodge whose qualifications, term of office, privileges and duties shall be the same as other Grand Representatives. But the Sovereign Grand Lodge may fix the compensation to be paid to any such Grand Representatives at a different sum from that paid to other Grand Representatives.

ARTICLE X.

Past Grand Sires.

Section 1. Rights of Past Grand Sires.—Past Grand Sires shall have the right to debate and make motions, but shall not have the privilege of voting unless they be Grand Representatives.

ARTICLE XI.

Impeachment.

Section 1. Impeachment of officers and members.—This Sovereign Grand Lodge shall have the power, a majority consenting thereto, to impeach and try any of its officers or members, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the votes cast, to expel from office or membership therein any officer or member so impeached and convicted: Provided, that a copy of the charges preferred shall have been furnished to the accused at least three days before the trial.

Sec. 2. Suspended during trial.—During the trial of any impeachment, the officer or member under impeachment shall be debarred the exercise of his office or the privilege of his membership, but may be heard in his own defense.

Sec. 3. Suspension — Expulsion.—Suspension or expulsion from the subordinate lodge or encampment to which an officer or member of this Sovereign Grand Lodge belongs shall operate as a suspension or expulsion from office or membership in this Sovereign Grand Lodge, and the vacancy thereby created shall be filled in the manner hereinbefore prescribed.

ARTICLE XII.

Sessions.

Section 1. Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge.—This Sovereign Grand Lodge shall meet annually on the third Monday of September, at 9 o'clock A. M., at such place as the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall from time to time determine. It may also meet on its own adjournment. It may also meet specially on the call of the Grand Sire, of which the Grand Sire shall cause three months notice to be given to the Representatives of the several Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments, communicating to them the purpose for which the special meeting is called, and in no case shall any business be transacted at a special meeting unless such notice has been given; Provided, that if it shall be impracticable, from the prevalence of contagious disease or any other cause, for the annual session to be held at the place designated therefor, the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall have the power to determine at what date or place said session shall be held, or, if the Sovereign Grand Lodge be not in session when such emergency occurs, such power may be exercised by the Grand Sire.

ARTICLE XIII.

Rules and Practices.

Section 1. Quorum of Representatives.—Representatives from a majority of the whole number of Grand Bodies shall be necessary to form a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may receive and act upon the credentials of new members, except in contested elections.

Sec. 2. Judge of qualifications and elections.—This Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be the judge of the certificates or returns and qualifications of its members.

Sec. 3. Qualifications for voting.—No Grand Representative shall be entitled to more than one vote in the election for Grand Officers, and no Grand Representative from a Grand Lodge or Grand Encampment which shall be in arrears for money due the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be allowed to vote upon any question.

Sec. 4. Rules of order.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge may determine the rules of its proceedings, and from time to time adopt such rules of order as it may see fit.

Sec. 5. Journal published.—A journal of its proceedings shall be kept and published annually, except such proceedings as are had in secret session.

Sec. 6. How votes taken.—Voting for officers shall be by ballot. All other voting except upon the passage of a law as provided by Section 5, Article XV, shall be viva voce or by yeas or nays, as the Sovereign Grand Lodge may determine. The yeas and nays may be demanded by one-fifth of the Representatives present, and shall be entered upon the Journal.

Sec. 7. Questions—how decided.—All questions shall be decided by a majority vote, except in such cases as a specific vote is required.

ARTICLE XIV.Revenue.

Section 1. How derived.—The revenue of the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be derived from fees for charters to Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments and for charters to subordinate Lodges and Encampments working under its immediate jurisdiction; Representative tax and dues from Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments, which shall be uniform; dues from subordinate lodges and encampments working under the immediate jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, which shall be uniform; the proceeds of the sale of books, cards, diplomas, odes, certificates and other supplies and the proceeds of such levies or assessments as the Sovereign Grand Lodge may from time to time make upon Grand Lodges and Grand Encampments and subordinate Lodges and Encampments by law.

ARTICLE XV.Laws.

Section 1. Enacting clause.—All laws passed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall be preceded by the following enacting clause: "Be it enacted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge."

Sec. 2. Laws passed by bills.—No law shall be passed except by bill, and no bill shall be so amended in its passage as to change its original purpose: Provided, administrative measures, including appropriations, shall not be construed to be laws within the meaning of this section.

Sec. 3. Bills shall contain but one subject.—No bill shall contain more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in its title.

Sec. 4. Bills originate, how.—Bills shall be proposed at a regular communication of the Sovereign Grand Lodge and shall be required to lie over at least one day, and shall be acted upon at the same session.

Sec. 5. Yea and nay vote.—No bill shall become a law unless upon its passage the vote be taken by yeas and nays, the names of the Grand Representatives voting for and against the same to be entered on the journal and a majority of two-thirds of the Grand Representatives be recorded thereon as voting in its favor.

Sec. 6. Laws amended, how.—No existing law shall be amended by providing that designated words thereof be inserted, or that designated words thereof be stricken out and others inserted in lieu thereof; but the words to be stricken out, or the words to be inserted, or the words to be stricken out and those inserted in lieu thereof, together with the section amended, shall be set forth in full as amended.

Sec. 7. Laws take effect, when.—All laws passed by the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall become effective on the first day of January next succeeding their enactment, unless in case of an emergency (which emergency shall be expressed in the preamble or in the body of the act) the Sovereign Grand Lodge shall, by a vote of two-thirds of all the Grand Representatives, otherwise direct; said vote to be taken by yeas and nays and entered upon the journal.

ARTICLE XVI.

Supreme Law.

Section 1. Constitution and laws supreme.—This constitution and the laws which shall be made in pursuance thereof shall be the supreme law of the Order and be binding upon all branches and departments of the Order.

ARTICLE XVII.

How Amended.

Section 1. Constitution, how amended.—This Constitution shall not be altered or amended except by a proposition therefor made in writing at a regular annual communication by one or more Representatives from three different Grand Bodies, which shall be entered on the journal and lie over until the next regular annual communication. At the next regular annual communication, after being offered, such proposed alteration or amendment may be considered, and if agreed to by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, on a call of the yeas and nays, such proposed alteration or amendment shall become a part of this Constitution and shall become and be effective on and after the first day of January next succeeding its adoption.

Signed by Representatives from Three Grand Bodies.

CONCLUSION.

To be a Representative from Illinois to the Sovereign Grand Lodge is a distinguished honor, fully appreciated by your Representatives. To be able, as such Representatives, to participate in the deliberation and assist in the framing of the laws of the Sovereign Grand Body, is an honor, also a pleasant privilege.

The Divine services held on the Sunday preceding the session at Atlantic City; the addresses of welcome on the part of the Governor of New Jersey, the different bodies of Odd Fellows of New Jersey, and the officials of Atlantic City, were all a very pleasant part of our visit. Those features of the program were timely and well arranged.

We have endeavored in this report to give to you the substance of the proceedings of the Ninetieth Session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, and hope that the same will meet with your approval.

We also desire to say that the honor conferred upon us is not undervalued, and we fully realize what it means to represent the Third Jurisdiction of our great Order. We wish to inform you of our willingness to be of assistance to the Odd Fellows of Illinois in any capacity that we are capable of fulfilling at any time in the future.

Respectfully submitted,

W. A. Hubbard

Grand Representatives of the Grand Lodge of Illinois.

DOCUMENT NO. 4.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Supplemental Report of the Grand Representatives.

To Hon. Warren C. Darnall, Grand Master:

We beg to submit the following supplemental report, the same being the decisions of the Grand Sire, that were approved, reversed and modified. A decision was promulgated by the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge on October 13th that should be noted by all Subordinate Lodges, which decision is as follows:

"Baltimore, Md., Oct. 13, 1914.

To Whom it May Concern:

Bro. Robert T. Daniel, Grand Sire, has just rendered a decision on Report No. 124, page 153 and 154, Daily Journal of the Atlantic City Sovereign Grand Lodge on the subject of transfer certificates, "Holding that the fee of 25 cents for each certificate should be paid by the applicant for the transfer."

Also, that the law requiring the payment of the fee of 25 cents for the transfer goes into effect on the first day of January next (1915). Fraternally yours, John B. Goodwin, Grand Secretary.

The following decisions of the Grand Sire were approved:

Dec. 2. It has been held it is not in good taste to celebrate our anniversary on Sunday, Busbee's Digest, Sec. 1; that it is illegal to hold meetings of a general relief committee on Sunday, Busbee's Digest, 1116; that meetings of all subordinate bodies must be held on a week day, Busbee's Digest, Sec. 1853; that a Canton cannot parade on Sunday, Busbee's Digest, Sec. 2438; and that Sunday should be rigidly observed by all Odd Fellows, Busbee's Digest, Sec. 1854. I am therefore of the opinion that it should be inadvisable to grant a dispensation for a Sunday excursion to be given in the name of a Lodge or the Order or to grant the use of the emblems or regalia of the Order on such occasion.

Dec. 3. Last year our Grand Master decided as follows:

"No. 41. When the institution of a new Lodge changes the territorial jurisdiction of a member, such member is entitled to the privileges of the transfer law the same as though he had moved his residence."

The Judiciary Committee reported the same to the Grand Lodge as follows: "Decision 41 states in substance that the institution of a new Lodge changed the territorial jurisdiction of a member, presumably without his moving, and states further that a member under such conditions is entitled to the privileges of the transfer law. We non-concur in this decision, as the Constitution states that it is necessary for a member to move his residence in order to avail himself of the privileges of the transfer law."

Upon motion the report of the Judiciary Committee as to Decision 41, was referred to the incoming Grand Master with the request that he submit the question involved to the Grand Sire for official decision.

Our Constitution for Subordinate Lodges provides as follows: "When a member of the Order changes his residence from one territorial jurisdiction to another holding an official certificate in date showing dues paid in advance may petition for membership in a Lodge in the jurisdiction to which he has removed at or near his new residence, accompanying his petition with said official certificate, and of elected to membership the secretary of such Lodge shall notify the secretary of the Lodge issuing said official certificate or visiting card of such election, and upon notice, unless charges be pending against said member, said Lodge shall issue to him without ballot or fee a transfer certificate, which, on being delivered to the Lodge so electing him, he shall sign the Constitution of said Lodge and become a member of said Lodge without the payment of any admission fee; provided, that if a physician's certificate is required, the applicant shall pay the expense thereof."

The Sovereign Grand Lodge at Minneapolis amended the transfer law to read as follows:

"That a member of the Order in possession of an official certificate or visiting card changing his residence from the territorial jurisdiction of his Lodge or Encampment to the territorial jurisdiction of another and desiring to unite with a Lodge or Encampment at his new place of residence, upon making application for membership, accompanied by his official certificate or visiting card, showing his dues paid in advance, and being elected as provided by local law, upon notice being sent to the secretary or scribe of his Lodge or Encampment, said Lodge or Encampment shall, unless charges are pending against him, without ballot and fee, issue a transfer certificate, etc."

Question.—Which was right, the decision of the former Grand Master, or of the Judiciary Committee?

Answer.—While the decision of the Judiciary Committee may have been justified by the strict letter of the law, I feel that the Grand Master's decision comes nearer following the spirit of the law, and was correct. By the institution of the new Lodge the brother was changed from the jurisdiction of one Lodge to that of another and I believe the purpose of the law was to enable him to transfer his membership, without expense, to that Lodge where it would be most convenient for him to attend, and I ca not see that it makes any difference whether he moves to another Lodge or the institution of a new Lodge brings it nearer to him. The reason for the transfer is the same.

Dec. 4. Question.—Does Decision 11, as amended, 1913 Journal, pages 304-305, apply to any Lodge in any state, regardless of individual state Constitutions?

Answer.—No.

Dec. 8. Statement.—“A” has been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows for a period of 25 years, during which time he was “suspended for cause” for a period of one year.

Question.—Is he entitled to a veteran’s jewel?

Answer.—No. See Secs. 1604, 1611 and 1614, Busbee’s Digest.

Dec. 13. Question.—Have we, as Odd Fellows, the right to permit the Masonic fraternity to furnish part of the funds and own a hall in partnership with us?

Answer.—Yes, unless your Grand Lodge Constitution provides otherwise. See Busbee’s Digest, Secs. 1917 and 2245.

Dec. 18. Statement.—At the last session of our Grand Lodge the following amendment to the Rebekah Lodge Constitution was adopted (Art. V, Sec. 1): “The fee for membership in all cases shall be such as the Lodges, by by-laws, may determine, but in no case less than one dollar, and in the case of an unmarried white womanwho applies as such and whose age exceeds 45 years, she shall pay in addition not less than one dollar per year for each year of her age exceeding 45 years, unless application is made under Article II, Sec. 1, Clause 2, of the Constitution for Rebekah Lodges, except as provided by the transfer of membership law.”

Question.—Is the amendment legal?

Answer.—I am of the opinion that the amendment to Article V, Sec. 1, of the Rebekah Lodge Constitution adopted by the Grand Lodge at its annual session in 1912 is legal.

Dec. 19. Statement.—(First.) Resolution No. 34 of the Proceedings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of 1906, page 716, reads as follows: “Resolved, That the respective Grand Lodges in jurisdictions where Rebekah Assemblies are or may be organized, are hereby authorized to enact such legislation as will allow the President of such Assemblies to receive petitions for dispensations and charters for the institution of Subordinate Rebekah Lodges, and grant same and institute new Rebekah Lodges subject to the approval of their Grand Lodges and under such legislation as may be prescribed by such Grand Lodges.”

(Second.) Resolution No. 40 of the Proceedings of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of 1907, page 250, reads as follows: "Resolved, That Secs. 2 and 3 of the Rebekah Code be and they are hereby amended so as to read as follows: Sec. 2. The Grand Lodges subordinate to The Sovereign Grand Lodge are hereby authorized and empowered to institute Rebekah Lodges at such places as they may deem proper within their territorial limits, and during the recess of such Grand Lodge the Grand Masters are hereby authorized to grant dispensations for the institution of such Rebekah Lodges subject to the approval of the Grand Lodge at its next session. Sec. 3. A Grand Master shall be the installing officer who may, however, appoint for that purpose any Past Grand or Past Noble Grand who is in good standing in a Rebekah Lodge."

Question 1.—To what extent does the Resolution No. 40 of the legislation of 1907, as above quoted, repeal Resolution No. 34 of the legislation of 1906?

Answer.—None of it. It is supplementary to the provisions of the Rebekah Code.

Question 2.—What authority exists, if any, other than the provisions of the Rebekah Code, as amended, for the institution of Rebekah Lodges?

Answer.—Resolution No. 34, Journal 1906, page 716.

Question 3.—Can Grand Masters in all jurisdictions institute Rebekah Lodges as provided by Rebekah Code as so amended?

Answer.—Yes, unless authority otherwise has been given as provided for in Resolution No. 34, Journal 1906, page 716.

In Texas and in many other jurisdictions laws like the one you quote from Michigan have been enacted. Resolution No. 40 of 1907 did not materially change the Rebekah Code from what it was before. This law is in full force and effect, except in jurisdictions where the Grand Lodge has delegated its authority to the Rebekah Assembly, as in Texas and Michigan. Where there is a Rebekah Assembly and the Grand Lodge has delegated its authority as provided by Resolution No. 34 of 1906, neither the Grand Master nor the Grand Lodge would have power or authority to act under the Rebekah Code as amended by Resolution No. 40 of 1907, without annulling the permission given to the Rebekah Assembly. If both has the right, conflict of authority would almost surely arise.

Dec. 20. Question.—Does the transfer law, as amended at the last session of The Sovereign Grand Lodge, except as relates to benefits, apply to Rebekah Lodges the same as to subordinates Lodges and Encampments?

Answer.—Yes.

Dec. 21. Question.—Has the President of the Rebekah Assembly the right to recall and reclaim charter, books and other effects of defunct Rebekah Lodges, such action being under approval of the Grand Lodge, and according to such regulations as may be prescribed by the Grand Lodge?

Answer.—Yes.

Dec. 24. —Statement.—Our Grand Encampment at its last session passed a resolution providing for the granting of duplicate charter to Clearwater Encampment.

Question.—Shall the new charter bear the date of the old charter and have the names of the Grand Patriarch and Grand Scribe who were in office at the time the regular charter was granted, attached with a certificate signed by the present Grand Patriarch and Grand Scribe, certifying that the duplicate charter was issued in accordance with the resolution of the Grand Encampment? Heretofore, when a duplicate charter was issued under the Grand Lodge, the duplicate charter has been signed by the present Grand Master and Grand Secretary. It does not seem to me that this fulfills the intent of the law.

Answer.—I think that Sec. 1774, of Busbee's Digest being a later enactment of law than Sec. 1773, should govern, and that your suggestion should be followed, and that the duplicate charter shall have at the time of issuing the original charter, and that a certificate signed by the present Grand Patriarch and Grand Scribe shall be attached to the duplicate charter, setting forth that the same is a duplicate charter.

Dec. 25. Statement.—Our subordinate constitution for encampments has Sec. 57, which reads as follows: "Members—How Dropped. No member shall, or can, be suspended or expelled for non-payment of dues. All members who shall become one year in time or more in arrears for dues or fund, after having been notified as hereinafter provided, may be dropped from membership. The Financial Scribe shall quarterly, at the first stated meetings in January, April, July and October, report to the encampment the name or names of all members who are then one year or more in arrears for dues, assessments or funds, and shall serve upon each member so reported a notice under the seal of the encampment, advising him of the amount of his arrearage, and that, if the arrearage is not paid within four weeks from the date of the notice, his name will be reported to the encampment for action. Service of such notice may be made by giving it to the member personally, or to his wife, or by mailing it to him in a letter directed to his last known postoffice, and the statement of the Scribe that he has made such service, entered of record, shall be sufficient proof thereof. If a member thus served shall fail to pay his arrearage within the four weeks aforesaid, he shall be dropped from membership, unless further time be given him by the encampment; if such further time so given him expires and he is still in arrears, he shall be dropped without further notice."

Our Grand Patriarch of last year has submitted to him, the following question: "When a member has been reported as one year or more in arrears for dues at the stated time according to the Constitution, does it require a motion to drop such member?"

Answer.—Yes. See Digest, paragraph 1008.

Referring to Digest (Busbee), paragraph 1008, as quoted by him, he referred to the proceedings from which paragraph 1008 was digested and it reads as follows: "Resolved, That when any member of a Lodge or Encampment shall neglect or refuse to pay the dues fixed by the laws, for the space of one year, the Secretary or Scribe shall report the same to the Noble Grand or Chief Patriarch, and unless the Lodge or Encampment otherwise direct, such member shall thereupon be suspended (he having been first notified of the action that would be taken), a record of which shall be made upon the minutes. The mere fact of a member being over twelve months in arrears, does not constitute him a suspended or dropped member. To render him such, the Lodge or Encampment must formally declare him to be suspended.

Question.—Dealing with Sec. 57, above quoted, I ask you, is it necessary to require or to have a motion to drop such members, and does not the Sec. 57 act automatically against the members, and that the entry when the time has elapsed either originally or by continuance be made by the Secretary only upon the books?

Answer.—Sec. 57 does not act automatically. Some formal action must be taken and entry made in the records.

Patriarchs Militant Decisions.

Dec. 26. I have examined the correspondence with and decision of General Stocker, and there seems to me to be only an apparent conflict in the sections of the Patriarchs Militant Code cited by each. In my view, Sec. 2 requiring at least 15 Chevaliers to a Canton is in harmony with the section which provides that five members of a Canton shall be a quorum. The general rule in all bodies is that a quorum may consist of a less number than the entire membership, where five is often a quorum and is also the minimum number of members for a Lodge; and, of course, in the case of a Lodge, if there are five members desiring to retain a charter they can do so, for this number may be instituted as a Lodge.

Inasmuch, however, as a Canton must consist of not less than fifteen members, if it shall appear officially that a Canton has less than this number, then it should properly cease to exist, notwithstanding the quorum for meeting and transacting business may be only five.

Grand Lodge Decisions.

Dec. 27. Statement.—The Constitution of the Grand Lodge of this jurisdiction, which was approved by The Sovereign Grand Lodge at its session in 1910 (see Report 85, page 786, also adoption of said report, page 826, Sovereign Grand Lodge Journal 1910), provides as follows:

ARTICLE XVIII.

Section 1. The Grand Lodge of Arkansas hereby assumes the control and management of the Widows' and Orphans' Homes of the state of Arkansas, same to be under direct supervision of a Board of Trustees, as hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. The Board of Trustees of the Widows' and Orphans' Home shall consist of nine members, with the addition of the Grand Master and Grand Secretary, who shall be ex officio members. Six to be appointed from the Odd Fellows of the state and three from the Rebekahs, to hold their terms of office for a period of three years, making the term of office of two male members and one female member expire each year, the same to be refilled by appointment of the newly elected Grand Master immediately after his installation, and should a vacancy occur in the board, the same shall be immediately filled by the Grand Master as soon as he is apprised that such vacancy exists.

At the 1912 session of the Grand Lodge of Arkansas, the following amendments were adopted (pages 166, 167, Journal 1912):

ARTICLE VIII.

Sec. 1. The elective officers of the Grand Lodge shall be as follows: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer and Grand Representatives to The Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., and three Grand Lodge Trustees, one to be elected for one year, one to be elected for two years and one to be elected for three years, and thereafter one of said trustees shall be elected annually for a term of three years.

ARTICLE IX.

Sec. 12a. It shall be the duty of the Grand Lodge Trustees to take charge of all of the property of the Grand Lodge, to invest safely such funds as may be entrusted to them, and they are charged with a general oversight over the funds and property of the Grand Lodge. They shall render a full and accurate account of their transactions to the Grand Lodge at each session, and may receive such compensation as may from time to time be fixed by the Grand Lodge. They shall give bond in the sum of ——— dollars, to be approved by the Grand Master.

The foregoing amendments were duly introduced at the Grand Lodge session of 1911 (see Grand Lodge Journal 1911, pages 186, 187).

Article XIX, Sec. 1, of the Grand Lodge Constitution reads as follows:

ARTICLE XIX.

Sec. 1. This Constitution shall be altered or amended only by a proposition therefor in writing, signed by three or more Representatives, submitted at an annual session, which proposition shall set forth the section to be altered or amended as it would read if amended or altered. The proposition shall be entered at length upon the journal, and shall not be acted upon until the next annual session, when it may be considered and perfected by amendments and adopted by a vote of two-thirds of all the Representatives present and voting; provided, however, it will be competent for the Grand Lodge, by a majority of all the Representatives, at any session, to strike out, add to, or modify or amend any of these laws in conflict with, or to make them conform to, the laws and decisions of The Sovereign Grand Lodge.

At the 1913 session of this Grand Lodge the following "Verbal Motion" was made:

"That it is the sense of this Grand Lodge that the amendment adopted to the Constitution one year ago, and approved by the Sovereign Grand Lodge, repeals all laws in conflict with that, and that the three members to be elected tomorrow shall constitute the Widows' and Orphans' Home Board, as well as the Grand Lodge Board of Trustees, and that we declare by our vote that that is the construction placed upon our law."

The above motion was by the Chair declared carried.

The point was raised that the "motion sought to amend the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, and was therefore inoperative and of no effect, as the Constitution clearly provides how same may be amended. (See Sec. 1, Art. XIX, Grand Lodge Constitution. Secs. 605, 606, 609 and 618, Busbee's Digest).

As Secs. 1 and 2 of Art. XVIII give the Grand Lodge general supervision of the Home, and Sec. 12 a of Art. IX gives the Trustees general supervision also, I can see no conflict in these laws which provide for general supervision of the Grand Lodge Trustees over all Grand Lodge property, and the specific "Direct Supervision" of the Home as provided in Secs. 1 and 2, Art. XVIII.

Question 1.—Did the action of the Grand Lodge in adopting the motion above referred to, which was not even in the form of a written resolution, repeal any part of Secs. 1 and 2 of Art. XVIII?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—Does Sec. 12 a, Art. IX, adopted at the 1912 session of the Grand Lodge, which was approved by the Sovereign Grand Lodge at its 1913 session (see Report 67, pages 106, 135, Daily Journal, the Sovereign Grand Lodge), give the Grand Lodge Trustees "direct control" of the Home, or only the same "general supervision" as was formerly exercised by the Grand Lodge?

Answer.—General Supervision only.

Question 3.—Should not the Board of Trustees of the Home, as provided for in Secs. 2 and 1, Art. XVIII, Grand Lodge Constitution, exercise control of the Home until the Constitution is amended in accordance with Sec. 1, Art. XIX, placing the direct supervision and control of same elsewhere?

Answer.—Yes.

Grand Encampment Decisions.

Dec. 28. Statement.—Sec. 28 of the Grand Encampment Constitution of Iowa is as follows: "When two or more Encampments desire to consolidate and form one Encampment, each for itself, shall address a petition to that effect to the Grand Encampment, or the Grand Patriarch, showing that the question of such consolidation was submitted to each Encampment and carried by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present, and that a final vote thereon had not been taken until after a motion for such consolidation had been offered in writing, read at each successive meeting after its introduction and remained upon the table of each Encampment for one month; and that the time for final action thereon had been fixed at the time of its reception. The petitions shall state into which Encampment the petitioning Encampment shall be consolidated, and the date at which the consolidation shall take effect. Upon receipt of such petition the Grand Encampment or the Grand Patriarch may grant or refuse the consolidation prayed for, and issue a warrant accordingly, and said consolidation shall be firm and effectual from the date of such warrant; and such warrant shall invest the Encampment into which the others were consolidated with all the property of the petitioning Encampment, and attach and incorporate into it the entire membership of such Encampments as if it had gained the same by initiation." We have also under the general law jurisdictional lines between Encampments, over which lines there must be no interference, and if petitions are accepted and petitioners elected outside of the jurisdictional limits of an Encampment, the penalties follow as are known under the law. There are three Encampments; namely, Durham Encampment and Knoxville Encampment.

Between Durham Encampment and Knoxville Encampment there is situated an Encampment known as Marysville Encampment. Marysville Encampment is located much nearer to Durham Encampment than to Knoxville Encampment. Marysville Encampment and Knoxville Encampment, under Sec. 28 above set forth, have applied to me for approval of consolidation.

Question 1.—Does this Sec. 28 in its application violate the general law regarding jurisdictional limits?

Answer.—No.

Question 2.—Again you will notice that Sec. 28 says: “and carried by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the members present.” How many members of an Encampment are necessary to hold its charter, and if there is a constitutional limit, may that charter be taken away by “two-thirds” vote of the members present, even though the “one-third” may have more in numbers than the constitutional and that my answer to Question 2 should be as follows:

Answer.—I thought at first that Sec. 1781 of Busbee related to jurisdictions like Indiana where the Constitution provides: “That so long as five members of any subordinate Lodge desire to retain its charter and work thereunder, said charter cannot be taken from them by a vote of said Lodge in favor of consolidating with another Lodge.” Your Constitution seems to have no such provision. However, on a more careful examination of the matter and after consulting cases found in 1889 Journal, 11, 484, 11, 728, 11, 786 and 1901 Journal, 40, 360, 371, 372 and 1904 Journal, 545, 752, 820, and 1905 Journal, 19, 219, 243, I am constrained to believe the intent is to hold the law as given in Sec. 1781 of Busbee’s Digest as applicable to all jurisdictions, and that my answer to Question 2 should be as follows:

“No consolidation of Lodges on Encampments can be made as long as the number of members in one of the Lodges or Encampments desiring to retain the charter and work thereunder is equal to that prescribed by law as the minimum number of applicants or petitioners to whom a charter will be given.”

Miscellaneous Decisions.

Dec. 29. Statement.—The Past Grands form an association, elect officers, have a constitution and by-laws, initiation and installation ceremony, secret work and pass words. A small fee is charged for admission and a small amount for dues.

Question 1.—Does such an organization come under the ban of Past Grand Sire W. L. Kuykendall's proclamation issued on January 10, 1910?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—Can past officers have an association without ceremonies, secret work, pass words, etc., that meets for the purpose of discussing legislation and socials that will have a tendency to build up the Order?

Answer.—Yes.

The following decisions of the Grand Sire were reversed and modified as follows:

Dec. 1. Statement.—The Grand Lodge of Texas at its last session adopted a report, reading as follows: "We, your Committee on the State of the Order, recommend that the brothers of the subordinate Lodges of Texas co-operate in maintaining a voluntary fund in each Lodge for the relief of distress outside of our ranks, so that we may be true to the lesson of the Good Samaritan, and exemplify as Odd Fellows our belief of the common brotherhood of man."

Question 1.—Can a Lodge legally create and maintain in the Lodge a fund to be distributed by its officers and in its name, for the relief and distress outside our ranks, or for donations or subscriptions to charitable objects more or less foreign to our organization?

Answer.—Yes, if the fund is raised by voluntary donations and the money so received is kept in a separate fund and not merged or mingled with the other funds of the Lodge.

Question 2. Can a subordinate Lodge take jurisdiction of and maintain, even through voluntary contributions, a fund for "outside charities?"

Answer.—Yes, as above stated, Busbee, 551.

Changed by Sovereign Grand Lodge so that the answers to both questions are "no."

Dec. 5. Statement.—A brother applied for and was elected to membership in another Lodge in another jurisdiction on his official certificate. The Lodge electing him asked for and received a transfer certificate from the Lodge to which the brother belonged July 10, 1912. After receipt of the transfer certificate the secretary notified the brother to appear in the Lodge and sign the roll. Members of the Lodge also asked the brother to sign the roll. The brother has neglected and refused to do so, but has continued to send his dues to his old Lodge, which the financial secretary received and receipted for, the financial secretary not being aware that the transfer certificate had been issued. The brother has paid his dues to his old Lodge to January 1, 1914.

Question.—Where does he belong, if anywhere, and what is his standing? Did his “severs membership” act, he not having been sick at any time since the transfer certificate was issued, put him out of the Order?

Answer.—Under the transfer law as amended last September it is provided: “If the member fails to sign the Constitution of the new Lodge or Encampment within three months after the date of his election, the transfer certificate shall be cancelled and returned to the Lodge or Encampment issuing the same and the member shall hold the same standing in his old Lodge or Encampment as though the transfer certificate has not been issued.”

This law seems to cover the case.

Changed by Sovereign Grand Lodge so that the answer reads, “he does not belong to either Lodge.”

Dec. 6. Statement.—A subordinate Lodge in July, 1912, for the purpose of raising a fund to defray the expenses of the anniversary celebration to be held April, 1913, adopted a resolution making an assessment of $1.00 on all members then belonging to the Lodge or who should become members thereof from that date until April 26, 1913. A member who, before that time, had been dropped for non-payment of dues was reinstated in November, 1912. When he paid his first dues $1.00 was taken out of same under this resolution.

Question.—Could this member be legally taxed with this assessment, he not being a member of the Lodge when the assessments was ordered?

Answer.—No.

Changed by Sovereign Grand Lodge so that the answer reads as follows:

Answer.—No, unless the assessment authorized by local legislation after the assessment was authorized by local legislation, the member in question was liable for the payment thereof as were all of the members of their Lodge whether they become members prior or subsequent to the assessment.

Dec. 7. Question 1.—In case a member desires to change his membership from one Lodge to another, and who would not be within the meaning of the transfer law because there has been no change of residence, and where he resides within the jurisdiction of several Lodges having concurrent jurisdiction, and he makes application by deposit of visiting card or official certificate, and on such application is elected, must the Lodge of which he has been a member under the laws and decisions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, issue and forward to the Lodge electing him a member, a withdrawal card for the brother upon application therefor from the Secretary of the Lodge so electing the brother a member?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—Does the same rule apply in Rebekah Lodges?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 3.—If the above questions are answered in the affirmative, then can a Grand Lodge enact legislation for its jurisdiction, abrogating such laws and decisions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge so far as to require the application in such case for the withdrawal card to be made in person by the member or in writing by the member?

Answer.—Yes.

Changes by Sovereign Grand Lodge so that the answer to question 1 shall be as follows:

Answer to Question 1.—Yes, if the brother is free from all charges and has paid all dues and fees.

Answer to Question 2.—Yes.

Answer to Question 3.—No.

Dec. 9. Question.—May two or more Lodges, located in contiguous territory and assembled by appointment for holding school of instruction in ritualistic ceremonies, hold a joint meeting for initiating a class of candidates made up from the various Lodges interested, provided candidates have been previously regularly elected to membership and provided each Lodge participating be represented by a quorum of its members, including Noble Grand and Secretary, together with their own records, charter, Constitution and By-Laws in the room and dispensation from Deputy or Grand Master having been procured and notice sent to members concerning such special meeting?

Answer.—Yes.

Dec. 15. Statement.—In a city having concurrent jurisdiction, it is desired to boost Odd Fellowship by having a monster class of candidates for the Initiatory Degree, the degree to be conferred at a joint meeting, by or under the auspices of one of the Lodges.

Question.—May a joint meeting of the Lodges in a city or town having concurrent jurisdiction be held within the limits of said concurrent jurisdiction for the purpose of conferring the Initiatory Degree previously legally elected to membership, and providing further that the charter, Bible, Question Book, etc., of each Lodge are present in the Lodge room at the joint meeting and that each Lodge is opened and closed at said meeting in due form?

Answer.—Yes.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge changed the answers of both decisions 9 and 15 of "yes" to "no."

Decisions 10, 12 and 23 were considered in secret session.

Dec. 10. Statement.—The question has been raised as to the intent and meaning of the following resolution adopted by the Sovereign Grand Lodge session of 1913:

“Resolved, That all candidates for degree in the Order shall be required to pass a satisfactory examination in the secret work and obligation of the preceding degree before being advanced to the next higher degree.”

Question 1.—Is it the intent of said resolution that the secret work and obligation of each of the several degrees shall be repeated verbatim by candidates for degrees in the Order?

Answer.—The candidate must be able to correctly repeat from memory the secret work and obligation of the degree taken before he can be advanced to the next degree.

Question 2.—Is it intended that said examination shall be conducted in open Lodge, and, if so, must the Lodge be open in the degree in which the candidate is being examined?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 3.—Shall the qualification of a candidate to be advanced be decided by the Noble Grand?

Answer.—By the Lodge by a majority vote.

Question 4.—To facilitate instruction in the secret work and obligation, would it be permissible for the Lodge to provide the candidate with a book, having therein the secret work and obligation only, in cipher, of the degree he is qualifying in?

Answer.—Yes, provided such “Cipher Books” were furnished by the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

Question 5.—What is to be done in reference to the Third Degree, no provision having been made in said resolution for an examination in said degree?

Answer.—Examine the candidate in the degree he has taken, then reopen in the Third Degree and vote on the question of his examination and let a record be made of it in the minutes of the meeting.

At the next session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge some definite action may be taken as to the manner of procedure in such cases, but until this is done I shall adhere to the rules above stated.

Dec. 12. Question.—When a brother visits a Subordinate Lodge in a Grand Jurisdiction outside of the one to which his subordinate belongs, for the second time or thereafter, having passed his examination on his first visit as per Ritual, what pass-word, if any, does he give at the outer door, if he works into the Lodge after it is opened, or what pass-word, if any, does he give the Warden, if he is present in the Lodge room when the Lodge is formally opened? If he does not give a pass-word (not having reference in this question, of course, to Third Degree word), what course is pursued?

Answer.—It is the right of a Lodge to examine a visiting brother every night he may present himself for admission, and he must be introduced by the Examining Committee, Busbee's Digest, Sec. 2201. After a visitor has once visited and been examined and introduced it is not again imperative and his examination and introduction may be dispensed with, provided the presiding officer finds the card of the visiting Brother in date. Busbee's Digest, Sec. 2202. If the visiting Brother gives any word it should be the A. T. P. W., but in such case the usual course is for the visitor to send his card to the Noble Grand, and if it is in date and he has before visited the Lodge the Noble Grand directs the Outside Guardian, if he is at the outer door, to admit him. If he is in the Lodge room he will direct the Warden to take up from the visitor the pass-word of the degree in which the Lodge is open.

Dec. 23. Statement.—The Sovereign Grand Lodge, at its 1913 session, adopted the following legislation:

"Resolved, That all candidates for degrees in the Order shall be required to pass a satisfactory examination in the secret work and obligation of the preceding degree before being advanced to the next higher degree."

Question.—How, where, and by whom shall this examination be made? Who shall be the judge as to the qualifications of the applicant?

Answer.—As the law providing for the examination makes no provision as to when or where it shall be made, then I know of no law covering the case. I would recommend that the Noble Grand, or some one appointed by him, conduct the examination in open Lodge, so that every member present can see for himself whether or not the candidate is properly qualified to pass on to the next degree, and thus be able to vote intelligently as to whether the examination was satisfactory or not.

In the absence of specific law, I recommend that the Lodge be the judge of the candidate for advancement, in order that there shall be no evasion of the law or favoritism shown. I also think such examination should be made in the degree which he has taken, and the Lodge specifically opened in that degree for that purpose. then retire the candidate, reopen in the Third Degree and take a vote and make a record of it. If the examination is not satisfactory, have him further taught the degree by a committee and come back at some future time for further examination. If the Lodge by a majority vote says the examination is satisfactory, then reopen the Lodge in the degree the Brother is an applicant for and confer it, or take it up at some subsequent meeting, if it is not convenient to do it that night.

Dec. 11. Statement.—Clause No. 40. If the attending physician advises that the nature of the illness is such that the attendance of a nurse is necessary, one shall be procured by the physician and said attendance shall be continued until terminated by the physician, the cost of said nursing to be paid for out of the Sick Nursing Fund, but in no case to exceed $1.50 per calendar day. If in the hospital, 75 cents per day to be paid to the brother.

Question 1.—Is the above By-Law legal, and should it be approved by the Committee on Laws of the Grand Lodge of Manitoba?

Answer.—Would not recommend its approval.

Question 2.—Is it not in direct conflict with Clause 159, Busbee's Digest?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 3.—Can any person hire a nurse for a sick Brother other than the Lodge or its Sick Visiting Committee, and have the cost of said nursing paid out of the Nurse Fund?

Answer.—No.

Question 4.—You will notice that the above By-Law gives the physician power to hire or discharge the nurse without consulting the Lodge and have the Lodge pay the nurse. Would this be legal?

Answer.—No.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge changed the said answer to read as follows:

Question 1.—Answer: No.

The answer to question 3 is amended so that it shall read: No, unless properly authorized.

The answers to questions 2 and 4 are approved.

Dec. 17. Question 1.—The 1914 term being the months of January to September, inclusive, do not Rebekah Lodge officers earn the honors of office by attending a majority of the regular meetings in that period of nine months?

Answer.—Yes.

Question 2.—May a Grand Lodge or Assembly, like its subordinates, have a public installation of its officers?

Answer.—I find no law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge authorizing Grand Bodies and Rebekah Assemblies to hold public installations. Busbee's Digest, Secs. 1424 to 1431, inclusive. The Book of Forms contains no ceremony for such installation, and until one is provided I shall hold Grand Bodies cannot have public installations.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge changed the answer to question 1 to read as follows: Yes, provided they have remained in service and in office therein to the end of the term, and that the answer to question 2 be approved.

Dec. 22. Statement.—Excelsior Encampment, No. 2, and J. R. Miller Encampment, No. 183, have been consolidated under the name and title of James R. Miller Encampment, No. 2, as provided by the laws of the Order in this Jurisdiction.

Question.—In issuing the charter for this consolidated body, what names should be recorded therein?

Answer.—This may depend somewhat upon your local law. If your local law does not cover this matter, then I would suggest you follow the rule in relation to the consolidation of Lodges under the immediate jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Busbee's Digest, Sec. 1784, states as follows:

"Two Subordinate Lodges under the immediate jurisdiction of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, surrendering their charters and obtaining a new charter, the original charter members of such Lodge cannot be placed upon the new charter as such original charter members. The proper names to be entered upon the new charter, as charter members, are the names of the members of the two Lodges uniting in such consolidated new Lodge."

Statement.—The Grand Encampment of this Jurisdiction has removed jurisdictional lines within the State and established concurrent jurisdiction (abolishing Transfer Certificate).

Question.—Can a Patriarch desiring to change his membership from one Encampment in the State to another in the State do so without having to pay a fee for changing membership?

Answer.—No.

The Sovereign Grand Lodge changed the answer so as to read as follows: In issuing charter for this consolidated body the names of all the members of former Encampment should be recorded in the charter.

Fifth report of P.G.M., M. P. Berry of No. 412.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

For several years it has been the custom of your Finance Committee to spend one day at each of "Our Homes," in order that we might become familiar with them and inform ourselves as to their needs and necessities. Your Committee always look forward to these visits with pleasure. Our annual visit this year to our Orphans' Home was made on October 14. The entire day was spent in auditing the accounts of the year, in visiting and inspecting the buildings, in attending the schools and observing the work of the teachers, in looking over the farm and the stock and in noting the general appearance and environment of our children, and as a result of such visit we desire to make to you the following report:

We found in the Home 187 children—101 boys and 86 girls. We also found that the application for the admission of 23 more had been approved and the children were expected daily. This will swell the number to 210. Of this number, 145 will be half orphans and 65 full orphans. This will fill our Home again almost to its capacity.

We found the receipts and expenditures of the Home for the past year to be as follows:

RECEIPTS.

Balance, per our last report:

Maintenance account, credit balance.....	$3,509.81
Building account, debit balance, charged to Main- tenance account	2,707.50

Balance in Maintenance account.....	$ 802.31
Grand Lodge appropriation.....	40,000.00
Interest on Endowment Fund.....	1,238.43
Collections	3,082.37
Donations	514.93
Farm products	2,338.81

	$ 47,976.85

DISBURSEMENTS.

We find vouchers properly drawn on Grand Treasurer amounting to	$ 43,806.78
--	--------------

Balance in hands of Grand Treasurer.....	$ 4,170.07
--	-------------

We found the books of the Home in good condition and its accounts correct. We congratulated the Board of Directors on having at the end of the year a respectable balance.

The general condition of the children was good. They were neatly dressed and bore the appearance of perfect health.

The stock on the farm is a fairly good quality and is in good condition. The buildings are well kept and the rooms occupied by the children are neat and clean and appear to be in a good sanitary condition. The children appear satisfied and contented. They seem to honor, respect and love Doctor and Mrs. Lucas as they would their own parents. The feeling between the children and our Superintendent and Matron is certainly cordial and tender, and this makes "Our Home" a real home. So far as we could judge, our teachers and those in charge of the children are faithful, kind and considerate and all have the love of the children. The Directors are liberal in supplying all the wants of the children, and their condition and surroundings are doubtless very much better than they ever enjoyed before or would enjoy today if their parents were living. Their condition and surroundings are far better than that of the average child today in the home of its own parents. They are really enjoying a home of luxury.

The coming year we will have over 200 children to care for. The doors of the Home were by this Grand Lodge thrown wide open to half orphans, and today 145 half orphans are there. All of these have one parent living, and our Order has in many cases relieved this parent of a large share of the duty that should fall upon it. And your Committee again submits to you for your careful consideration these questions: Should our Order pursue this policy? Can we afford to do it? Is it fair to the full orphans to do so? Will not the expense in the near future become a burden to us? These are serious and important questions and deserve our best thought and judgment. This Committee is but the servant of this Grand Lodge, and we stand ready to do your bidding, but it is our opinion that in admitting half orphans to our Home the Board of Directors should exercise the greatest care and caution. They should be governed by rigid rules and admit only those who are practically full orphans.

Respectfully submitted,

M. P. BERRY,
JAMES EWING DAVIS,

Sixth report, by Brother G. F. Koester of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

We made our annual visit to the Old Folks' Home on Thursday, October 15, 1914, for the purpose of auditing the accounts and inspecting the Home.

We found Brother P.G.M. E. R. Sayler and his good wife installed in the Home as Superintendent and Matron. We found the farm and home in good condition. The stock on the farm looked exceedingly well. We found a new range installed in the kitchen, which was sadly needed, as the old one had outlived its usefulness. A new dyuamo has also been installed for the purpose of furnishing the electric light necessary for the Home.

The Hospital building is in course of construction and when completed will furnish comfortable quarters for the ailing old folks.

The membership as enrolled at this time is 140, of which 37 are Sisters and 103 are Brothers. There were admitted during the year 28; withdrawn, 4, and loss by death, 25.

We have examined the books and vouchers and find the receipts and disbursements as follows:

We have examined and audited the bills for the Grand Secretary's contingent expenses of his office from May 1, 1914, to November 1, 1914, and found the same to be as follows:

May	$ 213.23
June	169.97
July	169.75
August	126.67
September	182.55
October	239.52

Total $1,101.69

The following Lodges are delinquent in their reports and capitation tax, due September 30, 1914:

Nos. 11, 36, 63, 66, 67, 72, 76, 87, 89, 103, 117, 133, 162, 169, 174, 177, 178, 198, 202, 207, 228, 245, 247, 265, 278, 280, 310, 321, 336, 366, 367, 381, 393, 399, 405, 414, 422, 437, 440, 444, 451, 464, 469, 473, 482, 484, 489, 505, 520, 530, 531, 536, 545, 578, 585, 586, 595, 599, 627, 635, 637, 663, 669, 681, 682, 683, 684, 687, 688, 693, 707, 710, 711, 721, 729, 733, 737, 741, 761, 764, 765, 773, 782, 784, 788, 804, 821, 833, 834, 836, 845, 881, 890, 891, 898, 900, 907, 920, 938, 940, 951, 957, 974, 989, 992, 1007, 1012, 1021.

The following Lodges are delinquent in their semi-annual report, due September 30, 1914:

Nos. 83, 254, 268, 270, 335, 449, 460, 540, 605, 618, 822, 895, 901, 971, 975, 995, 1002.

The following Lodges are short on their remittances for capitation tax, due September 30, 1914:

No. 643, $1.00; No. 1011, 50 cents.

The following Lodges have been consolidated:

Nos. 646 and 225, taking the name and number of 225.

The following Lodges, which were delinquent for capitation tax on May 1, 1914, are still delinquent:

Nos. 83, 228, 247, 278, 280, 399, 424, 437, 482, 520, 530, 669, 632, 633, 637, 764, 765, 784, 833, 836, 907, 951, 1021.

We find that the Grand Master and Grand Secretary have drawn certain warrants on the Grand Treasurer without designating the funds from which these warrants were payable. We recommend that the Grand Secretary secure rubber stamps for the different funds in the Grand Treasurer's hands, and that all warrants be stamped as to the fund from which the money is to be taken, so that the Grand Treasurer will know to which fund the various warrants are to be charged.

We find that on October 1, 1914, more than one hundred Lodges were delinquent in their reports and capitation tax. The Grand Lodge reports show that many of these Lodges are in splendid financial condition, and their delinquency is not due to their inability to pay, but rather to the gross negligence of some official. We recommend that the Grand Secretary furnish a list of the Lodges each year to the Grand Master, not later than the 10th of May and November, and that the Grand Master shall immediately communicate with the Deputies of those Lodges which are delinquent and ascertain the reason why the capitation tax has not been remitted to the Grand Secretary, and the Grand Master shall annually present a special report to the Grand Lodge as to the result of his work in these matters.

DOCUMENT NO. 9.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

NONPAREIL LODGE, NO. 331, I. O. O. F., CHICAGO, ILL.

Whereas, It has been the custom of our Grand Masters in the past to appoint Past Grands, who have not been selected as Representatives of their Lodge, to serve on Resolution Committees; and,

Whereas, We believe that all Committees on Resolutions should be selected from the Lodge Representatives, to enable them to perform the duties to which they have been assigned to by their Lodge; and,

Whereas, We do not feel that it is justice to the Representatives and their Lodges that Past Grands not acting Representatives should be appointed on these Grand Lodge Resolution Committees, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Master, when appointing Resolution Committees, confine these appointments to the elected lawful Representatives present, to obtain results most beneficial to our Order.

NONPAREIL LODGE, NO. 331, I. O. O. F., CHICAGO, ILL.

Whereas, The Representatives to the Grand Lodge at the present time number approximately one thousand, representing less than one hundred and ten thousand members in the jurisdiction of Illinois; and,

Whereas, The expenses of the Grand Lodge sessions could be materially reduced by decreasing the representation, and the savings could be applied for the general good of the Order; and,

Whereas, We believe that reducing our representation to one-third the number or less will not affect the legislative capacity of the Grand Lodge sessions; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Master appoint a committee of not less than five members, who shall subdivide the State Jurisdiction into districts, each district to be composed of not less than five hundred members, or not more than one thousand members; and, be it further

Resolved, That each district be represented by one Representative, said Representative to be elected by the members of his district.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Whereas, The Lodges of Illinois, are compelled to pay annually large amounts for fire insurance, and in most cases the rates charged for such insurance by the insurance companies are excessive and burdensome, in many cases being double the rates charged by the same companies upon public buildings,

Be It Resolved, by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, of the Independent Order of Od Fellows, That the Grand Master appoint a committee of such number as he shall deem best, to investigate and report upon the practicability of having organized, under the good offices of this Grand Lodge, a mutual insurance company, under the laws of the State of Illinois, whcih company, if organized, shall insure against loss by fire, property of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges, Encampments and Cantons in this state, it being understood that it shall in no case be compulsory for such bodies to insure with such proposed insurance company.

Bt it further Resolved, That our Representaties to the Sovereign Grand Lodge be instructed to prepare and introduce such legislation in the Sovereign Grand Lodge as will make it possible to carry out the provisions of this resolution.

To the Grand Master, Officers and Members of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F., Greeting:

At a meeting of the Three Links Lodge No. 812, I. O. O. F., on November Fourth, Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen, at Chicago, Illinois, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, We, the members of this Lodge, today through the Chief of Examiners and Instructors, Past Grand Brother H. M. Blood, have been presented with an engrossed Testimonial from the Grand Lodge, expressing its appreciation for the work performed by our

Degree Staff at the Grand Lodge session, at Springfield, Illinois, Nineteen Hundred and Thirteen, and

Whereas, Each Member of said Degree Staff also received an individual copy thereof, be it therefore

Resolved, That this Lodge greatly appreciates this recognition of its efforts to promote Odd Fellowship, through a higher standard of efficiency, in conferring of the degrees, and be it further

Resolved, That a committee consisting of the Noble Grand, the Representative to the Grand Lodge and the Recording Secretary, be instructed to forward these resolutions to the Grand Lodge, at its Session at Springfield, Illinois, November Seventeenth to the Nineteenth, Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

PETITION TO GRAND LODGE, I. O. O. F., OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

Your petitioner, America Lodge, No. 920, I. O. O. F., located at Sherman, Illinois, would respectfully represent that heretofore, to wit, on, etc., a complaint in writing was filed in said Lodge, charging Brother K. A. Flagg with attempting to defraud said Lodge, and written charges were thereafter filed in said Lodge by a duly authorized committee; that thereafter, on, to-wit, etc., a change of venue was granted to Springfield Lodge, No. 465, where said Brother Flagg was tried upon said charges and was acquitted; that thereafter an appeal was duly prayed, allowed and perfected to the Judiciary Committee, and a hearing was duly had before said Committee, resulting in a reversal of the verdict and judgment and an order and judgment duly entered by said Committee that Brother K. A. Flagg be suspended from membership in the Order for a period of six months; that thereafter an appeal was taken from said order and judgment of the Committee by Brother K. A. Flagg to the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., of the State of Illinois, which said appeal was heard before your honorable body at its last session, resulting in a reversal of the order and judgment of said Judiciary Committee, and a ruling to the effect that the said Brother K. A. Flagg was not guilty of the said charges.

Your petitioner further respectfully represents that it is and at all times has been desirous of appealing from the order and judgment of the Grand Lodge, heretofore duly entered in said cause, to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., but that it was informed that it was unnecessary to obtain formal permission to appeal from said order and judgment of the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., as appeals were granted as a matter of course and of right, and that therefore no formal consent was obtained by your petitioner at said session of the Grand Lodge at which said cause was heard and determined; that your petitioner is not now advised as to whether such consent of the Grand Lodge is necessary, but inasmuch as a misunderstanding has arisen as to whether or not such consent is, in fact, necessary to a further prosecution of said cause by appeal to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, your petitioner hereby respectfully prays that if it be held necessary to obtain such consent in order to further prosecute said cause, that such consent be now given, and that it be allowed to prosecute an appeal from the said decision of the Grand Lodge to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, in accordance with the rules, practice and law of the Order.

AMERICA LODGE, No. 920, I. O. O. F.,

By J. M. COOK, Noble Grand.

FRANK, JANNESSA, Secretary.

It was moved by Bro. F. B. Merrills, P.G.M., that the petition be immediately granted, which motion was carried.

DOCUMENT NO. 16.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Resolved, That Section 4 of Article X of the Grand Lodge Constitution be amended by striking out the words "twenty-five (25) years or more," in the third line of said section, and substituting therefor "five (5) years or more," so that said section, when amended, will read as follows:

"Section 4. Any Odd Fellow over fifty (50) years of age, who has been in continuous membership for five (5) years or more, and whose Subordinate Lodge shall surrender its charter, and who would under the Laws of the Grand Lodge be entitled to receive a Grand Lodge card, may petition the Grand Lodge to place his name on the Aged Odd Fellows' Register. Said petition shall be accompanied with a certificate from the Grand Secretary, setting forth the actual standing of the applicant at the time his Lodge surrendered its charter. Upon such petition being granted by this Grand Lodge, the Grand Secretary shall place the name of such petitioner upon the Aged Odd Fellows' Register."

P. C. ELSEY, Rep. No. 357.

Laid over under the rules for one year.

DOCUMENT NO. 17.

Resolved, That Section 6 of Article X, Grand Lodge Constitution, be amended by striking out the words, "An admission fee of five (5) dollars, and shall pay as dues the sum of five dollars and ten cents ($5.10) per year," and substitute therefor "An admission fee of one dollar ($1.00), and shall pay as dues the sum of six dollars ($6.00) per year," so that said section, when amended, shall read as follows:

"Section 6. Any Odd Fellow enrolled upon the Odd Fellows' Register may be admitted to membership in a Subordinate Lodge; he shall pay to the Grand Secretary, through the Lodge to which he has been admitted, an admission fee of one dollar ($1.00), and shall pay as dues the sum of six dollars ($6.00) per year. Said admission fee and dues shall be placed to the credit of the Aged Odd Fellows' fund."

P. C. ELSEY, Rep. No. 357.

DOCUMENT NO. 18.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Whereas, It is an established fact that it is an exceptional condition to find members of the Subordinate Lodges capable of playing the pianoforte; and,

Whereas, Many of the boys of our Orphanage show an inclination and capability to learn such an instrument; and,

Whereas, The girls of our Orphanage have the privilege of not only taking a course in pianoforte instruction, but also in other instrumental music; and,

Whereas, Such privileges should also be of benefit to the lads of the Orphanage and beneficial in general to the Order; therefore, be it

Resolved, That an optional course in pianoforte instruction be placed at the disposal of the boys of our Orphanage.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

I have been requested by Chicago Lodge No. 55, I. O. O. F., to protest to this Grand Lodge the action of the Grand Master, in granting to Englewood Hill No. 822, I. O. O. F., a new charter under the name of Greater Chicago Lodge No. 822, I. O. O. F.

Our reasons for this protest are, that previous to the change of name of Englewood Hill Lodge, in the three divisions of Chicago there were Lodges named Chicago, namely: West Side, Chicago Lodge No. 55, North Side, New Chicago Lodge No. 506, South Side, South Chicago Lodge No. 696.

We would therefore ask that this Grand Lodge command Greater Chicago Lodge No. 822, I. O. O. F., to select some name omitting the word Chicago, and that the Grand Secretary be instructed to issue a new charter to Lodge No. 822, under the new name, at no expense to that Lodge.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Whereas, It is the duty of every Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows to see that the bodies of its members who die are decently and properly buried; and

Whereas, We are bound by solemn obligation and which is one of the fundamental principles of Odd Fellowship, which each member is taught, that we bury the dead,

And as our Subordinate constitution makes no provision to meet the expense of the above mentioned duty, which it obligated itself to do, therefore be it

Resolved, That Sec. 10 of Art. X of the Subordinate constitution be changed to read, "funeral expense," instead of "funeral benefit," then the Lodges will be burying their dead.

COMMERCIAL LODGE NO. 165, I. O. O. F., CHICAGO, ILL.

Springfield, Ill., November 17, 1914.

I hope you will pardon me for taking up a few minutes of our valuable time in listening to the facts pertaining to the suit brought against my Lodge, Commercial No. 165, I. O. O. F., by the family of our late Brother Joseph Bloom, deceased, for funeral expenses and benefits. This case was brought against us because we refused to pay said benefits, as our late Brother Joseph Bloom was at the time of his death in arrears, and according to our By-Laws was not entitled to the same. On the complaint of the family of the late Brother, we referred the matter to Brother W. A. Hubbard, then Grand Master, and we were advised by him that our stand in this case was perfectly right. However, the family of the late Brother were not satisfied with the decision of Brother Hubbard and took the case to court and were fortunate enough to secure a decision in their favor. Now, dear Brothers, my Lodge has acted fully in accordance with our By Laws and decision of the Grand Master, and therefore I appeal to you in behalf of my Lodge to reimburse us for the amount of $173.00, which my Lodge expended in this case. All correspondence in this case is in the hands of the Grand Secretary and can be referred to if deemed necessary.

Hoping to receive your sincerest consideration in this matter,
I am, Fraternally yours,

JACOB TWERY.

When it is considered that the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge are held in the middle of the month of September, when the soft and balmy breezes are playing among the foliage of the trees, and the sun is balancing across the equator, throwing its mellow rays over all parts of the United States, it is strange that Representatives should want to ride cooped up in carriages and automobiles, almost secluded from the cheering throngs that line the streets.

And, further, every dollar of this money which is taken from the Sovereign Grand Lodge treasury comes indirectly from the pockets of the members of the Order, and thereby becomes a trust fund to be used exclusively for the payments of the legal and necessary obligations of the Order.

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, that we are opposed to taking money out of the Sovereign Grand Lodge treasury to pay for carriages and automobiles for the Representatives to ride in on paved streets at the great annual parade.

DOCUMENT NO. 27.A Bill to Create a Court of Appeals.

Amendment of Section 5, Article VI, of the Constitution of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois, and the adding of TEN new sections to said Article VI.

Be it enacted by the Grand Lodge that Section 5 of Article VI be and the same is hereby amended, and ten (10) new sections, numbered from 6 to 15 inclusive, be added.

Section 5 amended so as to read as follows:

Sec. 5. The Committee on Judiciary and Appeals shall hold four sessions annually, to-wit: Three at the office of the Grand Secretary, unless the committee is notified by the Grand Secretary that there is not any business to come before them; one beginning on the third Tuesday of February, one beginning on the third Tuesday of May, and one beginning on the third Tuesday of August; and the fourth session shall be held at the time and place of holding the Grand Lodge. The Grand Secretary shall be the clerk of said committee and shall keep an accurate record of all their transactions, and shall have the care, custody and control of all its records, papers, etc.

At each session of said committee, the member having the shortest term to serve shall act as chairman, and each of said committee shall be paid mileage at the rate of six (6) cents per mile, by the nearest route from his place of residence to the office of the Grand Secretary, or to the place of holding the session of the committee, as the case may be, for each of such sessions, and a per diem of three (3) dollars for each day actually occupied, to be paid upon the certificate of the Chairman of the Committee.

The said Committee shall reduce all their judgments and decisions to writing, and file the same with the Grand Secretary.

All processes, whether in the nature of summons, subpoenas, or otherwise, shall be under the seal of the Grand Lodge and the signature of the Grand Secretary. All appeals hereafter taken from the final judgment or action of any Subordinate Lodge shall be taken and referred to the said Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. And the decisions and judgments of said Committee shall, unless appealed within thirty (30) days to the Court of Appeals as provided in Sections 6 to 15, stand as the final judgment and decision of this Grand Lodge.

Sec. 6. A Court of Appeals is hereby created, to consist of three members to be appointed by the Grand Master within twenty (20) days after he is installed, said appointees to be members of the Order, of approved integrity, and versed in Odd Fellows' law; one of whom shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, and one for the term of three years; and thereafter, at each annual session the Grand Master, immediately after the installation of the Grand Officers, shall appoint one member of said Court.

Sec. 7. The said Court of Appeals shall organize by electing the one whose term expires at the end of the first year, presiding justice of said Court, and thereafter the member whose term expires at the end of the year shall act as such presiding justice.

Sec. 8. The Grand Secretary shall be the clerk of said Court and shall keep an accurate record of all their transactions and shall have the care, custody and control of all its records, papers, etc. The said Court of Appeals shall have appellate jurisdiction to hear and determine all cases which may be appealed from the decisions of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.

Writs of error to the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals may issue by said Court of Appeals in all cases where such process is recognized as proper and necessary to bring records of cases before such court for hearing.

Sec. 9 The said Court of Appeals shall hear and determine all cases properly appealed to them by regular procedure from the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals. They shall reduce their opinions to writing and file same with the clerk.

Sec. 10. The Judiciary and Appeals Committee, in all cases where their decision is appealed from, shall send a copy of their opinion, together with the records, papers and files, to the Court of Appeals for its use and consideration.

Sec. 11. Said Court shall hold three sessions annually, viz.: On the third Tuesday in April, the third Tuesday in July, and the third Tuesday in October in each year. Special sessions may be called by the presiding justice.

Sec. 12. The members of said Court of Appeals shall be paid mileage at the rate of six (6) cents per mile by the nearest traveled route from their respective places of residence to the office of the Grand Secretary or place of holding the session of said Court, as the case may be, for each of said sessions, and a per diem of three ($3.00) dollars for each day actually occupied, to be paid upon the certificate of the presiding justice of said Court.

Sec. 13. The duties of the clerk of said Court shall be similar to those required as Clerk of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee.

Sec. 14 The decision of said Court of Appeals shall be final in all cases, except such as may be appealed to the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

In case any such appeal is taken to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, the opinion of the Judiciary and Appeals Committee and the opinion of the said Court of Appeals shall be sent up with the records, papers, and files belonging to such case so appealed.

Sec. 15. The purport and intention of this act being that no case will be further considered by the Grand Lodge of this State after being passed upon by the said Court of Appeals.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Decatur, Illinois, November 16, 1914.

I offer the following resolution, in relation to balloting for candidates, which will read as follows:

After the Noble Grand has declared the ballot either favorable or unfavorable, as the case may be, he shall instruct the Warden to again replace the ballot on the altar, and he shall again rise, and shall ask "Does any Brother wish to inspect the ballot?" After the Brothers have been given an opportunity to inspect the ballot (verifying the statements made by the Noble Grand), the ballots shall be destroyed. It is to be understood that no Brother will disturb the ballot, but that the ballot box shall be under the supervision of the Warden.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Whereas, The decisions of our Order hold that where a member has neglected to pay his dues for such length of time as to be debarred by the rules of his own Lodge from drawing benefits while sick, that he cannot be permitted, while he continues sick to come in and pay his dues so as to entitle himself to benefits during that sickness; and,

Whereas, A lodge is not protected from the payment of death benefits where a member who is sick and in arrears and during that sickness pays his dues; and,

Whereas, The decisions of our Order have not been sustained by the court, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Committee on Legislation present such amendments to our Subordinate Lodge Constitution as will prevent members while sick, who are in arrears, from paying their benefits and thereby become beneficiary, and also prevent members who are sick and in arrears from paying their dues during that same sickness and enable their beneficiaries to draw death benefits.

Whereas, Article 3 of the By-Laws of the Odd Fellows Old Folks' home provides that in the case of the death of a member of the home, the burial of such member shall be in the control of the Board of Trustees, unless the Lodge or the relatives, etc., shall desire to take charge of the remains, and the Lodge enters into a contract with the Trustees of the Home at the time of the admittance of the member, agreeing to pay the rate specified by the rules of the Board of Trustees; and,

Whereas, The amount fixed by the rules of the Board of Trustees is different from the amount fixed by the By-Laws of the members' subordinate Lodge; and,

Whereas, There are questions constantly arising as to the amount which should be paid by the subordinate Lodge,

Therefore, be it resolved, That the Committee on Legislation shall report an amendment to the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, providing that subordinate Lodges shall pay as a funeral benefit where their members are residents of the Old Folks' Home, such an amount as shall be fixed by the Board of Trustees of the Old Folks' Home.

Whereas, It has not been definitely determined as to the power of a Grand Master to draw warrants upon certain funds for certain purposes and certain amounts; and,

Whereas, the funds of this Grand Lodge should be protected to the fullest extent.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Grand Master and Grand Secretary shall not draw any warrant on any fund in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) unless said money has been specifically appropriated by action of the Grand Lodge. The Grand Master and Grand Secretary can draw warrants on the special relief fund in amounts in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00), when the same shall have been approved by the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Treasurer, Grand Secretary and the Finance Committee of the Grand Lodge.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Printing would respectfully report as follows:

For printing the Grand Lodge Journal, the Officers' Reports, the Daily Journal, the report of the Proceedings of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, and the stationery and supplies needed by the various officers of the Grand Lodge, we received bids from Illinois State Register, Illinois State Journal, Phillips Bros., Edw. F. Hartmann Co., all of Springfield, Illinois. We solicited bids from other firms, but received none. The bids from the various firms were as follows:

Printing the Grand Lodge Journal:

Firm.	Price per page.	Allowance for pick-up.	Changes.
Register	$3.50	$0.50	$0.75
Journal	3.40	.55	1.00
Phillips Bros.	3.10	.60	.20
Edw. F. Hartmann Co.....	3.50	.55

Contract awarded Phillips Bros.

For printing the Daily Journal:

Firm.	Price per page.	Allowance for pick-up.	Changes.
Register	$3.50		$0.75
Journal	3.25		1.00
Phillips Bros.	3.15		.60
Edw. W. Haortmann Co.....	3.75		.75

Contract awarded Phillips Bros.

For printing the Grand Officers' Reports:

Firm.	Price per page.	Allowance for pick-up.	Changes.
Register	$2.20	$0.50	$0.75
Journal	2.25	.40	1.00
Phillips Bros.....	1.90	.60	.75
Edw. F. Hartmann Co.....	2.35	.45

Contract awarded Phillips Bros.

For printing the reports of the Committee on Judiciary and Appeals:

Firm.	Price per page.	Allowance for pick-up.	Changes.
Register	$2.00
Journal	2.25
Phillips Bros.....	1.95
Edw. F. Hartmann Co.....	2.35

Contract awarded Phillips Bros.

By taking the average of the bids for furnishing stationery and printing circulars and blanks required by the Grand Lodge, it was found that Phillips Bros. was the lowest, and the contract for stationery and supplies was awarded to that firm.

DOCUMENT NO. 36.

Whereas, In the Grand Treasurer's report on page 262 of the Officers' Reports is found a list of securities on hand November 1, 1914, which list contains twelve (12) notes secured by mortgage aggregating $46,650.00.

Whereas, In the report of the Endowment Trustees found on page 50 of the Officers' Reports, it is stated that said trustees have made two investments in notes secured by mortgages, one for $5,000.00 and the other for $3,000.00.

Whereas, there is no information given in either of said reports or elsewhere in the Grand Officers' Reports which will inform the Grand Lodge as to who is the legal holder of record in all said mortgage titles or as to whether the said several mortgagors had title in fee simple in the respective properties when said mortgages were made.

Whereas, There is no information given in either of said reports or elsewhere in the records of the Grand Officers which will inform the Grand Lodge with any degree of certainty as to what property is pledged to secure the several notes, or as to whether the interest has been paid up on said several notes, or is now in default;; or as to whether the taxes on said mortgaged property, both general and special, are paid or is now in default; or as to whether there is a sufficient margin between the amount of the indebtedness and the reasonable cash value of the property mortgaged to pay said indebtedness and interest together with taxes and costs of foreclosure, should a foreclosure become necessary; and as to whether the improvements on said property are sufficiently covered by insurance in which the policies contain clauses providing that loss, if any, shall be payable to the Grand Lodge as its interest may appear; or as to whether there are any mechanics' liens on their equities outstanding against said mortgaged property or any of it which will take priority over the notes held by the Grand Lodge.

Therefore, be it Resolved, That the Grand Treasurer of the Endowment Trustees be required to furnish a report in writing to the Grand Lodge at this session informing the Grand Lodge fully upon the following points:

First. Who is the legal holder of record of the mortgaged titles mentioned in both of said reports.

Second. A sufficient description of the real estate mortgaged to aid any Odd Fellow residing in the vicinity of the mortgaged property to identify said property.

Third. A statement showing whether the interest of each of said notes is paid up or is in default.

Fourth. A statement showing which of said notes, if any, are past due and showing the maturity of each of said notes as are not yet due.

Fifth. A statement showing whether taxes and special assessments and improvements levied against said property are paid or are in any respect now in default.

Sixth. A statement showing whether there are any outstanding equities of any description against any of said mortgaged properties which will take priority over the notes held by the Grand Lodge or any of them.

Seventh. Whether each or any of said mortgages are accompanied by an abstract or certificate of title made by a reputable and responsible abstractor or titled officer.

Elighth. The name of the person or persons who has the manual possession of each of said notes, mortgages, abstracts, or other title papers pertaining to each of said loans.

Be it further Resolved, That hereafter when loans shall be made by the Endowment Fund Trustees such rules and regulations shall be observed in the making of loans as will enable the Trustees to furnish full and definite information to the Grand Lodge respecting such loans as is hereinabove called for.

And be it further Resolved, That if any of the said mortgage titles do not now stand in the name of the Grand Lodge as a matter of record in the respective counties where the respective properties are situated, that said Trustees be and are hereby directed to immediately take steps to procure an assignment of each and every said mortgaged titles and in the future when a loan is made, to take a mortgage in the name of the Grand Lodge or if the mortgage has previously been made to take an assignment of said mortgage to the Grand Lodge.

DOCUMENT NO. 38.

WHEREAS, The Odd Fellows' Oak Ridge Memorial Association, composed of a number of Subordinate and Rebekah Lodges in Chicago, are engaged in the laudable undertaking of erecting a monument to Odd Fellowship in Oak Ridge Cemetery, near that city; and

WHEREAS, The contract for the erection of such monument has been let, and the work thereon has progressed to such an extent that the foundation is built and the corner-stone already laid, and the monument to be completed by June 15th, 1915; and

WHEREAS, The said monument is to cost about Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), of which amount Seven Hundred Dollars ($700.00) has been paid, and the Association has in cash and pledges about Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) toward the balance required; and

WHEREAS, Some of the Lodges, members of the Association, are not in a financial condition to permit of further contributions; and

WHEREAS, The contractors have undertaken this work without any further security for their investment than their confidence in the good faith of the Order; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Grand Lodge of Illinois, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, fully recognizes the worth of this undertaking, and recommend it to all Lodges and individual Odd Fellows.

WHEREAS, There are many members of the Order who from time to time become out of employment; and

WHEREAS, Many of these members, while needing work, are too modest to report their condition to the Lodge, and ask for assistance in obtaining employment, forgetting that mutual assistance is one of the fundamental principles of our Order; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Order of Business of Subordinate Lodges be amended to provide for asking the question: "Does any Brother know of a Brother who is out of employment"? Said question to immediately precede the question, "Does any Brother know of a vacancy, where a Brother of the Order might obtain employment"?

DOCUMENT NO. 41.

First report of the Committee on Railroads.

Your Committee on Railroads would respectfully report that we have been unable to make any arrangements for reduced rate fares for this Session with any of the steam railroads of the State.

This matter was taken up and energetically pushed with both the Central and Passenger Associations, who stated that rates could not be granted on account of the law recently passed in this State fixing passenger rates at two cents per mile. That a full fare at the two cent rate enabled the passenger to travel at the same expense as a rate of one and one-third fares under the old three cent rate. Your committee, however, is pleased to report that several railroads who carry a large percentage of the representatives, voted in their respective associations.

Your committee would further report that the Illinois Traction System (McKinley Lines) have granted us a one and one-half fare rate, on the certificate plan. Your committee does not recommend the certificate plan, but was unable to obtain an open rate.

Respectfully submitted,

Second report of the Committee on Railroads.

Your Committee on Railroads would respectfully report as follows:

That arrangements have been made with the Illinois Central Railroad for a special train for Chicago, leaving Springfield at 7:00 o'clock P. M., on Thursday. This train will stop at Kankakee, Mat-teson, Harvey, Kensington, Grand Crossing, Sixty-third street, Forty-third street, Twelfth street, Van Buren street and Randolph street. Rate, Springfield to Chicago, $3.70. Agent will be in lobby to sell tickets at 2:00 o'clock P. M., Thursday, until close of session.

Third report of Committee on Railroads.

Your Committee on Railroads would respectfully report that arrangements have been made with the Chicago & Alton R. R. for the running of a special train, Springfield to Chicago. This train will leave Springfield after the close of the Grand Lodge Session, and will make the usual stops between Springfield and Chicago; no reduction in fare. The exact time of departure of this train will be announced later. A representative of the Railroad Company will be at the State House Thursday afternoon for the purpose of selling tickets.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, to whom was referred the petition of the Representative of Commercial Lodge No. 165, I. O. O. F., asking for a reimbursement of $173.00 on account of judgment rendered against it in favor of the family of Bro. Joseph Bloom, deceased, for funeral expenses and benefits, would most respectfully report that while we approve of the opinions given by Past Grand Masters, Wm. A. Hubbard and James Ewing Davis, as being in accordance with the laws of the Order, yet, in our judgment, the allowance of this claim by this Grand Body would be an illegal diversion of its funds and a very dangerous precedent to establish.

We therefore recommend that the prayer of the petition be not granted.

ANDREW CHRISTENSEN, Chairman.

Bro. A. Otis Arnold, of No. 12, having received the majority of the votes cast, was declared duly elected Grand Warden for the ensuing term.

Past Grand Master Sayler in the chair.

FOR GRAND TREASURER.

Bro. James Ewing Davis, P.G.M., of No. 450, nominated Bro. M. P. Berry, P.G.M., of No. 412.

Bro. Owen Scott, P.G.M., placed in nomination Bro. E. F. Verry of No. 152.

Bro. Everett L. Werts of No. 193, nominated Bro. W. M. Groves, P.G.M., of No. 123.

Bro. F. Lewis Starbuck, on behalf of Bro. E. F. Verry, withdrew his name as a candidate for Grand Treasurer.

The same tellers thereupon proceeded to collect the ballot.

The Grand Lodge proceeded to the consideration of reports of committees.

On motion, the first, second, third and fourth reports of the Committees on Finance appearing in the reports of the Grand Master, were considered and adopted.

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the consideration of unfinished business.

The following amendment to the Constitution of the Grand Lodge, Art. VI, Sec. 10, laid over from last session as follows:

Art. VI, Sec. 10. The Committee on Mileage and Per Diem shall report the number of miles necessarily traveled by the shortest traveled route by each Grand Officer and Representative and member of the various Grand Lodge committees, the number of days' attendance of same, and the amount due to each. The committee shall make its estimate by allowing five cents mileage one way and three dollars per diem.

On motion was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Representatives present.

On motion of Past Grand Master Merrills, the amendment was ordered to apply to the mileage and per diem of officers and Representatives of the present session.

During a recess of the Grand Lodge a large number of the children from the Home at Lincoln, accompanied by the Superintendent, Matron and Teachers, were introduced by the Grand Master amid great enthusiasm.

The Orphans' Home band delighted the Grand Lodge with many selections.

Dr. Lucas presented Grand Master Darnall, as a personal gift, a gavel made by the boys of the Home in the manual training department.

Bro. J. W. Yantis, P.G.M., moved that this Grand Lodge adjourn until 3:00 o'clock P. M.

Bro. James Ewing Davis, P.G.M., raised the point of order that the motion is not in order while the tellers are counting the ballots.

The Grand Master declared the point of order of Bro. Davis not well taken.

Past Grand Master Davis appealed from the decision of the chair.

After discussion the appeal was withdrawn.

Thereupon the Grand Master declared Bro. M. P. Berry, P.G.M., duly elected Grand Treasurer for the ensuing term

The Grand Lodge then proceeded to the consideration of pending amendments to the Grand Lodge Constitution.

On motion the amendment, Art. IV, Sec. 20, appearing in the Grand Lodge Journal of 1913, as Document No. 45, as to manner of election of Grand Officers was indefinitely postponed.

On motion the proposed amendment appearing in same Journal as Document No. 18, in relation to changing the votes as to holding sessions of the Grand Lodge at other places than Springfield, was voted upon and lost.

Thereupon the Grand Lodge adjourned until 3:00 o'clock this Wednesday afternoon.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, 3 O'CLOCK.

The Grand Lodge met pursuant to adjournment, Warren C. Darnall in the chair.

Present: Grand Officers as at the morning session, and a quorum of Representatives.

The Grand Marshal, with his Assistants, having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Grand Lodge was then declared regularly opened for the transaction of business.

The Grand Lodge proceeded to the election of
GRAND REPRESENTATIVE
Two Years.

Bro. J. H. Steiner of No. 12 nominated Bro. Warren C. Darnall.

There being but one nomination, P.G.M. Howard moved that the Grand Secretary be instructed to cast the entire vote of the Grand Lodge for Bro. Warren C. Darnall, for Grand Representative.

The motion was carried and the Grand Secretary cast the unanimous ballot and Bro. Warren C. Darnall was declared elected Grand Representative for the ensuing two years.

GRAND REPRESENTATIVE.

One Year.

Bro. Owen Scott, P.G.M., nominated Bro. John E. Jennings, P.G.M., of No. 158, for Grand Representative for one year.

Bro. John W. Yantis, P.G.M., of No. 117, nominated Bro. Henry A. Stone, P.G.M., of No. 122.

The same Tellers were directed to take up ballots.

Pending which the Grand Lodge proceeded to the consideration of the proposed amendment to the By-laws of the Grand Lodge, appearing as "Document No. 46" in Journal of 1913.

It was moved that the amendment be laid on the table. Motion was carried.

On motion, the resolution that Committees appointed by the Grand Lodge shall consist only of Representatives, laid over from the last session and purporting to be an amendment to the Constitution, was laid on the table.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Springfield, Ill., November 18, 1914.

I submit the following amendment to Section 1034, Article II, Subordinate Lodge Constitution, so that when amended it shall read as follows:

When the report of the Investigating Committee has been submitted to the Lodge, the ballot shall be held as required by law, after which the box shall be passed by the Warden to the Vice Grand, who shall examine the ballot and inform the Noble Grand whether the ballot is favorable or unfavorable; the Warden shall then pass the box to the Noble Grand, who shall inspect the ballot and announce the result. After the Noble Grand has declared the candidate elected or rejected, as the case may be, he shall instruct the Warden to again replace the ballot on the altar and shall rise and ask, "Does any Brother wish to inspect the ballot?" After the Brothers have been given an opportunity to inspect the ballot they shall resume their seats and shall not discuss the contents of the ballot. It is understood that no member can handle the ballot, as the ballot box is directly under the supervision of the Warden. If not more than two black balls appear, the candidate shall be elected; but if three or more appear, he shall be rejected. A favorable ballot shall entitle the applicant to receive any degree or degrees of the Subordinate Lodge not previously attained, without further ballot, unless written objection by at least two members of the Lodge, shall be filed with the Noble Grand prior to the conferring of the same; in which case the Noble Grand shall announce the fact to the Lodge, together with the reasons so given; whereupon the Brother against whom such objection shall have been made, after having received due notice of such objection and the reasons given, shall, if he so desires, have a hearing upon such objection, and receiving such notice of said objection and reasons, notify his Lodge in writing of his wish to have such hearing; which hearing shall be had upon such objection and reasons in the same manner, and with like effect, as is by law provided for the trial of an accused Brother; and if the majority of the members of said Lodge present at such hearing shall, by vote by ballot, determine that the Brother is entitled to receive any degree or degrees of the Subordinate Lodge, then such degree or degrees shall be conferred upon the Brother.

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows in reference to Document No. 6, being a resolution offered by Brothers James G. McCoy, T. W. Rosengren and W. E. Lewis:

This resolution asks for the appointment of a Committee to subdivide the State into districts for the election of Representatives to this Grand Lodge, with the object of reducing the representation of Subordinate Lodges in this Grand Lodge.

Inasmuch as this proposed legislation is in conflict with Section One (1) of Article Three (3) of the present Constitution of this Grand Lodge, which provides that the membership of this Grand Lodge shall be composed of one Representative from each of the Lodges of the State, and all other Past Grands in good standing of Lodges of this Jurisdiction.

Said Resolution is not presented in the form required by Section One (1) of Article Twelve (12) of the Constitution of this Grand Lodge relating to amendments. It is therefore considered by this Committee that said Resolution be not concurred in, and hence be dismissed without further consideration. Signed by the Committee:

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

On Friday, November 6, 1914, we made our semi-annual visit to the Grand Treasurer's office, which, owing to the death of Brother Needles, was at the office of E. F. Verry, the newly appointed Treasurer, at Armington, Illinois.

We found no books to check, none having been furnished him at the time of his appointment. We checked up his statement as furnished us, with the balances in various funds as per our report of June 12, 1914, of Grand Treasurer's books, and the receipts by him of moneys from the Grand Secretary and other sources since said date, and the disbursements made by him, as per vouchers on file, drawn by the Grand Secretary, countersigned by the Grand Master.

We recommend that all these cancelled vouchers paid by the Grand Treasurer be filed with the Grand Secretary for future reference.

We give herewith a summary of cash and securities in his possession at this time and the various accounts to which same belong:

We find certain disbursements made which should have been charged to other accounts than those indicated on voucher, and therefore recommend certain cross entries, as follows:

June 15, 1914, J. B. Goodwin, for Peace Monument Fund, voucher No. 18.180, for $300.50, charged to General Fund; same should be charged to Peace Monument Fund and credited to General Fund.

Chester M. Turner, for examination of records for Endowment Loans, voucher 17.873, for $15.00, charged to General Fund; same should be charged one-half to each of Endowment Funds, and General Fund credited.

We also recommend the closing of Orphans' Home Building Tax Fund by transferring the credit balance of $65.90 to the Orphans' Home Fund.

We also recommend the opening of an account for the Grand Secretary's office building at Springfield, to which should be charged all vouchers thus far paid out on same and to which should be credited the donation of the Springfield Commercial Association, and also the Grand Lodge appropriation as made for same. There were also sundry items paid account of said building, such as survey, abstract, etc., paid out and charged to Secretary's office expenses, which should be transferred to this account. Ninth report, by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance herewith present a supplemental report as to the Grand Treasurer, as follows:

The Grand Treasurer exhibited to us this, the 17th day of November, 1914, the following evidences of cash held by him, belonging to the Grand Lodge, to-wit:

Draft No.. 66510, dated Nov. 12, 1914, payable to the order of E. F. Verry, Grand Treasurer, I. O. O. F., for $12,500.00 on the First National Bank, Chicago, Ill., or the Peoples Bank, Atlanta, Illinois, certified by the Peoples Bank at Atlanta, Illinois, C. H. Turner, Cashier. This draft was drawn by E. F. Verry.

Certificate of deposit No. 8278, dated Nov. 12, 1914, certifying that E. F. Verry has deposited in the Bank of E. F. Verry, Armington, Illinois, $6,666.98, payable to the order of E. F. Verry, Grand Treasurer of the I. O. O. F., on surrender of certificate. Signed, E. F. Verry.

Draft No. 4477, dated Nov. 11, 1914, order E. F. Verry, Grand Treasurer, I. O. O. F. of Illinois, for $10,000.00 on Central National Bank, Peoria, Illinois, certified Nov. 11, 1914, by A. H. Addison, Cashier; drawn by E. F. Verry .

Draft No. 66509, dated Nov. 12, 1914, order of E. F. Verry, Grand Treasurer, I. O. O. F., for $30,000.00 on First National Bank, Chicago, Illinois, on the Peoples Bank, Atlanta, Illinois, certified Nov. 12, 1914, by the Peoples Bank, Atlanta, Illinois, by C. H. Turner, Cashier. Draft drawn by E. F. Verry.

The aggregate amount is $59,166.98.

We recommend that the Grand Treasurer, Bro. E. F. Verry, be allowed the sum of $50.00 for his services as Grand Treasurer, to fill unexpired term of Grand Treasurer Needles, deceased.

Your Committee further report that it is necessary for the Grand Treasurer to disburse the funds for mileage and per diem to the members of this Grand Lodge, the exact amount of which is not at this time known, we would, therefore, recommend that a voucher be drawn on the Grand Treasurer in the sum of $12,500.00 for the purpose of paying the Mileage and Per Diem Committee, the surplus, if any, to be turned back to the Treasurer of the Grand Lodge, and the shortage, if any, to be made up by an additional voucher on the Grand Treasurer.

Fraternally submitted,

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Report adopted.

The Grand Master made the following appointments of Committees to fill vacancies:

Bro. W. F. Sutherland, of No. 8, on the Committee on Legislation.

Bro. David J. Dumser, of No. 4, on the Committee on Mileage and Per Diem.

The hour for the Special Order of Memorial Services arrived. Bro. John J. Brown, P.G.M., assumed the chair and Bro. Melvin P. Berry read and introduced the following

MEMORIAL ON THE DEATH OF BRO. WILLIAM RODGERS HUMPHREY.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

WILLIAM RODGERS HUMPHREY, P.G.M. & P.G.R.

IN MEMORIAM.

"The dead are like the stars by day
Withdrawn from mortal eye
But not extinct, they hold their way
In glory through the sky."

William Rodgers Humphrey was born in Huntsville, Alabama, July 31, 1861, and died at his home in Chicago, January 18, 1914. His father was killed in battle when he was two years old, and he was but nine years old when the death of his mother left him a full orphan. Homeless and penniless, he put on his armor and went out to fight the battles of life alone, and many were the victories he won. His first work was on the farm, then in the school room as a teacher. In 1885 he graduated from the University of Ohio and for a few years was principal of the high schools of Covington, Indiana and Monticello, Illinois. In 1891-2 he edited the Piatt County Republican. In 1894 Brother Humphrey went to Chicago to live. For a time he was the Chicago representative of the Odd Fellows Herald. Soon afterward he established the Illinois Odd Fellow and for several years was its editor. In Chicago he became a real estate broker and was soon identified with the interests of that great city. He was a member of the Chicago real estate board and later became Industrial Commissioner of the Chicago Association of Commerce, a very important and responsible position. Socially, he belonged to The Southern Club, The Traffic Club, The Writers' Guild and The Press Club of Chicago, serving one term as its vice president. His religious affiliation was with the Methodist church. On July 31, 1888, Brother Humphrey was married to Nellie Jackson Espy of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. As a result of this union two children were born, both sons. One died in infancy. Herbert Kay, with his mother survives him. "Kay" is now instructor in engineering in the Rice Institute, Houston, Texas, and has a very bright future before him.

Brother Humphrey became an Odd Fellow in 1887 at Monticello, Illinois, but afterwards transferred his membership to Cook County Lodge and Chicago Encampment. He soon became a member of the Grand Lodge, where his superior qualities of mind and heart were soon discovered. He served for five years as director of the Orphans' Home. He organized the Cook County Picnic and Anniversary organization, and more than any other one man he is entitled to the credit of our present Endowment funds of the two Homes. Brother Humphrey was elected Grand Master of Illinois in 1905, and during his term of office gained the good will and respect of the entire Brotherhood. At the time of his death he was chairman of the committee to invest the Endowment funds of "The Homes." What a marvelous record of busy useful life, the crown of which was Death.

The funeral services were conducted by his own Lodge. At the grave Past Grand Sire, E. S. Conway, among other things, said: "I have known Brother Humphrey well for twenty-two years, and I never knew a man that was more willing at all times to sacrifice himself and his comfort for the good and happiness of others." In these words may be found the key to his life. By nature and by education Brother Humphrey was a gentleman. His motives, his thoughts, his words, his life, were clean and pure. He was honest and earnest in purpose, sincere and firm as the adamant rock in his convictions. He was warm-hearted and generous, his sympathies were prompt and tender, his friendship true as steel. He was a firm believer in the principles of Odd Fellowship, and these principles were the great motive power in his life. They moved him to generous thinking, to kind words and fraternal deeds. He loved our "Homes," and the building up of a large endowment fund to insure their perpetuation was the dream of his life. He was a sincere man, he hated sham and never indulged in flattery. He was a fine specimen of a true man, an ideal Odd Fellow.

Good men are a blessing to the world while they live, and an influence for good after they depart. Death is the crown of life. Were there no death man's life would be a failure.

It is difficult for us to understand why Brother Humphrey was taken from us in the midst of his vigor, his enthusiasm and his devotion to the welfare of humanity but it is not ours to murmur. Let us bow in submission to the will of Him who "doeth all things well," and thank God that he gave Brother Humphrey to the world a few years and that we were permitted to know and love him. With bowed heads and sad hearts let us stand and express in silence our love and appreciation for the life and character of our departed brother and our approval and endorsement of this memorial.

Bro. Berry preceded the reading of the Memorial by fitting remarks on the life and death of the departed brother. After which, in further memory of Bro. Humphrey, the members of the Grand Lodge arose and silently remained standing for full five minutes.

Thereupon, Bro. F. B. Merrills, P.G.M., arose and spoke on the life and character of the late THOMAS B. NEEDLES, P.G.M. and P.G.R.

(The Grand Master announced that Bro. Cicero J. Lindley, P.G.M., had prepared a memorial concerning the death of Bro. Needles, but was obliged to leave the city, and requested its presentation.)

The request was granted.

After returning to his home, Bro. Lindley wrote that the article written by Grand Secretary John H. Sikes and published in the Odd Fellows Herald of July 1, 1914, was so complete that he submitted it as a Memorial to Bro. Needles instead of his own. It is as follows:

THOMAS BERRY NEEDLES, P.G.M.

In the death of Brother Thomas B. Needles, our Order has lost one of its most highly esteemed, honored, respected and beloved members. He was devoted to his family and lived in the hearts of his fellow men; he has left a rich inheritance of good and generous deeds that emanated from a true and noble character, which will live on, and on; and his memory will be revered by the members of our Order, while the excellent service rendered to our fraternity during his life will become a part of the annals of our history, and will be read by generations yet unborn.

When such a life goes out, the community is able only in a measure to calculate its loss. Brother Needles was courteous, obliging, pleasant to meet, wise in counsel and kind to the unfortunate. Quick to respond to any call of need, possessed with the ability to see beneath the surface of things. Many men today feel a deep sense of loss because he has gone.

Thomas B. Needles was born at Waterloo, Monroe County, Illinois, April 26, 1835. He was the son of James B. and Lumima Talbert Needles. His father was born at Baltimore, of Quaker parentage, and came to Illinois in 1820. He was married at the opening of the civil war in 1860 to Sarah L. Bliss, who died in 1905. To this union were born two daughters, Jessie Needles Genung, who died in 1902, and Winnie Needles Krughoff, who, with one granddaughter, survives him.

He was liberally educated insofar as common schools were able to advance him, after which he spent two years at a seminary in Mt. Sterling, Illinois. When he finished his training he joined his father in the mercantile business and continued with him until 1860, when he established a business on his own responsibility at Nashville, Illinois, which place continued to be his permanent residence up to the time of his death. The following year he became active in the political life of Nashville, and was elected County Clerk of Washington County, filled the office by successive elections for sixteen years, being the first Republican to fill that office in the county. In 1876 he was elected State Auditor of Illinois. One political honor followed another, and in 1880 he was elected to the upper house of the General Assembly, and while a member of that body was chairman of the Committee on Revenue. In 1889 he was appointed by President Harrison, United States Marshal of the Indian Territory, and it was during his term of office that the Indian Territory was opened up for settlement. In 1894 Brother Needles was elected to the lower house of the General Assembly and was made chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and in 1896 was returned by the Republicans of his district as his own successor to work at the head of the same committee. In 1899 he was appointed by President McKinley, member of the Dawes Commission to treat with the five civilized tribes of Indians, the work of which commission is written as history of the government; he served during the entire life of the commission. In 1872 he assisted in the organization of the Washington County Bank of Nashville, which was later reorganized as the First National Bank, both of which institutions he served as president, which office he filled at the time of his death.

Believing that he could be of service to the world in more ways than one, he identified himself with the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, becoming a member of Richview Lodge No. 80 in 1863. He afterwards, in 1864, moved his membership to Nashville Lodge No. 37, in which lodge he has held continuous membership ever since. He served in the different stations of his lodge, and was elected representative to the Grand Lodge, serving during the years 1863, 1864 and 1867-8. At the session of the Grand Lodge of 1868, held in the city of Alton, Brother Needles was elected Grand Warden on second ballot, receiving 141 votes of the 239 cast, there being six candidates in the field. At the session of 1870 he was advanced to the exalted position of Grand Master. Brother Needles conducted the affairs of his office during that year in a splendid manner, and presided over the session of 1871, held in the city of Ottawa, with dignity and honor.

For his faithful service as Grand Master, the Grand Lodge elected him Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge (or, to the Grand Lodge of the United States, as it was called in those days), in 1873, for a term of two years. His able and efficient service in the Grand Lodge resulted in his election as Grand Treasurer in 1883, which office he held up to the present time. No one more competent, faithful, no one more honest could have been chosen for this responsible position. In all the years he has been Grand Treasurer, not one single penny has gone wrong, every dollar has been accounted for, and each account has been correctly kept. Aside from being an Odd Fellow for the past 51 years, Brother Needles was a Royal Arch Mason, and a much respected member of that fraternity.

Aside from the responsible duties while acting as Grand Master in 1870-71, and during his long term of 31 years as Grand Treasurer, Brother Needles has been called upon many times to fill positions on responsible committees in order that the best interest of the Grand Lodge might be subserved.

We might mention here, that in 1878 Grand Master John Lake appointed him Chairman of the Committee on Appeals, which position he held until the close of 1880.

The death of the Grand Secretary of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, James L. Ridgely, occurred in 1881, whereupon, at the session of our Grand Lodge of that year, Brother Needles was appointed by Grand Master James S. Ticknor as one of the committee of nine prominent Odd Fellows of the Grand Lodge to prepare suitable resolutions on the death of our estimable Grand Secretary, which resolutions were ordered engrossed and forwarded to the widow of our deceased Brother, and which were also made a part of our record of that year.

In the year of 1891 our Grand Lodge was worked up over the acceptance of the Orphans' Home, and to be safe in its acceptance Grand Master M. W. Schaefer appointed Brother Needles as one of the committee of seven to pass upon the legal status, the report was made to the Grand Lodge in 1892 and accepted, whereupon Grand Master E. S. Conway appointed him as a member of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home for one year.

In 1893, Grand Master Henry A. Stone appointed Brother Needles to serve on the Orphans' Home Board for a term of five years. Brother Needles showed a generous disposition at all times for our two Homes and took an active interest in their management.

No one commanded more respect in our Grand Lodge than did Thomas B. Needles, his presence at our annual sessions gave confidence to the business of the body. He was the oldest Past Grand Master of the jurisdiction of Illinois. His long service in the Grand Lodge made him familiar with every detail.

No one can fully estimate the value of a life, our record is made up as we pass through, those who follow must say whether our influence is good or bad. The character and life of Brother Needles cannot be told in better words than those of Whittier, when he says:

"Formed on the good old plan,
A true and brave and downright honest man,
He blew no trumpets in the market place,
Nor in the church with hypocritic face
Supplied with cant the lack of Christian grace;
Loathing pretense, he did with cheerful will
What others talked of while their hands were still."

Bro. Owen Scott, P.G.M., Rep. Thomas Gillespie of No. 622, Rep. Lee W. Carpenter of No. 696, Bro. John E. Jennings, P.G.M., and Bro. Geo. W. Young of No. 392 addressed the Grand Lodge feelingly on the life and character of the departed Brother.

Thereupon members of the Grand Lodge arose and stood in silence in deference to the memory of the late Bro. Needles.

Rep. Waldo Ward of No. 39 then requested that due mention be made of the death of

The Grand Lodge thereupon proceeded to the consideration of reports of Committees, as follows:

1. First report of the Committee on Credentials, Document No. 1 was considered and adopted.
2. Second report of the Committee on Credentials, Document No. 2, was considered and adopted.
3. Third report of the Committee on Credentials, Document No. 3, was considered and adopted.
4. The report of the Committee on Analysis and Distribution, Document No. 5, was considered and adopted.
5. First report of the Committee on Printing, Document No. 34, was considered and adopted.
6. Fifth report of the Committee on Finance, Document No. 6, was considered and adopted.
7. Sixth report of the Committee on Finance, Document No. 7, was considered and adopted.
8. Seventh report of the Committee on Finance, Document No. 8, was considered and adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 79.

Springfield, Illinois, November 18, 1914.

Grand Master, Officers and Brothers of the Grand Lodge:

Your Committee on the Rebekah Degree have considered the recommendations of the President of the Rebekah State Assembly, referring to the enclosed amendments of the Rebekah Constitution, and find that the amendments are meritorious and in conformity with the law of the Rebekah Assembly and of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, and therefore recommend that they be adopted.

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

Which was adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 80.

The below has been passed by the adoption of the Assembly.

MARY P. MILLER, Secretary.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

I hereby recommend for the consideration of this Rebekah Assembly the following amendments to its Constitution:

First—Inasmuch as many new Lodges have no Past Noble Grand Sisters among their members, and are thus deprived of representation at our Assembly, I recommend that Section 8 of Article VI, which reads as follows:

Article VI—Elections.

"Sec. 8. This Lodge shall elect a delegate to the Rebekah State Assembly from among its duly qualified members, for the term of two years, at the first meeting in July, immediately after installation, notification being sent to the Assembly Secretary of said election on blanks prepared for that purpose; even numbered Lodges electing in even numbered years and odd numbered Lodges in odd numbered years," of the Illinois Constitution for Rebekah Lodges be amended to read:

Article VI—Elections.

"Sec. 8. This Lodge shall elect a delegate to the Rebekah State Assembly from among its Past Noble Grand Sisters for the term of two years, at the first meeting in July, immediately after installation, notification being sent to the Assembly Secretary of said election on blanks prepared for that purpose; even numbered Lodges electing in even numbered years and odd numbered Lodges in odd numbered years. If the Lodge has no Past Noble Grand Sister among its members, they may elect a Past Noble Grand Sister from another Lodge."

RECOMMENDATION NO. 2.

I find that our Constitution for Rebekah Lodges has not been corrected to date regarding the cost of reinstatement of members dropped for non-payment of dues and expelled members.

Article IX, Section 1, states that a member dropped for non-payment of dues may be reinstated by the payment of such fee as the By-Laws provide, not less than one year's dues. Article IX, Section 2, states that an expelled member shall not be reinstated without payment of the same fee that is required to initiate.

The law passed in 1907, as given in Article XI, Section 3, Reinstatement Fee:

"The fee for reinstatement shall be one year's dues in all cases."

I therefore recommend that Section 1 of Article IX, which reads as follows:

Article IX—Reinstatement—Dropped Members.

"Section 1. A member dropped for non-payment of dues from the membership in this Lodge may, upon the payment of such fees as the By-Laws shall provide, not less than one year's dues, be reinstated, upon application made in writing in the regular form, and shall be treated in all respects like a proposition for membership, as hereinbefore provided, except that a majority vote shall be necessary to elect. Such dropped member, if free from charges, may, upon payment of fees, take a dismissal certificate in the first instance or after being denied reinstatement,"

Article IX—Reinstatement—Dropped Members.

"Section 1. A member dropped for non-payment of dues from membership in this Lodge may, upon the payment of the fee of one year's dues, be reinstated upon application made in writing in the regular form, and shall be treated in all respects like a proposition for membership, as hereinbefore provided, except that a majority vote shall be necessary to elect. Such dropped member, if free from charges, may, upon payment of fee, take a dismissal certificate in the first instance or after being denied reinstatement."

RECOMMENDATION NO. 3.

I would also recommend that Section 2 of Article IX, which reads as follows:

Article IX—Reinstatement—Expelled Members.

"Sec. 2. A member expelled by this Lodge may apply in writing for reinstatement. The application shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall ascertain whether the applicant has made such reformation or apology as is appropriate, and shall report to the Lodge. After reception of this report the Lodge shall ballot on the application. If two-thirds of the members present shall vote in favor of reinstatement, the Secretary shall write to the Grand Master for permission to reinstate such member; and if it be granted, reinstatement shall thereby be accomplished. No expelled member shall be reinstated without the payment of the same fee that is required to initiate."
be revised to read:

Article IX—Reinstatement—Expelled Members.

"Sec. 2. A member expelled by this Lodge may apply in writing for reinstatement. The application shall be referred to a committee of three, who shall ascertain whether the applicant has made such reformation or apology as is appropriate, and shall report to the Lodge. After reception of this report the Lodge shall ballot on the application. If two-thirds of the members present shall vote in favor of reinstatement, the Secretary shall write to the Grand Master for permission to reinstate such member; and if it be granted, reinstatement shall thereby be accomplished. No expelled member shall be reinstated without the payment of a fee of one year's dues."

Which, on motion, was adopted by the Grand Lodge.

Eleventh report, by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

Concerning the bond of John H. Sikes, as Grand Secretary, we find the Grand Secretary's bond, dated November 18, A. D. 1914, is in due form for the amount of Thirty Thousand Dollars ($30,000.00.) The bond is signed by John H. Sikes, as principal, and Henry M. Merriam, J. F. Prather and B. R. Hieronymous, as sureties, and upon investigation we believe the sureties are amply good for the amount named in the bond. We therefore recommend that the bond of the Grand Secretary be approved and turned over to the proper custodian.

Thirteenth report, by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows:

Concerning the 22nd annual report of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home—the larger part of this report is covered by the report of this Committee on its visit to the Home, both reports being practically the same.

Concerning the request of the Directors for an appropriation of $2,500.00 with which to build a dairy barn, we beg leave to say that your Committee believes that under Article VIII, Section 5, of the Grand Lodge Constitution, which reads as follows: "There shall never be appropriated from such capitation tax for any one fiscal year a sum to exceed seventy-five (75) cents per capita tax for the Odd Fellows' Orphans' Home and the Odd Fellows' Old Folks' Home, for maintenance and all expenses of such Homes."

This Grand Lodge has no power to appropriate more than 75c capitation tax on our membership for the maintenance and other purposes of our two Homes. The sums already asked for by the two Homes will equal that amount, and we find ourselves unable, as we understand the law, to favor any further appropriations unless this law should be changed.

Respectfully submitted,

M. P. BERRY.

GEORGE F. KOESTER.

JAMES EWING DAVIS.

DOCUMENT NO. 85.

Fourteenth report, by Bro. M. P. Berry, of No. 412.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows: Concerning the report of the Trustees of the Old Folks' Home for the year ending September 30, 1914.

This report is largely covered by the report of this Committee on its visit to the Old Folks' Home. Many of the facts stated in each of said reports being substantially the same.

Concerning the request of the Directors of this Home for $3,500.00 with which to complete the Hospital building now under construction, we can only say that it will be necessary to appropriate the sum of $10,000.00 for this building, which was promised last year, adding to this the $3,500.00 asked for, would make $13,500.00. Your Committee understands from Article VIII, Section 5 of the Grand Lodge Constitution that "this Grand Lodge cannot appropriate in any one fiscal year for the maintenance and all expenses of our two Homes, a sum in excess of Seventy-five (75) cents per capita tax on our membership." Should this appropriation of $3,500.00 be allowed and added to the amounts needed for maintenance and support of the Homes, the aggregate would be far in excess of 75c per capita tax on our membership, and we submit the proposition to this Grand Lodge without recommendation.

Respectfully submitted,

M. P. BERRY.

JAMES EWING DAVIS.

GEORGE F. KOESTER.

Appropriation was made—see budget.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. Geo. F. Koester, of No. 601.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows: Regarding that part of the Grand Master's report on Pages 51 to 54, entitled "First report of Endowment Trustees," that they have gone over said report and find that there is an error in the amount of cash on hand and that the correct amount of total cash on hand should be $10,222.59. Your Committee have no means of ascertaining whether the individual items contributed are correct or not.

We find that the Trustees have made no report of six $1,000.00 Scott County Drainage Bonds which were purchased during the month of January, 1914, previous to Brother Humphrey's death. $2,000.00 worth of these bonds belong to the Orphans' Home Endowment Fund and $4,000.00 in the Old Folks' Endowment Fund. We have been assured by the Trustees that they will, or already have, presented to the Grand Lodge a supplemental report showing these items. We believe that the information contained in this detailed report is valuable—probably some degree of satisfaction should be derived by the individual donors.

A detailed statement of all securities in the Endowment Funds will be found in the eighth report of the Committee on Finance.

DOCUMENT NO. 87.

First report, by Bro. George F. Howard, P.G.M., of No. 664.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Special Committee on Dropped Members would respectfully report as follows:

That during the past year the present Grand Master, Warren C. Darnall, and the members of this Committee have striven to carry out the recommendations of this Committee, which were adopted by the Grand Lodge at the 1913 Session. But it is the same old story, that the people who will derive the greatest benefits from any proposed new legislation are those who generally, either by their indifference or opposition, defeat the good that is proposed to be accomplished. So it is with a majority of the Officers of our Subordinate Lodges, who have failed to support Grand Master Darnall in carrying out the proposed plan, made by the Committee, as will be seen by the members of this Grand Lodge if they will carefully read what Grand Master Darnall has reported upon this very important subject. It seems to the members of this Committee that every member of this Grand Lodge should especially be enthusiastic in doing any and everything that will be effective in solving the great problem that our Order, like our Sister Fraternal Organizations, are facing, viz., the great annual loss of active members from the non-payment of dues.

Grand Master Darnall, in his report to the Grand Lodge, has stated some plain facts, that our Order must, sooner or later, enact legislation to meet the same. Your Committee is very much in favor of the suggestion of the Grand Master as to the question of "once an Odd Fellow, always an Odd Fellow." Also the suggestion of the Grand Master as to having two distinct and separate classes of members, viz., "beneficial" and "non-beneficial." Other Orders are taking action upon this proposition, as one of the means to be adopted to prevent the great annual loss of members each year by non-payment of Lodge dues, which in some cases has nearly equalled the number of new members initiated.

Your Committee has gone into this subject at great length in its reports presented to the Grand Lodge in 1912 and 1913, which should receive the very careful consideration of every thoughtful member of our Order.

At the 1912 Session this Committee recommended the adoption of two proposed amendments to the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, so as to make the work of the Financial Secretary more effective, but owing to the rush of business at the last part of the Session of 1913, said proposed amendments were not brought before the Grand Lodge for action. We, therefore, request the Grand Lodge to take action upon the said proposed amendments at this Session.

Your Committee is of the opinion that this plan outlined by Past Grand Masters Davis and Jennings, and which was proposed to be carried out by the present Grand Master, should not be abandoned, but the same plan be carried out by the incoming Grand Master.

Second report, by Bro. F. D. P. Snelling, of No. 601.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Endowment Trustees would respectfully report as follows, as a supplement to our first report, that in December, 1913, we purchased the following described bonds:

OLD FOLKS' HOME ENDOWMENT FUND.

Bond No. 94—Scott county drainage and levee district; amount, $1,000.00; date, July 1, 1912; due July 1, 1925; bearing 6% interest.

Bond No. 97—Scott county drainage and levee district; amount, $1,000.00; date, July 1, 1912; due July 1, 1925; bearing 6% interest.

Bond No. 98—Scott county drainage and levee district; amount, $1,000.00; date, July 1, 1912; due July 1, 1925; bearing 6% interest.

Bond No. 103—Scott county drainage and levee district; amount, $1,000.00; date, July 1, 1912; due July 1, 1926; bearing 6% interest.

ORPHANS' HOME ENDOWMENT FUND.

Bond No. 101—Scott county drainage and levee district; amount, $1,000.00; date, July 1, 1912; due July 1, 1926; bearing 6% interest.

Bond No. 102—Scott county drainage and levee district; amount, $1,000.00; date, July 1, 1912; due July 1, 1926; bearing 6% interest.

The premium paid on these bonds reduces the interest to 5½% net per annum.

DOCUMENT NO. 90.

Whereas, The Grand Jurisdiction of Illinois have erected many beautiful buildings upon grounds owned by them in the City of Lincoln, Illinois, for the purpose of caring for the children and for their custody and education; and

Whereas, The purpose of this Institution is to give to the young who have been bereft of their parents, the best advantages in life; and

Whereas, Every Odd Fellow in the Grand Jurisdiction of Illinois desires not only that the Institution may be managed economically and humanely but that the children who have been given into their care, shall receive the highest education possible in said Institution, which shall prepare them for the duties and responsibilities of this life; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Judiciary Committee of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, or the Committee on Legislation, prepare a statute to be presented to the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois in 1915 at its regular session, which shall cover distinctly, precisely and legally the following:

First. That each child shall be received into said Institution in accordance with the rules and regulations laid down by the Board of Trustees, who have been duly appointed by the Grand Masters and their appointment approved by the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois.

Second. That each child shall be kept in said Institution for the term of one year and not longer than three years, and at the end of said term of years, the Superintendent, by and with the advice and consent of the Board of Trustees of said Institution, shall find a home for said child or children given into their care.

Third. That when any child has been placed by the said Superintendent, by and with the consent of the said Board of Trustees, that it shall be the duty of the Superintendent of said Institution to visit said child twice each year, or said Superintendent may by and with the advice of the Board of Directors, select the Matron of said Institution to visit said child or children and that the person in whose home the child shall have been placed, shall report to the Superintendent of said Institution monthly concerning the health and general condition and progress of said child, which report shall be submitted to the Board of Directors at the regular or special meeting, and a record kept of the same.

Fourth.. That the said Board of Trustees shall have full power to direct the Superintendent when any child has been mistreated, who has been admitted into the Institution, or who has been thrown upon the charity of the world, to take said child back into the Institution and to care for it until another home has been secured for said child or children.

Fifth. It shall be the duty of the Board of Trustees to see that each and every child so placed in a home by them, shall receive a liberal education as well as being properly cared for during its stay with the person with whom it has been placed.

Sixth. That at the Expiration of the term for which said child has been placed, namely, 18 years for girls and 21 years for boys, that the person to whom said child has been given and in whose home it has been placed, which, when said girl arrives at the age of 18, pay to her the sum of $150.00 and to each boy who has been placed in the home of said person by said Board of Trustees, shall pay to said boy the sum of $150.00.

Seventh. That a record shall be kept showing the name, age, and full description of said child; also the name of the person with whom said child is given, and a general history of the character and ability of the individual in whose home the said child has been placed.

Eighth. That whenever said Board of Directors find a person who is willing, able and capable to take care of the child in said Institution and adopt the same, under the statutes of the State of Illinois, that the said Board of Directors shall have full power to take a release from the parents or parent of said children, or the guardian of said children, either by order of the court or otherwise, providing the same is legal, and that it shall be the duty of said Board of Directors to see that whenever said child or children are adopted into a family that every proper legal step be taken for the purpose of the protection of said child.

That the said Judiciary Committee or the Committee on Legislation, to whom this Document is referred by order of the Grand Lodge, shall prepare a statute in accordance with the above mentioned suggestions, submitting the same to the Grand Lodge of the Grand Jurisdiction, I. O. O. F., of Illinois, at its next Grand Lodge convention in the year 1915, and if the Grand Lodge so orders and directs, after the consideration of said law so presented by said Committee, that it be referred to the Subordinate Lodges of the State of Illinois to act upon, and that said Subordinate Lodges shall report their action to the Grand Secretary, and he to report the vote upon said proposition to the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois in the year 1916.

DOCUMENT NO. 91.

Rep. Willis Melville, of No. 693, offered the following resolution, and asked its immediate consideration:

Whereas, The people of the city of Springfield have decorated in national and emblematic colors, its streets, residences, and business houses in honor of the Odd Fellows of the State of Illinois in Grand Lodge Session, and have extended courteous treatment and many kindnesses to its membership; and,

Whereas, The Grand Secretary, John H. Sikes, the Odd Fellows, and Rebekahs of Springfield and vicinity, with the co-operation and help of the people of Springfield, have provided for and arranged a parade, portraying the purposes and principles of Odd Fellowship; and,

Whereas, The Grand Lodge and the entire Order of Odd Fellows of Illinois are greatly indebted to them for so doing; therefore, be it

Resolved, By this Grand Lodge, that a vote of thanks and appreciation be extended to the people of Springfield for their attention and kindnesses and courteous treatment of this Grand Lodge and the visiting Brothers and Sisters; and, be it further

Resolved, That a vote of thanks and appreciation be extended to Grand Secretary John H. Sikes, the Odd Fellows, and the Rebekahs of Springfield and vicinity for the arrangement and control of the parade that so beautifully portrayed the purposes and principles of our Order.

39. Eleventh report of the Committee on State of the Order Document No. 81 was adopted.

40. Tenth report of the Committee on Finance, Document No. 82, was considered and adopted.

41. Eleventh report of the Committee on Finance, was considered and adopted.

The Grand Lodge took a recess and there were escorted into the Lodge room, by the Superintendent and Matron of the Old Folks' Home, five members of the Home, all residents, being Past Noble Grands and members of the Assembly. They were given a most cordial greeting.

Following this came a committee to extend greetings of the Rebekah Assembly then in session in the First Christian church. These were Sisters Effie A. Glazier, Ellen O. Johnson, Past Presidents; Myrtle Tandy, President elect and Sister Depke.

The committee addressed the Grand Lodge returning the greetings of the Assembly. Bro. John J. Crowder, Grand Marshal, responded with the salutations of the Grand Lodge.

A very pleasant feature of this reception came in the introduction by the Grand Master of his daughter, Miss Camilla Darnall. She is not a Rebekah for the very excellent reason that, owing to her age, she is not eligible. Time, however, soon will make amends and she will be identified with the great Order of which her father is a distinguished exponent.

Reports of Committees were continued as follows:

42. Thirteenth report of the Committee on Finance, Document No. 84, was considered and adopted.

43. Fourteenth report of the Committee on Finance, Document No. 85, was considered. Bro. Howard, P.G.M., moved that the Finance Committee be authorized and instructed to bring in a report appropriating $3,500 for completion of the hospital.

44. Fifteenth report of the Committee on Finance, Document No. 86, was considered and adopted.

45. First report of the Committee on Dropped Members, Document No. 87, was considered and adopted.

46. Tenth report of the Committee on State of the Order, was considered and adopted.

47. Second report of the Endowment Trustees, Document No. 89, was considered and adopted.

On motion, the rules were suspended by a two-thirds vote and all resolutions and reports acted upon without further reference.

First report, by Committee on Home Libraries.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Home Libraries would respectfully report as follows:

There are a great number of the books that have been donated to the Home Libraries that are obsolete and are of no use to the old or young, but only cumber the rooms of the two Homes, and we would therefore recommend that the Superintendents of the Orphans' Home and the Old Folks' Home be authorized and instructed to select all such books and dispose of them to the best advantage and the proceeds be devoted to the subscriptions for desirable papers and magazines.

Respectfully submitted,

C. M. EAGLETON.

DOCUMENT NO. 98.

Sixteenth report, by Bro. O. H. Richards, of No. 53.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows: We have carefully examined Document No. 22, and do not concur in the same for the reason that it provided for an amendment to the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, and is not in proper form as provided by law for amendments to the Subordinate Lodge Constitution, in that it does not fully set forth the proposed amendment or alteration and how the whole section would read if amended or altered as proposed. Said document proposes to change funeral benefits to funeral expenses. We recommend that it be not adopted.

Fifteenth report, by Bro. F. B. Merrills, of No. 650.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Legislation would respectfully report as follows, with reference to the resolution offered by Bro. John W. Fling, Jr., of No. 244, providing for the appointment of a Special Committee of five to revise the Subordinate Lodge Constitution. We will say that the committee recommends that the resolution be not adopted.

FRED B. MERRILLS.

As Bro. Fling was permitted to withdraw his resolution, no further action remained to be taken.

Eighth report, by Bro. P. W. Bussard, of No. 124.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows on Document No. 20: We have examined the resolution offered by the Representatives of Chicago Lodge No. 55, New Chicago Lodge No. 506, and South Chicago Lodge No. 696, requesting this Grand Lodge to command the Greater Chicago Lodge No. 822 to select some name omitting the word "Chicago," and asking that the Grand Secretary issue a new charter to Lodge No. 822, under a new name, at no expense to that Lodge. This committee has considered the fact that the Grand Master has issued a charter to Lodge No. 822, giving it the name of the Greater Chicago Lodge. The committee finds no reason for compelling this Lodge to select some other name and accept a charter in some other name than the name given it by the Grand Master in the charter which was issued to it. We therefore recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

Respectfully submitted.

Ninth report, by Bro. A. B. Williamson, of No. 4.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on State of the Order would respectfully report as follows on Document No. 25:

We have examined the resolution of Bro. George W. Young, of No. 392, which contains a statement of expenses incurred by the Sovereign Grand Lodge for carriages and automobiles which have been used in parades for the years 1903 and subsequent thereto, and which contains a resolution to the effect that this Grand Lodge is opposed to taking money out of the Sovereign Grand Lodge treasury to pay for carriages and automobiles for the Representatives to ride in on such occasions. This committee is of the opinion that the Sovereign Grand Lodge ought to be the judge of its own actions and expenditures as it is of its place of meeting and its manner of conducting its business. This committee is of the opinion that the jurisdiction of Illinois has not a sufficient reason for criticizing the Sovereign Grand Lodge or for offering to advise the Sovereign Grand Lodge as to its manner of doing business and the expenditures of its own money.

We therefore recommend that this resolution be not adopted.

Your Committee on the Rebekah Degree with reference to the following resolution—Document No. 14:

Resolved, That the President of the Rebekah State Assembly be empowered to appoint the Deputies for the Subordinate Rebekah Lodges and issue communications promulgating the pass-word and grand dispensations for entertainments proposed to Rebekah Lodges.

Inasmuch as the said resolution would require the amendment

Your Committee on the Rebekah Degree with reference to the resolution which reads as follows:

"DOCUMENT NO. 21.

Be it Resolved, That the Representatives to the next sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge be requested to present a resolution, or an amendment to the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution advocating the rights of women to become members of the Subordinate Lodges, and that they may have their privileges as to the benefits which are accorded to the male members of the Order."

After careful and due consideration, we find that the resolution would require a revision to the Sovereign Grand Lodge Constitution and that it would be detrimental to Subordinate Lodges, and we therefore recommend that it be not adopted.

DOCUMENT NO. 104.

Final report, by Committee on Degree Staff.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Degree Work would respectfully report as follows: The undersigned, your committee, attended the meeting at the Armory on Wednesday evening and witnessed the exemplification of the Second Degree by Teutonia Lodge No. 166, Springfield, Ill., and the Third Degree by James R. Kewley Lodge No. 1022, Chicago, Ill. We feel that too much credit and praise cannot be given the Chief of Examiners and Instructors, H. M. Blood and the Degree Staff of the Lodges above named for the magnificent manner in which these degrees were conferred and the important lessons taught thereby. The attendance at this meeting was large, orderly and very attentive, remaining until the last charge had been given and the Lodge closed. The Second Degree was conferred upon a class of fourteen candidates by the Teutonia Lodge No. 166, of Springfield, Ill. Floor work was good, the giving of the secret work was practically perfect. Charges given in well modulated tones that could be distinctly heard in every part of the large Armory, and the degree was conferred in an impressive manner. Immediately following the conferring of this degree, the Third Degree was conferred upon fourteen candidates by the James R. Kewley Lodge No. 1022, of Chicago, Ill. We may say in passing, that this Lodge is but two years old.

This work was spectacular and dramatic. The staff showed special and splendid training. The conception of the teachings of this degree were evidently that of an Oriental Temple Service and impressed the beautiful lessons and teachings of this degree with unusual power and in a manner that could not be surpassed and hardly equalled. The secret work was faultless and the conferring of this degree was most impressive and instructive. We compliment the captains of both these staffs. The work of these degree staffs showed unmistakably the hard and arduous labors of the Chief Instructor and Examiner and the good results produced therefrom, and in our opinion justify the expense incident thereto. Rare judgment was used in the choice of these staffs to exemplify this work at the Grand Lodge.

We recommend that these two Lodges and the members of the staffs be presented with suitable testimonials as has been the custom in recent years.

Respectfully,

W. G. HOBBS,
A. B. CAPEL,
OSCAR H. WYLIE,
Committee.

On motion of Bro. Owen Scott, P.G.M., the report was amended by striking out all reference to creeds. As amended the report was adopted.

The Grand Lodge thereupon adjourned until 1:30 P. M.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON, 1:30 O'CLOCK.

The Grand Lodge met pursuant to adjournment, Grand Master Darnall in the chair.

Present—Grand Officers as at the morning session, and a quorum of Representatives.

{The Grand Marshal, with his assistants having examined the members present, reported all correct.

The Opening Ode was sung, and the Grand Chaplain offered prayer.

The Grand Lodge was then declared opened for the transaction of business.

Bro. Alex Van Praag, P.G.M., moved the adoption of Document No. 48, which on motion was laid on the table.

DOCUMENT NO. 105.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Grand Secretary's Office Building, would respectfully report as follows:

That we have had various meetings, and our report is substantially embodied in the Grand Secretary's Report under Grand Secretary's Office Building, on pages 220 to 226, both inclusive, of Grand Officers' Reports. We have no hesitancy in expressing the opinion that we have secured an excellent location and will have a beautiful building when completed. We would report that on account of securing such a splendid location, we were obliged to pay more for the lot than we anticipated, and in view of the fact that we will need additional money to complete the building, we ask for an additional appropriation of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500.00.) In order to take care of the payment of the said building, when completed, we would recommend that this Grand Lodge execute a note signed by the Grand Master and Grand Secretary, for the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), due and payable within one year without interest, same to be paid out of the appropriation which was made at the session of the Grand Lodge in November, 1913, and will be available after the next session of the Grand Lodge. The incoming Grand Treasurer, Brother M. P. Berry, has agreed with the Finance Committee that he is willing to carry this note without interest to the Grand Lodge.

Twelfth report, by Geo. F. Koester, of No. 601.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

The majority of the Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows on the bond of M. P. Berry, Grand Treasurer, which has been presented to this Committee for approval: We find the bond dated the 19th day of November. A. D. 1914, to be in due form and in the sum of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000.00). The bond is signed by M. P. Berry and Lilian B. Berry, Orville F. Berry, W. E. Lyon, Rezin W. Saer, James I. Hendricks, Cicero J. Lindly, J. W. Lane, J. J. Welch, M. W. Pennock, E. P. Cutler, J. T. Duffie, W. D. Egbers, J. W. Shepherd and Henry Rams.

E. O. Reaugh, clerk of the circuit court and ex-officio recorder of the county of Hancock and State of Illinois, certifies that the following sureties on this bond, namely, M. P. Berry, Lilian B. Berry, Orville F. Berry, Rezin W. Saer, James I. Hendricks, W. E. Lyon, M. W. Pennock, J. W. Lane, J. J. Welch, E. P. Cutler, J. T. Duffie, W. D. Egbers, J. W. Shepherd and Henry Rams, are good, sufficient and strong sureties for the amount of said bond, to-wit, $125,000.00.

We have examined the schedule of the individuals who signed this bond as sureties, and herewith present a list of said schedules as sworn to by the principal and the respective sureties:

M. P. Berry.....	$ 50,000.00
Lilian B. Berry.....	25,000.00
Orville F. Berry.....	75,000.00
Cicero J. Lindly.....	75,000.00
Rezin W. Saer.....	25,000.00
James I. Hendricks.....	20,000.00
W. E. Lyon.....	30,000.00
M. W. Pennock.....	75,000.00
J. W. Lane.....	100,000.00
J. J. Welch.....	30,000.00
E. P. Cutler.....	60,000.00
J. T. Duffie.....	25,000.00
W. D. Egbers.....	25,000.00
J. W. Shepherd.....	75,000.00
Henry Rams	50,000.00

These schedules show that the respective parties are worth at least the amount named in the schedules, and we are informed that the greater part of said parties are worth much more than the amounts stated in the various schedules. We believe the bond is in due form and that the sureties are ample for the amount, and recommend that the bond be approved and be turned over to the proper custodian.

Fraternally submitted,

Which was adopted. SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

DOCUMENT NO. 107.

Nineteenth report, by Bro. J. Ewing Davis, of No. 450.
To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

Your Committee on Finance would respectfully report as follows concerning Resolution No. 89, requesting the levy of a special tax to raise the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) for a new School Building at the Orphans' Home and an appropriation of $2,500.00 for a new cow barn at said Home.

In view of the fact that the capitation tax must be raised to one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20), your Committee does not think it advisable to levy a special tax for the purposes aforesaid. We recommend an appropriation of twenty-five hundred dollars ($2,500.00) for an addition to the cow barn, which can be paid out of the capitation tax of one dollar and twenty cents ($1.20).

We recommend that the matter of a new School Building be deferred for one year. Fraternally submitted,

SIGNED BY THE COMMITTEE.

DOCUMENT NO. 108.

Whereas, Section 2 of Article IV of the Grand Lodge Constitution, among other things, provides as follows: "The Grand Master shall preside at all meetings of the Grand Lodge and preserve order and enforce the rules. He shall appoint all Grand Officers pro tempore and all the Grand Officers who are not elective; * * *" and,

Whereas, Article III of the Rules of Order of this Grand Lodge provide, among other things, as follows: "The Grand Master, while presiding, shall state every question coming before the Grand Lodge, and immediately before putting it to vote he shall ask: 'Is the Grand Lodge ready for the question?' Should no member rise to speak, the Grand Master shall rise to take the vote, and after he has risen no member shall be permitted to speak upon the question. The Grand Master shall pronounce the votes and decisions of the Grand Lodge on all subjects. His decisions on questions of order shall be without debate, unless, entertaining doubts on the point, he invites it; and he shall have the privilege of speaking only on such questions from the chair. When his decision has been appealed from, the question shall be put thus: 'Will the Grand Lodge stand by the Chair in its decision?'" Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the present Grand Master and future Grand Masters be, and they are, most respectfully requested to observe and enforce the foregoing provisions of the Constitution and Rules of Order of this Grand Lodge, in order that the proceedings of this and future Sessions of the Grand Lodge may be conducted with fairness, regularity and dispatch.

GEORGE W. YOUNG.

Bro. Willis Melville, No. 693, moved to reconsider the vote taken on Document No. 95. Motion carried. Bro. Melville then moved that Document No. 95 be indefinitely postponed. Motion carried.

DOCUMENT NO. 110.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

The following is offered as an amendment to Article 4 of the Grand Lodge Constitution, relating to the election of Grand Lodge Officers; and, if adopted, will read as follows:

Section 1. The officers of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois shall be: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Conductor, Grand Guardian, and Grand Herald; the first five of whom shall be elected in the manner hereinafter described, and the others shall be appointed by the Grand Master.

Section 2. If any officer shall neglect or refuse to attend the Grand Lodge, his office may be declared vacant, and the same shall be filled by the officers and members present; provided, that should such absence be caused by sickness or disability, the officer may be excused by a majority of the members present.

Section 3. Should such vacancy occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the elective offices of the Grand Lodge, not otherwise provided for, the Grand Master, or, in his absence, the Deputy Grand Master, shall appoint a member of the Grand Lodge to fill such vacancy until the next regular session of the Grand Lodge, and he shall be entitled to all the honors and emoluments of the office, as though elected by the Grand Lodge.

Section 4. Nominations of candidates for Grand Officers may be made by any Past Grand transmitting the name of any Past Grand eligible for office, to the Grand Master, stating the office for which he is nominated, at any time prior to the 1st day of May. The Grand Master shall, immediately after the first day of May, transmit to each Past Grand nominated, a notice of his nomination, requesting his acceptance or declination of the same; and, if he accepts, he shall furnish the Grand Master with the notice of his acceptance, and a certificate of good standing in his Subordinate Lodge; failing to do so the Grand Master shall not place his name on the ticket. On the first day of June the Grand Master shall transmit to the Grand Secretary the names of all Past Grands who have accepted nominations; and the Grand Secretary shall, before July 1st, transmit to the several lodges, together with suitable election blanks, the names of all of the nominees who have accepted the nominations, and the location of the respective lodges in which they hold membership, stating the several offices for which they were nominated; provided, that no Past Grand can accept the nomination or be a candidate for more than one office at the same time.

Section 5. At the last regular meeting of each Subordinate Lodge in the month of July, the Past Grands in good standing of such lodge shall be entitled to vote by ballot for Grand Officers. The tellers shall be furnished by the Secretary with a list of all the Past Grands of the lodge who are not more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues, and no Past Grand shall be permitted to vote whose names does not appear in said list; provided, if any Past Grand whose name has been omitted shall pay his dues so as to make him less than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues at the time, he shall be allowed, on presenting a receipt to that effect, to have his name added to said list and to cast his vote. Immediately after the reading of the minutes the Noble Grand shall appoint two tellers from among the members of the lodge, and thereupon declare the ballot open, and the same shall remain open until the order of business "Good of the Order" shall have been reached, when the ballot shall be declared closed; whereupon the tellers, assisted by the Secretary, and under the supervision of the Noble Grand, shall count the votes in open lodge and announce the result, and a record thereof shall be entered upon the minutes. The Noble Grand, Secretary and tellers shall, on the same evening, make an abstract in triplicate of the votes cast for each candidate, attach their signature and the seal of the lodge to same, and immediately transmit one copy of said abstract to the Grand Master, and one copy to the Grand Secretary (and the Grand Secretary shall retain these abstracts unopened until after the last day upon which abstracts may be sent in, or August 1st.) The Secretary of the lodge shall retain the remaining copy thereof in said lodge, and deliver the same to the Representative of the Grand Lodge, who will deliver it to the Committee on Returns at the next session of that body. The Grand Secretary shall, at the following session of the Grand Lodge, deliver the said abstracts received by him, to the Committee on Returns for comparison with the report of the Grand Master.

Section 6. The Grand Master shall, on the second Tuesday in August, call to his assistance three disinterested Past Grands, residents of the city in which the Grand Master resides, and proceed to open and count the votes for Grand Officers. If any of the returns shall be irregular, or want any of the requisites prescribed in Section 5, the Grand Master shall immediately transmit said irregular returns to the lodge or lodges making said irregular returns, and call attention to the irregularities, and request the corrections of the same. After having canvassed all correct returns, and transmitted (if there be any) said irregular returns as above described, said board of canvassers shall adjourn to a future date, not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days, when they shall meet and complete the canvass. The Past Grands having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected to the offices for which they were respectively nominated. In the event of a tie vote, the candidate receiving the votes of the largest number of Subordinate Lodges shall be declared elected. In the event of death, removal or declination of the candidate otherwise to be declared elected, the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The Grand Master shall, immediately after the vote has been canvassed, certify the results of the count to the Grand Secretary, who shall notify the candidates of their election.

Section 7. The returns from the several lodges, together with the tally sheet, properly asserted to by the Grand Master and his assistants, shall be sealed up and returned to the Grand Lodge at the commencement of its next session, for revision and the correction of errors, if any be found therein. Such returns, together with duplicate returns held by the Grand Secretary, shall be referred to the Committee on Returns who shall carefully examine the same, and report to the Grand Lodge.

Section 8. Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge from this Grand Lodge shall be nominated and elected in the same manner as is provided for the election of officers to this Grand Lodge. At the election of officers in the month of July, of odd-numbered years, there shall be elected one Grand Representative to serve for a term of one year, and, at the election of officers in the month of July, in the even-numbered years, there shall be elected two Grand Representatives, one to serve for a term of one year, and one to serve for a term of two years. In making nominations for such officers to be voted for in even-numbered years, the Past Grand making the nomination shall state for which term the brother is nominated, and the election blanks furnished by the Grand Secretary shall designate one class of candidates as "Grand Representative for one year," and the other class of candidates as "Grand Representative for two years," provided that in case a Past Grand shall be nominated for both the one year and the two year terms, he may not be a candidate in both classes, but he must state in his acceptance the term for which his acceptance is filed.

Section 9. It is further resolved, that no candidate for any of the above offices shall be permitted to send any letters, photographs or literature to, or be permitted to visit lodges advocating their election, or permit it to be done by others. Should any candidate violate this resolution, and in the event of having received the highest number of votes, and upon proper proof brought before the returning board, the returning board shall declare him not legally elected, and he shall not be installed into the office for which he was a candidate, but the candidate having received the next highest number of votes, if he shall be free from any of the above charges, shall be declared elected, and installed into the respective office.

DOCUMENT NO. 111.

To the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I. O. O. F.:

The following is offered as an amendment to Article IV of the Grand Lodge Constitution, relating to the election of Grand Lodge Officers, and, if adopted, will read as follows:

Section 1. The officers of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois shall be: Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Warden, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Grand Chaplain, Grand Marshal, Grand Conductor, Grand Guardian, and Grand Herald; the first five of whom shall be elected in the manner hereinafter described, and the others shall be appointed by the Grand Master.

Sec. 2. If any officer shall neglect or refuse to attend the Grand Lodge, his office may be declared vacant, and the same shall be filled by the officers and members present: Provided, that should such absence be caused by sickness or disability, the officer may be excused by a majority of the members present.

Sec. 3. Should such vacancy occur, by resignation or otherwise, in any of the elective offices of the Grand Lodge, not otherwise provided for, the Grand Master, or, in his absence, the Deputy Grand Master, shall appoint a member of the Grand Lodge to fill such vacancy until the next regular Session of the Grand Lodge; and he shall be entitled to all the honors and emoluments of the office, as though elected by the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 4. Nominations of candidates for Grand Officers may be made by any Past Grand transmitting the name of any Past Grand eligible for office to the Grand Master, stating the office for which he is nominated, at any time prior to the 1st day of May. The Grand Master shall, immediately after the 1st day of May, transmit to each Past Grand nominated a notice of his nomination, requesting his acceptance or declination of the same; and if he accepts he shall furnish the Grand Master with the notice of his acceptance and a certificate of good standing in his Subordinate Lodge. Failing to do so, the Grand Master shall not place his name on the ticket. On the 1st day of June the Grand Master shall transmit to the Grand Secretary the names of all Past Grands who have accepted nominations; and the Grand Secretary shall, before July 1, transmit to the several Lodges, together with suitable election blanks, the names of all the nominees who have accepted the nominations and the location of the respective Lodges in which they hold membership, stating the several offices for which they were nominated: Provided, that no Past Grand can accept the nomination or be a candidate for more than one office at the same time.

Sec. 5. At the last regular meeting of each Subordinate Lodge in the month of July, the Past Grands in good standing of such Lodge shall be entitled to vote by ballot for Grand Officers. The Tellers shall be furnished by the Secretary with a list of all the Past Grands of the Lodge who are not more than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues, and no Past Grand shall be permitted to vote whose name does not appear in said list: Provided, if any Past Grand whose name has been omitted shall pay his dues, so as to make him less than thirteen weeks in arrears for dues at the time, he shall be allowed, on presenting a receipt to that effect, to have his name added to said list and to cast his vote. Immediately after the reading of the minutes the Noble Grand shall appoint two Tellers from among the members of the Lodge, and thereupon declare the ballot open, and the same shall remain open until the order of business of "Good of the Order" shall have been reached, when the ballot shall be declared closed; whereupon the Tellers, assisted by the Secretary, and under the supervision of the Noble Grand, shall count the ballots in open Lodge and announce the result, and a record thereof shall be entered upon the minutes. The Noble Grand, Secretary and Tellers shall, on the same evening, make an abstract in triplicate of the votes cast for each candidate, attach their signature and the seal of the Lodge to the same, and immediately transmit one copy of said abstract to the Grand Master and one copy to the Grand Secretary (and the Grand Secretary shall retain these abstracts unopened until after the last day upon which abstracts may be sent in, or August 1). The Secretary of the Lodge shall retain the remaining copy thereof in said Lodge, and deliver the same to the Representative of the Grand Lodge, who will deliver it to the Committee on Returns at the next Session of that Body. The Grand Secretary shall, at the following Session of the Grand Lodge, deliver the said abstracts received by him to the Committee on Returns, for comparison with the report of the Grand Master.

Sec. 6. The Grand Master shall, on the second Tuesday in August, call to his assistance three disinterested Past Grands, residents of the city in which the Grand Master resides, and proceed to open and count the votes for Grand Officers. If any of the returns shall be irregular, or want any of the requisites prescribed in Section 5, the Grand Master shall immediately transmit said irregular returns to the Lodge or Lodges making said irregular returns, and call attention to the irregularities and request the correction of the same. After having canvassed all correct returns and transmitted (if there be any) said irregular returns as above described, said Board of Canvassers shall adjourn to a future date, not less than fifteen nor more than thirty days, when they shall meet and complete the canvass. The Past Grands having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected to the offices for which they were respectively nominated. In the event of a tie vote, the candidate receiving the votes of the largest number of Subordinate Lodges shall be declared elected. In the event of death, removal or declination of the candidate otherwise to be declared elected, the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The Grand Master shall, immediately after the vote has been canvassed, certify the results of the count to the Grand Secretary, who shall notify the candidates of their election.

Sec. 7. The returns from the several Lodges, together with the tally sheet, properly asserted to by the Grand Master and his assistants, shall be sealed up and returned to the Grand Lodge at the commencement of its next Session, for revision and the correction of errors, if any be found therein. Such returns, together with duplicate returns held by the Grand Secretary, shall be referred to the Committee on Returns, who shall carefully examine the same and report to the Grand Lodge.

Sec. 8. Representatives to the Sovereign Grand Lodge from this Grand Lodge shall be nominated and elected in the same manner as is provided for the election of officers to this Grand Lodge. At the election of officers in the month of July, of odd numbered years, there shall be elected one Grand Representative, to serve for a term of one year, and at the election of officers in the month of July, in the even numbered years, there shall be elected two Grand Representatives, one to serve for a term of one year and one to serve for a term of two years. In making nominations for such officers to be voted for in even numbered years the Past Grand making the nomination shall state for which term the Brother is nominated, and the election blanks furnished by the Grand Secretary shall designate one class of candidates as "Grand Representative for one year" and the other class of candidates as "Grand Representatives for two years:" Provided that in case a Past Grand shall be nominated for both the one-year and the two-year terms, he may not be a candidate in both the classes, but he must state in his acceptance the term for which his acceptance is filed.

Sec. 9. It is further resolved, that no candidate for any of the above offices shall be permitted to send any letters, photographs or literature to, or be permitted to visit Lodges advocating their election, or permit it to be done by others. Should any candidate violate this resolution, and in the event of his having received the highest number of votes, and upon proper proof brought before the Returning Board, the Returning Board shall declare him not legally elected, and he shall not be installed into the office for which he was a candidate, but the candidate having received the next highest number of votes, if he shall be free from any of the above charges, shall be declared elected and installed into the respective office.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEX. VAN PRAAG,
Past Grand Master.

PROCEEDINGS OF FOURTH SESSION

November 17, 1914

CASE NO. 452.

I Will Lodge, No. 141, I. O. O. F.	}	Before Committee on Judiciary and Appeals, November Ses- sion, 1914.
vs.
Lorenzo B. Elliott.

Opinion by Bro. Henry A. Stone, of No. 122.

This case appears to have been tried on June 22, 1914, and the appeal was prayed for on November 3, 1914.

Section 400 of the Illinois Code, I. O. O. F., provides very distinctly that appeals must be taken within three months, while in this case, nearly five months have elapsed.

It is the unanimous judgment of this committee that we have no jurisdiction in this case.

Opinion: It is, therefore, ordered that the appeal be dismissed.

HENRY A. STONE,
W. E. P. ANDERSON,
OWEN SCOTT,
C. M. TURNER,

Judiciary and Appeals Committee.

CHESTER M. TURNER,

Committee on Judiciary and Appeals.

Case No. 450, entitled James R. Kewley Lodge No. 1022 vs. Moses Winberg, was continued until the February session of the committee by agreement of the parties.

Case No. 453, entitled Hedwig Rebekah Lodge No. 249, I. O. O. F. vs. Sister Hedwig Fuchs, was continued until the February session for a more complete record, with instructions to supply the record in the English language.

Past Grand Master Geo. F. Howard in the chair.

Bro. John J. Crowder, Grand Warden, moved that a vote of thanks be extended to the Governor of Illinois, the Mayor of Springfield, the Secretary of State and the press of Springfield for their uniform courtesies extended during the session of the Grand Lodge, which motion was unanimously adopted.

Bro. John J. Brown, P.G.M., moved that a vote of thanks be extended to Bro. Warren C. Darnall, retiring Grand Master, for his uniform courtesy and earnest work manifested during his entire term of office and while presiding over this body at this session.

This motion was voted unanimously.

‡Until 1845 inclusive, proxy representation in the Grand Lodge of the United States was permitted. In 1839 Past Grand Master Samuel Pryor, of Pennsylvania, was elected proxy Representative by the Grand Lodge of Illinois, but did not serve. At the adjourned session in April, 1840, Past Grand Master Augustus Mathiot, of Maryland, presented credentials as proxy Representative of Illinois, which were accepted, and he was also recognized in that capacity at the annual session in October following; but there is no record of his election or appointment. In 1842 and 1843, James Earnest, of New York, was elected and served as proxy Representative of Illinois. In 1844 Past Grand Master William S. Stewart, of Missouri, D.D.G.S., was requested to appoint a proxy Representative for the Grand Lodge of Illinois; but no such proxy was present at the session of that year, unless Stewart himself acted in that capacity. In 1845 no election for Representative was held.

NOTICES.

The next Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of the State of Illinois, I.O.O.F., will be held in the City of Springfield, on the third Tuesday of November, 1915, viz., the 16th day of the month, at 7 o'clock

The special attention of Secretaries and others is directed to the following law of the Sovereign Grand Lodge:

Resolved, That Grand Scribes and Grand Secretaries are hereby prohibited from delivering or transmitting visiting or withdrawal cards to any person whatever, or to any Encampment or Lodge, excepting upon the order in writing of an Encampment or Lodge, signed by its Scribe (in the case of an Encampment) or by its Secretary (in the case of a Lodge), and authenticated by the official seal of the Encampment or the Lodge.

Also to this law of the Grand Lodge of Illinois:

Resolved, That the Grand Secretary be directed not to fill any orders for supplies, for Lodges or individuals, unless the cash accompany such order.

Prices for supplies may be found on the reverse side of this leaf.

In ordering such supplies as are sent by express (see next page), give full instructions; state to what office or station, and in whose care they may be forwarded.

All communications intended for the Grand Lodge, or the Grand Secretary, must be addressed to the undersigned at Springfield. The Grand Secretary's office is in the Odd Fellows' Building, corner Monroe and Fourth streets.

JOHN H. SIKES,

Grand Secretary.
